Constant Improvement

The phrase "Making Good Men Better" is used often to describe Freemasonry. Each mason is on his own path to improvement. The ritualistic teachings of the craft are presented to every brother as they are entered, passed, and raised through the 3 degrees. It is up to each individual to apply those teachings to his own life. We should ever be seekers of light. We are all workers in the quarries of Freemasonry. We are all a much-needed part to the betterment and the future of our craft. Never be complacent with our work. Ask "What can I do to be better?" for those around me, my lodge, & myself. What we do today shapes the future for those who come tomorrow. May you ever be inspired for constant improvement. I am grateful to you, my brother.

Fraternally yours,

RW Joshua David Bumpus

My Brothers,

I hope everyone had a wonderful Holiday season. I first want to thank everyone for the support they have shown me as District Deputy. As we enter 2025, there are a variety of events that will be coming up. With the approach the 250th Anniversary of our Country's Independence, our Grand Lodge has planned a series of meaningful and celebratory activities to honor this historic occasion.

These events will not only celebrate our nation's legacy but also highlight the deep-rooted involvement and enduring values of Freemasonry that have played such a significant role in shaping our nation's history.

I'm also excited for the upcoming Masonic Family Fun Day, this will be a wonderful opportunity for Brothers, their families, and friends to once again come together in fellowship and create lasting memories.

More details, including event schedules and participation opportunities, will follow soon. I encourage all of you to join us in making these celebrations truly special.

Thank you for your dedication to our Craft, and I look forward to sharing these moments and memories with each of you.

Fraternally yours,

RW Lawrence S. Santos Jr.

Lamentations

“The road to heaven feels like hell, the road to hell feels like heaven” in this day and age not only the youth but the mature men and women of the human race have lost their sensitivity to not only this world, but the divine. The systematic demystification of everything in our society has led to an internal spiritual, logical, moral , and philosophical crisis. There feels to be nothing sacred or special in this world as there once was. The great 18th century German philosopher Frederick Nietzsche gave us a grave warning in the form of a statement “Gott ist tot” translated as “God is dead”. Meaning in a sense that when a society loses its moral standing, its devotion, its purpose it loses all reason to be. This path leads us down a scary road of perpetual nihilism, a road that has no purpose. A road with no purpose would have no beginning or end, for see the purpose of a road is technically to travel from one place to another right? This road of no end has led to a sense of loss, for if there is no reason or purpose to do anything why would you do anything? Or if you decide to do something why would you ever do the moral thing? On this road there is no judgment, so why not take the easy path? Why not just indulge, lie, steal, and be a glutton? This may sound exciting and interesting especially to the young of mind, but this should be a tremendous warning! Humanities attack and murder of God has lead to the sharpest decline, we say that we can hold ourselves to these self proclaimed enlightenment morals but we can't! Take a look around at society currently. Do you not see the terrible divides that plague us? Do you not see the greed, the theft, the infidelity, the lack of care for the common good? This is the deep internal sickness humanity is facing, unfortunately at its own hand. Every Time the ancient Israelites built idols and disobeyed Adoni they were punished, cast into exile, the Lord would rain fire and overturn their leadership. Ever since we as modern people turned our backs, The Grand Architect has just allowed us to sit in our own filth, sit in our own empty void, and walk down this purposeless road. That is our eternal punishment I suppose. To have our youth grow up with no hope in humanity, no hope in the Lord. To suffer this purposeless existence. If we are to ever escape and revive and save our species from this path we need to refind the divine, refind our purpose. We have to take our sacred tools and start digging and milling a new pathway into that purposeless road. Creating a new pathway forward for our children to walk down, one with purpose, one our forefathers would be proud to see finally rediscovered. I am not calling for just blanket blind devotion to any idol or figure you can find, but a rediscovery of the one we all one day hope to return to. Do not continue this cycle of worshiping the self, worshiping the feelings. Not everything that feels good to the self is good to the soul.

From the desk of M.W. George F. Hamilton, Grand Master

Happy Holidays!

As this year comes to a close, let us reflect on the values that unite us as Freemasons: Brotherly Love, Relief, and Truth. These timeless principles make our Fraternity so special as they guide us every single day to foster deeper relationships, build stronger communities, and develop our character.

I hope you receive the gift of faith, the blessing of hope, and the peace of God's love this holiday season.

I look forward to seeing you at the Installation of our Grand Lodge Officers and the celebration of the Feast of Saint John the Evangelist, or in the new year!

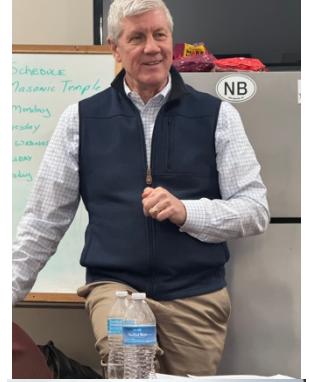

Sincerely & fraternally,

George F. Hamilton
Grand Master
