"What do I do now?"

"Mm, I forgot to plug it in"

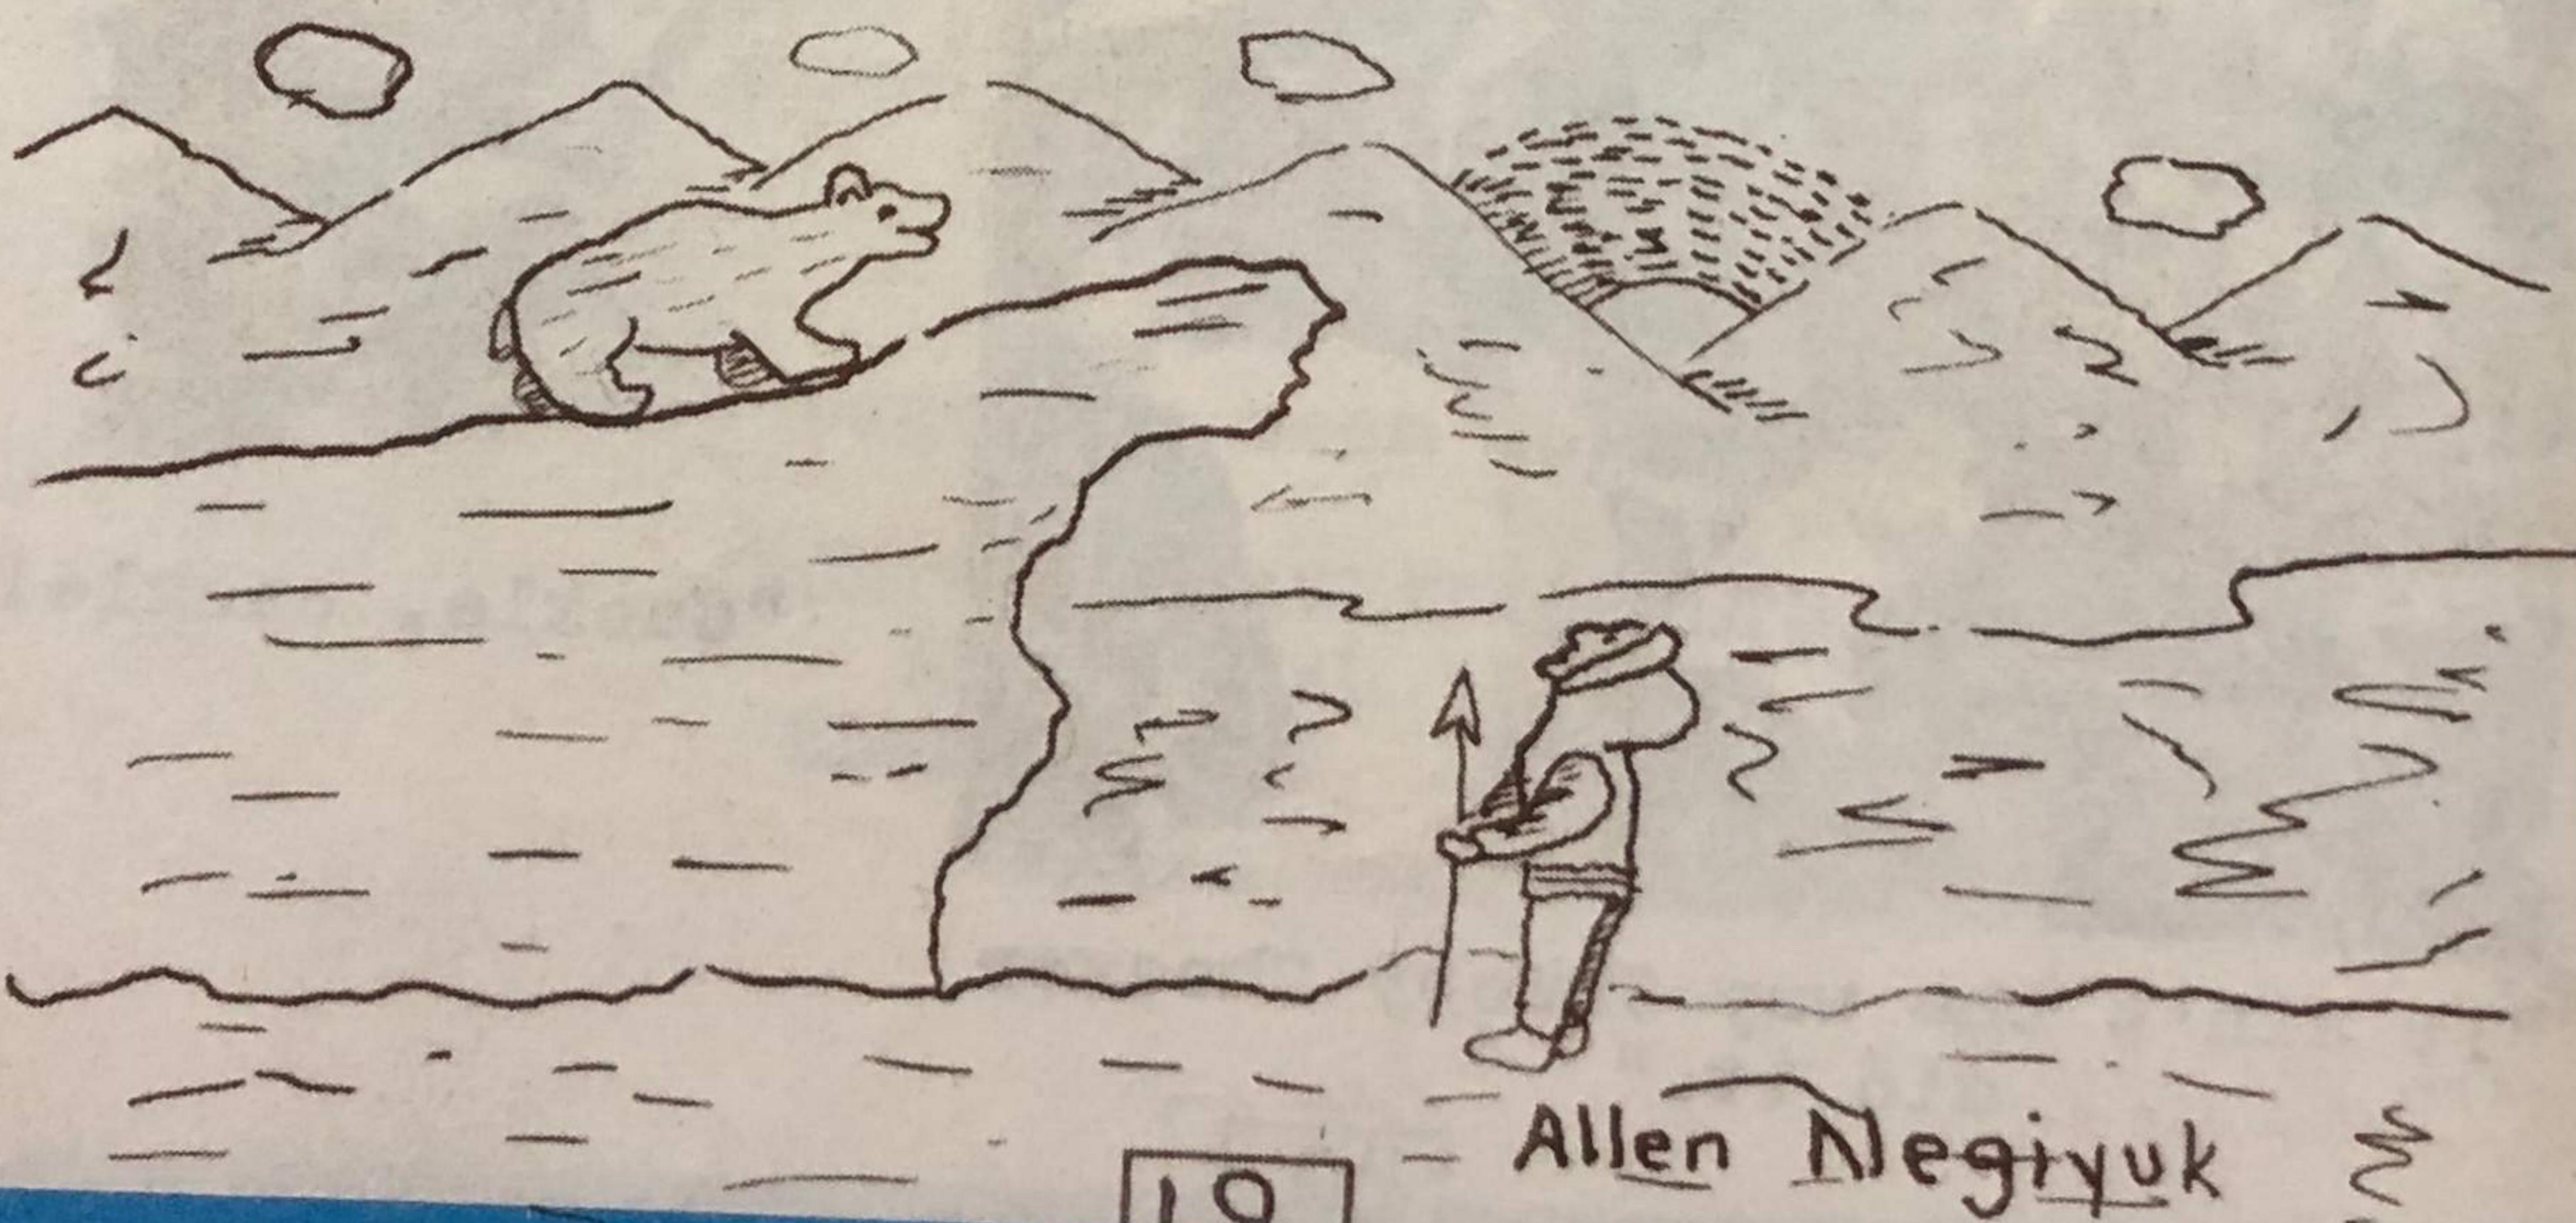

Second Grade

The Willow Tree

I like the willow tree best of all.
It looks like a girl with hair on her head, or like a dog covered with hair on his eyes, or like a hippy with messy hair, or like a man with some hay on his body.

Shaena Hannak

Hallowe'en Party.....

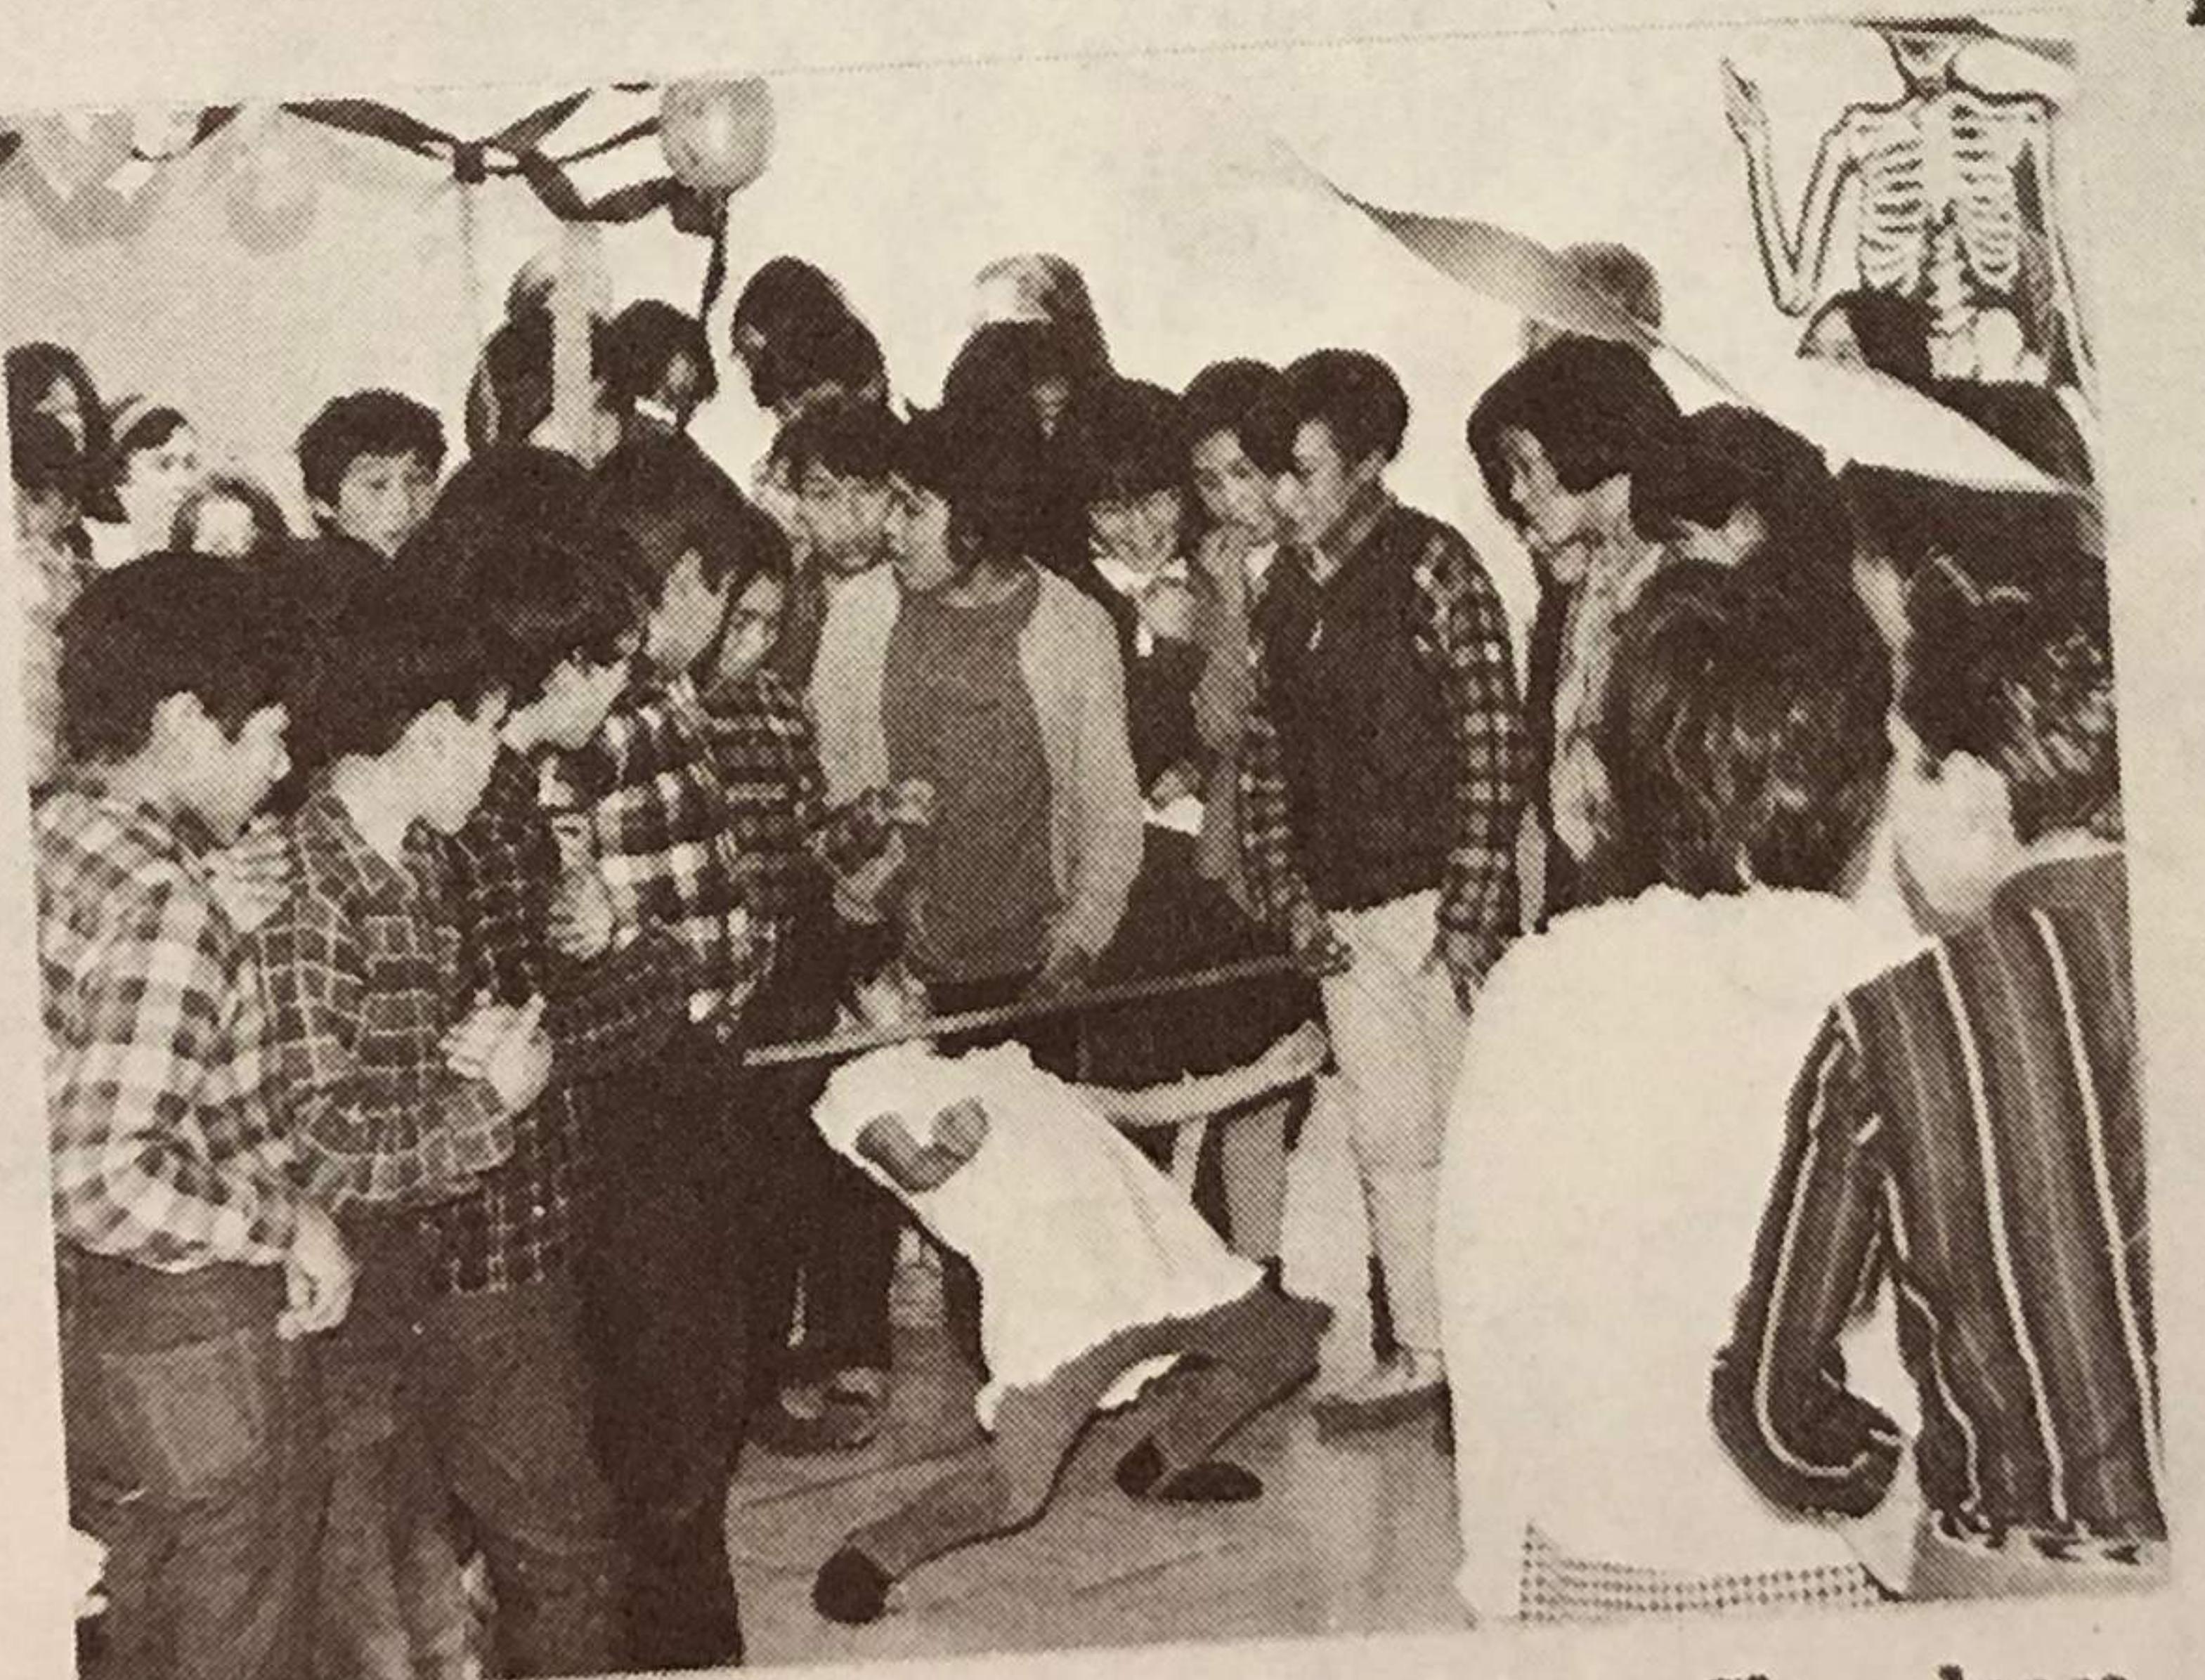

"Ladies last, gentlemen first!"

"Cheer up, you're being observed."

"How about the next swing babe?"

"It ain't the way Chubby Checker did it."

"Cackle, cackle!"

Angela and Lem

The Lemming

Quick as a wink
Swifter than flash
He stops awhile but Starts off in a dash

In the cold winter
He's whiter than snow
He wears his coat
Except a blackened toe.

In the warm summer
So gay, so nice
He changes his outer one
Just like all mice.

Young People's Valentine Dance

The vice-president organized a Valentine Dance for February 14th. Children who weren't in young peoples had to be invited before they could attend. The president and some of the members played the instruments and played records for us. Everyone danced to the music. The cook Christine Kamingoak made four cakes, fifty cupcakes and kool-aid to be served as refreshments after the dance. The members had to go and pay their dues before the dance ended. After the dance we cleaned up and went home.

Skating

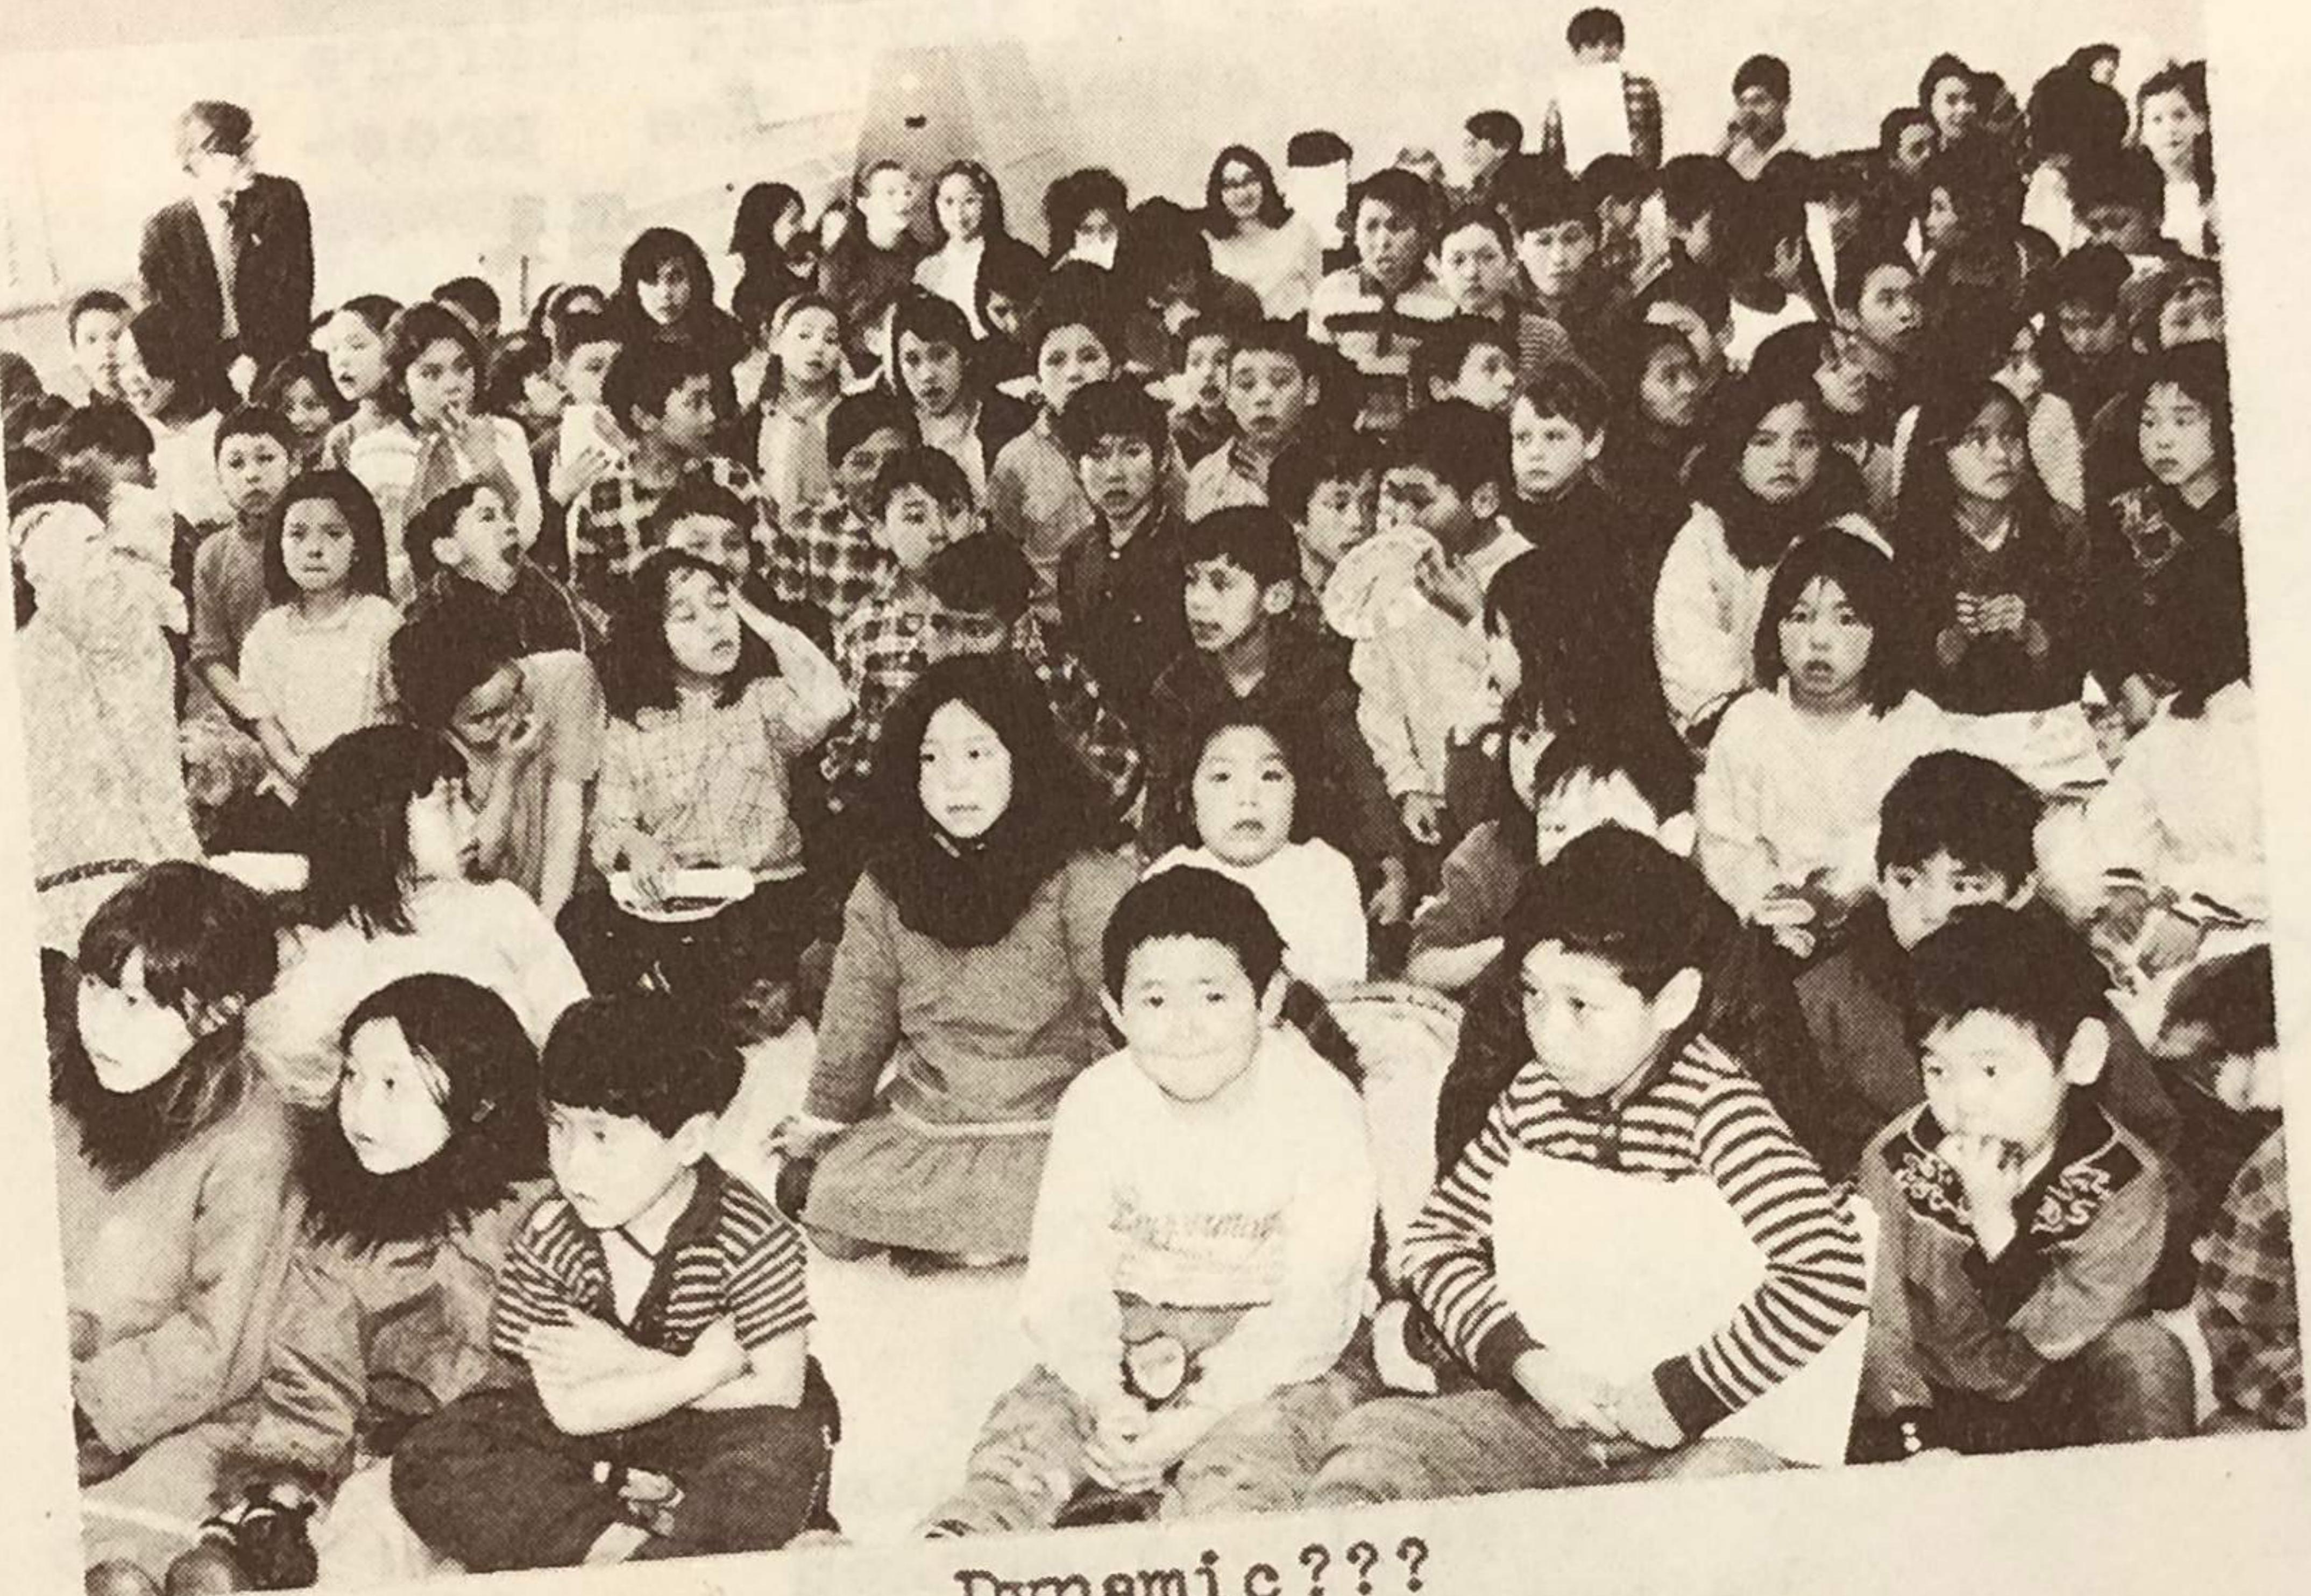

I heard somebody skating
When I was awaken
He was shouting with glee
And I knew it was me
And it was only my dream
When I was on the beam
All alone asleep
