Claims

How I was Recruited at the Mosque

Our village has a mosque and the Ashit (East) Village has one. The Anauk (West) Village does not have a mosque. Our mosque Mawlawi [Imam] is Hafae Rofique. After the 2012 violence, whenever we went to the mosque to pray he always told us that we will attack in the name of our Islamic religion, and not to fear any other religions, and that we must do what Allah wants us to do. He said that we would start this plan after ARSA militants arrived and that they would have guns and bombs for us to use, and that we need to be ready to join them.

How We Prepared to Attack

On the evening of 24.8.2017, while I was in my house, my neighbors Moha Maud (30) and Abu Baw Kaw (27) came to us and told us that ARSA militants had arrived, and were up on the nearby hill, and that the attacks would start tonight, and that we had to join them when they started. At 1:30 am on 25.8.2017, they called me to come, and I grabbed my iron stick and followed them. We arrived at a farm field, and there were about 200 Bengalis from the hamlets of Kom Thee Pin, Lat Pway Kya and Nant Tha Taung Village. We were led by Rawshid Ahmed. We villagers all had sticks, swords, Jingali and slingshots. Some were wearing black clothes and masks and they were holding bombs and guns and I knew that they were ARSA members.

How We Attacked Nant Tha Taung Police Outpost

At 3:00 am, we approached Nant Tha Taung Police Outpost, surrounded it and attacked. ARSA militants attacked with guns and bombs. As there were many Bengalis and it was at nighttime, I did not recognize who was attacking, but there were about 15 with black masks on. When policemen shot back, we retreated and we arrived back at our village homes around 5:30 am.

How We Fled, and How We Were Captured

On the morning of 25.8.2017, villagers from Kom Thee Pin village started to flee from the village heading towards Bangladesh. My family also did the same. While I was waiting for my sister Mamudar, the Army and BGP [Border Guard Police] arrived and we could not run away. Around 10:00 am, I was arrested, together with Mohamed Islam. Other attackers and villagers had already fled to Bangladesh.
