Claims

How I Was Recruited:

I used to go Bellami Mosque to pray. Our village has only one mosque and the Mosque Mawlawi [Imam] is Mawlawi Esoup (45). Although we were supposed to go 5 times a day, I could only make it when I had free time from work. On 23.8.2017, in the mosque, Mawlawi Esoup and Rawfis said that ARSA would launch attacks in 25.8.2017 to occupy Maungdaw, Buthidaung, and Rathedaung Townships, and to make it an Islamic State. They told us that all Bengalis had to join the attacks and that we must be ready. We heard that they told other Bengalis the same things, in other mosques. They already have received training from the ARSA militant group.

When I was at home on 22.8.2017, around 3:00 pm, Nu Ma Mauk from Chut Pyin village gathered us villagers and we followed him to Chut Pyin. In a house in Chut Pyin Village, there were about 100 Bengalis from Chut Pyin, Ahtet Nan Ya, Auk Nan Ya, Bellami and Nilin Baw Villages. Nu Ma Mauk said members of ARSA had already arrived at Chut Pyin village, and that they would lead the attacks on the police outpost and that we must join them, and that we must go get ready.

How We Attacked:

Around 3:00 am on 27.8.2017, Saltar from Chut Pyin approached the police outpost and attacked with two bombs. When policemen chased after him, a group of us (around 80) ambushed them and attacked them shouting 'Allahu Akbur'. Saltar, Nu Ma Muck, Rawfis and Eman Hu Saung had guns and they were shooting at the police. Policemen also shot back. I saw some Bengalis get shot. Then we moved back and Saltar set landmines along our paths to stop the police from following us. In our group, I saw Aka Urah Man (22 yrs) and Bawshid Ullah (30 yrs) from Nilin Baw villages and Hu Saung Ar Mauk (65 yrs) (the arrested ones). The attacks were led and organized by Saltar and ARSA trainees. I did not know any other leader.

How We Fled After the Attacks:

After attacking the Chut Pyin police outpost, at the evening of 27.8.2017, the villagers ran away from villages as ARSA burn the houses and so we also fled from our village around 5:00 am of 28.8.2017. Our villagers from Nilin Baw and Auk Nan Ya village did the same. We crossed the trail-less mountains and arrived at Alay Than Kyaw Ka Yin Tan village. There we saw other Bengalis who were involved in the attacks. We were waiting for boats to cross the Naf river to Bangladesh, My sister, Habar Khatu, got on a boat with others, but we were left waiting for more boats. [The Bangladeshi boatmen were charging exorbitant prices to cross the wide river.]

How We Were Captured:

While we were waiting to cross to Bangladesh, our food ran out. At 9:00 am of 11.9.2017, Maw Go La Mauk , Kayfayed Ullah , Aka Ura Man, Bawshid Ullah and Hu Saung Ar Mauk and I went to Alay Than Kyaw Ka Yin Tan Village to find food. Maw Go La Mauk , Kayfayed Ullah, Aka Ura Man and Bawshid Ullah had swords and Ha Saung Ar Mauk had a sling-shot. When we arrived at the village, we saw a 14 year old Bengali boy. We captured him, tied him up, and threatened to kill him if he did not get us food. While we were threatening him, around 20 villagers from Ka Yin Tan Village, lead by the boy's father, found us and detained us. Maw Go La Mauk was arrested right on the spot, I, Kayfayed Ullah , Aka Ura Man, Bawshid Ullah and Hu Saung Ar Mauk ran and escaped. But the villagers came after us and we were later arrested on the road.

I joined the attacks because Rawfis and Mawlawi Esoup convinced and threatened us to participate. My brother-in-law Zati Hu Saung also joined the attacks together with the Auk Nan Ya villagers. Saltar, who laid the landmines, is around 25 years old, beard, middle skin color, tough body, about 5 feet 7 inches tall.
