Claims

How I was recruited:

In our village, Rawfique (30 yrs) and Farof (30 yrs) told the villagers that ARSA is going to occupy the Maungdaw region and declare it an Islamic Territory and all Islamic Bengalis must join. They said Bengalis are oppressed in education, social affairs and religion. Bengalis would unite, attack, and seize weapons from the security outposts. They told us to be ready, as ARSA and Bengali militants from Bangladesh were going to come, and they would bring guns and bombs.

How we prepared to attack:

Around 11:30 am of 24.8.2017, Rawfique and Farof came and said that ARSA had arrived and they would attack the police outposts in the early morning and snatch their weapons. Those who already had training from ARSA would lead the attacks here, and villagers would also attack at the same time in Buthidaung and Maungdaw. They said that those who did not join the attacks would be considered as traitors and be executed. They also said not to reveal anything about ARSA if we are captured by the police, or if we did, our family members would be killed. Hanu Bar (35 yrs), Sawli Mullar (33), Abhdu (25), Zaw Do Soung (50), Taw Do Lar (40) and Ahmen (50) from our village arrived at the village mosque with swords and sticks. Then, Rawfique and Farof led us. On the way, we saw other villagers including Na Zi Hu Saung, from Kyauk Pan Du village, led by unknown Mawlawis [Imams]. We numbered around 300 Bengalis.

How we attacked:

At 4:00 am on 25.8.2017, we (led by Rawfique and Farof) and ARSA members surrounded the Gwa Sone Police outpost and attacked it. ARSA used guns and handmade bombs. Policemen shot back and we moved back and eventually ran away.

How we were captured:

As we did not dare go back to our village, we - Na Zi Hu Saung, (F) Ahdu Shukhu, and Anar Dullah, (F) Swaytar Baw, and Zu Bine, (F) Abu Arhar, and Adu Naw Bi, (F) Mamauk Husein, and Annan Mulla, (F) Raw Bulla, and Zaw Baw, (F) Mot Nal, and Habi Bulla (F) Zaw Yaw - were hiding in Do Tan Village near Alay Than Kyaw village, and we were found and arrested by the Army and BGP (Border Guard Police).
