AN EXTRORDINARY EVENING WITH BROTHER JON STETSON

Members of George H. Taber Lodge, the 19th District & beyond were blown away by Jon Stetson. Truly a once and a lifetime experience of magic, wisdom and entertainment.

Lodge of Instruction April 24th, 2025

Worshipful Mark Z. Stought gave an interesting presentation on Civil War Masons. Including some interesting facts concerning freemasonry at the time: A that time there were roughly 30 million Americans of that 500,000 of them were freemasons. However, masons made up 11% of the military on both sides of the war. A "southern gentleman" by the name of John Quincy Adams Fellows would visit brethren in jail during the war and deliver food, clothing and other needs. This difference in treatment of prisoners during the wartimes led to an elitist believe about masons among the profane. Most Worshipful Fellows was the Grand Master of Louisiana at this time.

A message from DDGM 19th

Brethren,

The past months have been a testament to the unwavering commitment of our members. As brothers, we have had many educational programs and events. The bonds forged and formed during these activities have extended beyond the Lodge Room walls and into our daily lives. We have also had opportunities to serve our community and make meaningful connections with our cities and towns. Our charitable endeavors and outreach programs have left an indelible mark, showcasing the benevolence and compassion inherent in the hearts of our brethren.

As we move forward, let us carry this spirit of unity and Brotherhood into the future. May the amazing Band of Brothers that is the 19th district continue to grow and inspire generations to come.

Finally, as we approach Memorial Day, may we pay tribute to those who have Paid the Highest Price to be called Americans. Our great Fraternity is filled with Veterans and service members who have gone to the celestial lodge above. Let us keep them in our deepest thoughts.

May the Great Architect of the Universe bless our great fraternity and may the light of Freemasonry continue to shine brightly within the hearts of our esteemed Brothers.

Fraternalily Right Worshipful

Joshua David Bumpus

A message from DDGM 19th

My brothers,

with the Masonic year coming to an end? I want to take this opportunity to express my appreciation to the brothers of the 19th West. You are what makes Masonry the organization it is. Your efforts to strengthen your lodges, your charitable works, and your brotherly bonds are inspirational. I am truly grateful to be able to share the experience of Masonry with you.

As June approaches Lodges will be having elections, finishing degree work and some will vote to go dark for the Summer.

This doesn't mean that there won't be activity throughout the district and Jurisdiction. From the events surrounding the 250th celebration and the Grand Masters Family Fun Day to local Lodge cookouts and fun family events. Masonry never goes dark. Take advantage of these events and spend time together in the summer sun. I will see you all in June and look forward to seeing you at summertime activities.

Rebirth

Traveling a pathway from west to east, going against the grain. Against the common path of the star, we hold dear. Coming from the origin of darkness, being engulfed by it, living in it our whole lives knowing nothing different. Traveling towards the forever light, the radiant truth that lies in the east. We make this journey in life through our own free will and accord, of our own fruition. We enter in darkness, and we depart in light after a lifetime of work, study, and atonement. The path we walk is not traveled by many, we are the forever travelers. Hence why they call us traveling men. Men traveling to that eternal light of deity, The light of truth. This journey takes us through birth, adulthood, death, and rebirth. A cycle so represented and symbolized by the ouroboros. The forever dragon constantly eating at its own body, spinning and spinning for eternity.

During your birth you exited the sacred womb of your mother past two pillars. From darkness and shadows of the sacred womb into the light of the day! The pure emblematic innocence that you held in that moment could never be felt or projected again. An innocence as pure as the sacred lamb. Being entered and given partial light of the world.

In adulthood your light grows and grows each and every day with the constant study of those liberal arts and sciences. Doing our duty to deity and our country by becoming learned men, upright men, and pillars in our community. Raising families so that they too eventually stand as future pillars to come. With half-light we stand square and upright ready to adorn the day as one of deities' finest creations.

At the end of our adulthood, we stand as the MOST upright and just pillars. Pillars of wisdom to contrive, to lead and pushforward the next generation being the shining example of light! To most this is nearly the end. Soon a forever sleep will come over and bring them to peace. As travelers another phase has just yet begun. Our rebirth into the celestial lodge above. As we return to the ultimate form of light in the universe, THE LIGHT, THE ALL, THE DEITY.

Furthermore, more well before this time has come travelers pass through a symbolic death. One to remind us of our forever end, one that reminds us to find what was lost we need to return to our deity. Or was our deity what was forever lost? I wonder if we will ever know the answer to that.
