Brief History

I was born of father Orli Ahmauk and mother Kaw Nilar in 1963. I am the eldest child among 5 siblings. The others are:

- (A) Noor Husaung (age 63), (Middle) Pa Da Kar New Village
- (B) Shawri Husaung (age 60), (Middle) Pa Da Kar New Village
- (C) Rawbiyar Khatu (age 58), dependent, Pa Da Kar New Village
- (D) Kar Hake Tar (age 55), dependent, Pa Da Kar New Village

I did not have any school education since childhood. I live at Pa Da Kar New Village and earn my living with occasional jobs. I married Arshar Hatu, daughter of Noor Bi (deceased) of Aung Site Pyin Village, and had 6 children.

Statement on Criminal Interrogation:

There are about 400 houses in our Pa Da Kar New Village, but I do not know how many people live there. There were 2 mosques and I attended the mosque near my house. We had to attend the mosque 5 times a day, but I only attended 2 or 3 times a day because I had to work occasional jobs.

What We Learned in the Mosques:

The preacher of the mosque was Mawlawi [Imam] Hasaung (age 35), son of Bawlu Karman. Mawlawi Hasaung organized us by telling us that we, the Bengali Islamists, were restricted in all respects, such as religion, social, education and restriction of movement, and that we should create the areas of Maungdaw, Buthidaung and Rathedaung Townships as an Islamic State, and that all of us had to follow the Mawlawis who were leading the organization. The Security Police Outposts would be attacked by us, led by the militants of RSO (Rohingya Solidarity Organization), and ARSA (Arakan Rohingya Salvation Army) who were coming back from Bangladesh, and were giving training secretly at some villages. The Mawlawis also told us that all Bengalis would have to participate in attacking the police forces, wherever we were found.

It was then learnt that according to Mawlawi Hasaung, our villagers, together with the Bengalis living in other villages nearby would be led by RSO and ARSO leaders and we would attack the Police Outposts on the early pre-dawn morning of 25/8/2017. At the time of that attack against the Police Outposts I did not participate.

How We Burned Our Villages and Fled to Bangladesh:

Later in the morning, after the attack, Mawlawi Hasaung told to set fire to all of our houses in the villages and flee to Bangladesh. While fleeing, we would attack any security police forces which might be found on the way to Bangladesh. So, we set fires to our homes and fled. I also ran with the other villagers. Among the villagers, Ahdu Shawbi son of Khawbi Ramauk, Ahbu Tawyote (age 30) son of Sharbau Tarli, Rawfee (age 27) son of Shawfee, Ayesann Mular and my father Orli Ahmauk, Khawbi Ramauk (age 53) son of Marshaw Bi, Ahdu Lar (age 17) son of Bandar, Tarhay (age 15) son of Eili Yard, Faron (age 18) son of Halu, Ayeshar Dular (age 19) son of Zawnu Ralaung and Eili Yarkyad (age 24) son of Hasun Nali of Kyaung Taung (Middle) were some of the villagers I knew.

How We Attacked Again:

When we arrived at Tarein Village of Maungdaw Township, unknown villagers came and mingled with us. There were about 100 of us in a group all together. While we were there, we were led by unknown RSO and ARSA militants and suddenly the leaders told the better-trained villagers to attack the Kyein Chaung Police Station and Security Outpost, and then flee to Bangladesh. That night we gathered clubs and swords from nearby Bengali villages. Then, together with about 100 villagers we attacked the Security Outpost and Police Station in Tarein Village, with clubs and swords, and some guns, at about 1:00 am, on 30/8/2017. As the Security Forces retaliated by firing back at us, we ran away.

How We Were Captured and Arrested:

While running away and trying to hide, I, along with Ahdu Sawbi, Eili Yard and Khawbi Ramaunk were arrested.
