Claims

How I was recruited:

In our village, there are about 400 households, but, I don't know how many people. There are two mosques in our village. I go to the nearest mosque, we are supposed to go there 5 times a day. But, I can only go 2 or 3 times because I am a daily worker. The Mawlawi [Imam] of the mosque is Fawkaw Raw Din (25), (F) Sha Ha Mauk. He and La Lu (short hair, wide forehead, big eyebrows, small eyes, sharp nose, small mouth, beard, thin, height- 5' 6") said we should occupy Maungdaw region and make it an Islamic State. They said that Bengalis are restricted from traveling, and oppressed, and that is why we must unite and attack the security outposts. RSO (Rohingya Solidarity Organization) and ARSA members from Bangladesh are giving training secretly in some villages. Now, the trainees would lead the attacks. I heard La Lu has connections with the RSO and ARSA, and he is training villagers.

How we attacked:

Our villagers together with other Bengalis led by RSO and ARSA attacked the security outposts on 25.8.2017. I did not know which outposts they attacked, because I did not join in these attacks.

We are told by Mawlawi Fawkaw Raw Din and La Lu to flee from the village and go to Bangladesh, and burn the houses as we left. Then we set the houses on fire and ran together with other Bengalis from other villages. Among our villagers, I could only recognize Sayed Du Saung (54), Ahbu Taw Yok (30), Rawfique (27), Asan Mullar, my father Khawbi Ra Mauk (53), Addulah (17), Ta Hay (15), Faron (18), Ashar Dullah (19) and Eliyar Yad (24) from Kyaung Taung Alay Village. As we were fleeing we arrived at Tarein village, and we met with other villagers and decided to attack the Kyein Chaung Police Outpost. We numbered about 100 Bengalis. That night, nearby Bengali villagers gave us swords and sticks. And at 11:30 pm on 30.8.2017, we attacked the security personnel that we had seen in Tarein Village. When they shot back, we dropped the swords and ran back.

How we were caught:

We were captured while we were again attacking another Army group. I, Sayed Du Saung, Eliyad, and my father Khawbi Ra Mauk were captured by the Army at that place.
