

UN HIGH COMMISSIONER FOR HUMAN RIGHTS: OPEN YOUR EYES, OPEN YOUR EARS, OPEN YOUR HEART, AND CLOSE YOUR MOUTH

by Rick Heizman, Oct 15, 2017

Zeid Ra'ad Al Hussein, the UN High Commissioner for Human Rights, which means the chief of the UN Human Rights Council, may have long titles, however just a few words coming out of his mouth can be so short-sighted.

Last week I had to point out his inability to condemn terrorism, murder, slaughter, kidnapping, forced conversion, burning villages, destruction of property, the screaming of 'allahu akbar' when hacking off limbs of people who do not yell 'allahu akbar' when he slammed Myanmar for its response to the largest terrorist attack in its history, and one of the largest terrorist attacks in the entire world, by branding it, "a textbook example of ethnic cleansing".

Now, once again, I have to attempt to open his mind, and close his mouth.... respectfully.

Zeid Ra'ad Al Hussein accused India of lacking "basic human compassion" for seeking to deport Bengali Muslims (so-called Rohingya) refugees. But, he has never mentioned the: 'basic human compassion' that the terrorists seem to lack, or the 'basic human compassion' that the executioners of Hindu villages lack, or the 'basic human compassion' that kidnappers of girls display, and the 'basic human compassion' that seems to be lacking when threatening men force those girls to convert to Islam (which in itself seems to lack 'basic human compassion' very much). 'basic human compassion' seems to be lacking when the Bengali Muslims destroy, pillage, and burn homes and villages, and, there doesn't seem to be much 'basic human compassion' in the threats and intimidation that the Bengalis inflict upon the people who actually have 'basic human compassion' and their Buddhist religion exemplifies 'basic human compassion' and is famous for its 'basic human compassion'.

By the way, Zeid Ra'ad Al Hussein, do you know what 'basic human compassion' is? If you don't it is understandable. If you do, then please, try to insert it in your religion! It may greatly help the situation, in fact, it may greatly help the entire world!
