19th District West Highlights!

On September 3rd, 2026 Massasoit-Narragansett lodge held a first degree on Bro. Renel Jean. Letter perfect ritual by Junior Warden Wor. Dino Valente. David Allen delivered a heartfelt Senior Warden lecture. The night ended with the First Degree charge delivered by Wor. Adam Miranda. A truly memorable night.

19th District East Highlights!

On September 8th R.: W.: Peter W. Ham had his first Official visit to Pythagorean lodge. The officers of Quittacus lodge filled in as the district officers. A truly unique night with this visit followed by a brief Fraternal Visit to present Wor. Darrell McTague with his Past Masters certificate.

The Masonic Comic Strip

1 ANOTHER DAY AT THE QUARRY...

Man... I'm tired. Same work, same dust, same stones. When do we finally get the recognition we deserve?

Yeah, I keep thinking... shouldn't there be more praise, more thanks, maybe a title by now?

You're thinking about the wrong thing, my brothers.

EA FC MM

2 EXPECTATIONS vs. REALITY

But isn't it natural to want recognition? Don't we put in the hours, the sweat, and the effort? Shouldn't there be glory in that?

Recognition may come, but it's not the purpose. If you work for glory, you'll be disappointed. The world rarely sees the quiet work that matters. We don't build for applause...

WORK IN SILENCE BUILDS LOUDER MEN

3 IT'S BIGGER THAN US

So what are we working for if it's not glory? Fame? Titles? A pat on the back?

No, my brother. We work for something far greater — the betterment of ourselves, our brothers, and the world around us. The work itself changes us, whether anyone notices or not.

4 THE TRUE REWARD

So the reward is in becoming a better man?

Exactly. Every stone we shape teaches patience, discipline, and humility. The quarry doesn't hand out trophies, but it does give us something more valuable — character. And that lasts long after the dust settles.

BETTER MEN A BRIGHTER TOMORROW

5 GLORY FADES, CHARACTER ENDURES

I get it now. Glory fades — but a good man's influence can last for generations.

So even if no one sees it today, the work still matters.

That's right. We may never know all the lives we touch. But a better man, a stronger family, and a more upright society — that is the reward. This is not glory...

6 A MODERN DAY MOMENT

So when I'm tempted to look for recognition, I'll remind myself... this isn't about glory.

It's about showing up, doing the work, and becoming the man I'm supposed to be.

Now you're understanding, my brothers.

7 LESSONS FROM THE QUARRY

- DO THE WORK — EVEN WHEN NO ONE IS WATCHING.
- SEEK CHARACTER — NOT APPLAUSE.
- BUILD OTHERS UP — THAT IS TRUE RECOGNITION.
- GLORY FADES — BUT A GOOD MAN'S LEGACY LASTS.
- THIS IS NOT GLORY... IT IS A GREATER PURPOSE.

SAME STONES. HIGHER MEN.

8 THE SUN SETS, BUT THE WORK CONTINUES.

Different days. Same purpose. This is not glory... It's a better you.

CHARACTER OUTLASTS APPLAUSE.

MORE THAN STONES...

THIS IS NOT GLORY — IT IS A GREATER PURPOSE.

SEE YOU IN LODGE, BROTHER.

A message from DDGM 19th East

Dear Brethren,

Recently I took the opportunity to go and sit on a bench at Fort Phoenix...and just allowed myself the time to gaze at the shimmering light off the water, felt the gentle breeze on my face, heard the gentleness of the waves and took in the scents of the ocean. I need to remind myself to make the effort to make the time to pause and be present

We begin our next Masonic year with new Masters in our lodges and an amazing number of activities for the coming year. I would like to thank the leadership of the lodges for taking the time to meet following the Grand Lodge Quarterly-it was so helpful to coordinate our efforts. I also so value the work that your lodge Secretaries perform in preparation for the Official Visits. Their work together as we reviewed the necessary paperwork was inspiring. Additionally, the number of members on my Suites has been so appreciative. You all have an open invitation to be on any of my Suites (of course the District Deputy Grand Marshal will remind you to be suitably dressed for that occasion).

I ask each of you to review your investment of time as we are reminded to use the twenty-four-inch gauge. Your preparation for events ensures a meaningful program and inspires others. The Lodges in our District have had so many excellent examples of well-planned events. I look forward to the coming months and greeting each of you on the level.

As another reminder, please take the time to invest in your health. Your time on this earth depends on how you spend your time-so many others depend on you...I depend on you. You are a living example of how we can and do make a difference in the lives of others, in our lodges, communities and our nation. Thank you for your thoughtful investment of time.

Fraternalily & courteously
Right Worshipful

Peter Webster Ham

A message from DDGM 19th West

If We Are Not Willing to Change

Brethren,

Freemasonry has survived for generations because those who came before us were willing to work for it, support it, and change when change was necessary.

We cannot assume that simply because Freemasonry has existed for hundreds of years, it will automatically exist for hundreds more.

If we are not willing to change and put in the effort, Freemasonry will not survive.

That does not mean abandoning our traditions, principles, or ritual. It means being honest about what is working and what is not.

Are we mentoring our new Brothers?

Are we giving members a reason to return?

Are we collecting dues, paying our obligations, communicating effectively, and running our Lodges responsibly?

Are we preparing the next generation of leaders?

Every Lodge should ask one simple question:

What does good look like?

Then we must be willing to do the work required to get there.

Past Masters, Past District Deputies, and experienced Brothers should guide and support today's officers, not simply force yesterday's ideas upon them.

The future of Freemasonry will be decided in our Lodge rooms by the effort we are willing to put forward today.

Leadership requires more than occupying a chair.

It requires effort, accountability, difficult conversations, and the willingness to make necessary changes.

Fraternalily

Right Worshipful

Stephen Sparks

SATURDAY AUGUST 29TH, 2026 THE COLONIAL EA DEGREE

Bro. Bill Travers & Bro. Ian Harcourt visited Hiram Lodge #1 in New Haven CT & The Grand Lodge of Connecticut Colonial EA Degree. This Entered Appendices Degree was conferred on two candidates in historic Fort Hale. The Grand Master of Connecticut M.: W.: Shane Dufresne was in attendance as well as 90 other brothers to witness unique Hiram ritual. This was unique and interesting experience. We were treated to a sit-down dinner at the New Haven Annex Club just a few miles down the road from the fort. To remember this exciting night, we each received a commemorative challenge coin.
