Welcome the newest member of Abraham H. Howland Jr. Lodge Victor Manuel Cantu Silva and the newest members of Noquochoke Lodge Wilkinson Julien & Camren Jay Lewis! A true night that we will never forget.

19th District East Highlights!

Men's Health Group: Tuesday June 17th, 2025, which introduced the topic the Circle of Health. Bro. Brad Anselmo & Wor. Brian Fernandes were the co-speakers for this meeting. The Circle of Health is a holistic model that represents the interconnectedness of various aspect of the persons wellbeing. It's a framework that encourages you to consider all parts of your life when thinking about health; and how those parts influence each other. It demonstrates that health not only applies to our physical condition but that our mental, emotional, social, spiritual and environmental health are all intertwined. You're at the center of the circle. You are in control of your health, no one else.

Lodge of Instruction June 26th, 2025

Stacey Fraser from the Scottish Rite Museum gave a presentation on the museum, some of their artifacts and announced some upcoming events. This year's Lodge of Instructions were very entertaining, informative and interesting. 2025/2026 LOI season are starting out strong with a salute to the US Army, US Navy & US Marine Corp. and their involvement with the American Revolution. DON'T MISS THESE as we ramp up the Rev 250! This was the LAST LOI of the masonic year. Don't miss out on next year LOI's. ## A message from DDGM 19th East

Brethren,

September is now upon us, and we are nearing the beginning of the new Masonic year. I really cannot believe how quickly summer has ended. Although last year flew by, there are still many things we have all accomplished. The Grand Masters Family Fun Day in Hudson MA on Sunday AUG 10th was a huge success. This event was a memorable time for family and friends alike. Thank you to all that helped manning the booth!

We will also have a booth at the Acushnet Apple Peach Festival that will be held on Saturday, September 6, and Sunday, September 7, 2025, at the Long Plain Museum in Acushnet, MA. The festival will run from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. each day and we will need help as well. I look forward to seeing all of you during the first couple of meetings and get togethers coming this month. Thank you for being the best part of the 19th Masonic district!

Joshua David Bumpus

A message from DDGM 19th West

My brothers,

I hope everyone had a wonderful summer with friends and family! I would like to extend my heartfelt thanks to each of you for your dedication, enthusiasm, and unwavering commitment to the Craft. Your efforts in strengthening our lodges, engaging our members, and reaching out into the community through charitable work have truly embodied the principles of Freemasonry. It has been inspiring to witness the unity, fellowship, and leadership that have defined our district throughout the year.

As we move into a new masonic year, I hope you find time to rest, recharge, and enjoy the season with your families and friends. Let us carry the momentum of this past year into the months ahead, and I look forward to reconnecting with many of you at the very soon. Until then, may the Great Architect continue to guide and bless you in all your endeavors.

Freemasonry and Nazi Germany
by Wor. Mark E. White

"In National socialistic Germany there is no place for Freemasonry" – Herman Goering

"Ourselves or the Freemasons or the Church – there is room for one of the three and no more, We are the strongest of the three and shall get rid of the other two." – Adolf Hitler

The Second World War began on September 1, 1939, with Germany invading Poland. From there Germany continued to annex the various European countries. Once a country was conquered, the German police forcibly closed down many Masonic lodges and branch headquarters of the Masons and confiscated their assets, including their libraries and archives. The Lodge was ransacked for membership lists, important library and archival items, furnishings, and other cultural artifacts. It is believed that the Jewish books and famous art collections were the most important things that were taken. Actually, it was the masonic archives that were the first cultural property that was taken. This was by order of Reich Leader Arthur Rosenberg (Einsatzstab Reichsleiter). In this way Germany would be permitted to carry on the "methodical intellectual fight" that was "necessary to win the war."

Free association between and among Masons under Nazi control was dangerous. However, there were Brothers who were determined not to give up their identity as Freemasons, even under these most difficult of circumstances. Along with Jews, homosexuals, those living with physical and mental handicaps, Catholics, and Jehovah's Witnesses – Freemasons were targeted for criminal prosecution and exclusion from society.

For Freemasons, the flower, the forget-me-not, is a symbol that reminded them of resilience and resistance, and of love for the Fraternity and its principles, even under distress and persecution. Thus, the blue forget-me-not, ostensibly a symbol of Nazi social policy, became a symbol of Freemasonry – a clandestine badge of membership. For Freemasons, the forget-me-not is a symbol that reminded them - and us now - of resilience and resistance, and of love for the Fraternity and its principles, even under distress and persecution.

Many of the Freemasons were arrested. Also included were Jews and/or members of the political opposition. Therefore, it is not known how many individuals were placed in Nazi concentration camps and/or were targeted only because they were Freemasons.

From 1941 to 1945 the Germans occupied the Channel Islands, the southern most part of the British Isles, namely Jersey and Guernsey. This is far as the Germans would get with their plans to occupy Britain. The SA troops from France were sent in preparation for the arrival of a professional squad called Wreckers. These were as many as 60 men as well as visits of officers from the higher staff, for destruction that was done on the Lodges of Jersey and Guernsey, an integral part of anti-masonic propaganda.

Three – three-ton lorries were used to remove artifacts such as chairs, pedestals, banner carpets, curtains etc., from the library and museum and shipped to Germany. At the end of the war all the archives taken by the Nazis were split up among the Americans, French, British and Soviets. The archives were returned to the respective countries by the Allied Forces except for the Russians. They secretly sent the archives to Moscow quite illegally. Since the end of the Cold War, many Masonic-related collections have been returned to their countries of origin, while others continue to be held in foreign repositories. The hope of recovering any missing, looted materials have faded.

Despite the darkness caused by the Nazi regime, a small light was shining. This was Liberté chérie (French for "Cherished Liberty"), a Masonic Lodge founded in 1943 by Belgian Resistance fighters and other political prisoners at Esterwagen concentration camp in Belgium. It was one of the few lodges of Freemasons founded within Nazi concentration camps during the Second World War. They conducted these meetings and ritual in secret from 1943-1944. During simple ceremonies. they asked the community of Catholic priests for assistance of maintaining secrecy, "with their prayers".

Along with Jews, homosexuals, those living with physical and mental handicaps, Catholics, and Jehovah's Witnesses – Freemasons were targeted for criminal prosecution and exclusion from society. It is estimated that 200,000 members lost their lives due to their membership in the Fraternity.

We must remember never to forget. SO MOTE IT BE.

THE TRAVELING MAN

*Every month we will be looking to feature a brother that has traveled outside the 19th District and tell their story.
(Email Bro.Ian.Harcourt@gmail.com with pictures & trip info).

ON FRIDAY AUGUST 1ST, 2025, BRO. HARCOURT AMONG MANY MEMBERS OF THE 19TH MASONIC DISTRICT VISITED PIONEER LODGE IN SOMERSET MA. THIS WAS THEIR FIRST ANNUAL OUTDOOR MASTER MASON DEGREE.

***Do you have a Traveling Man story that you would like to share with the district? YOU COULD BE NEXT... Please reach out to Bro. Harcourt @ Bro.Ian.Harcourt@gmail.com and share your story.
You could be featured in the next Traveling Man!!***

After a beautiful day of sunlight and warm summer weather an extra-large tent was set up at 'Lazy A' Driving Range in East Freetown. Food was served for the first hour then the Grand Master of Mason's in Massachusetts MW George Forest Hamilton was received and the fun began. This was a unique degree in which many brothers stepped in to fill roles. There was a very exciting gate reenacting with RW Lawrence Santos (1st gate), RW Joshua Bumpus (2nd gate) and Wor. Peter Ham (3rd Gate). Not to mention music added and the natural lack of lighting at night, adding some allure to the event. A big thank you to Pioneer lodge and all the brethren of the 16th and 19th district who helped make this event a success!
