

Day 3

THE PRAYER ♡

Dear God,
Thank you for waking me up another day. Thank you for giving me the strength and motivation to make it this far in this devotional, Lord. I always want to do my best to get to know you better and learn more about your Word and character. May I finish this devotional in victory today and leave with a fresh heart, rejuvenated spirit and new hunger for the things of above. I want to continue seeking you. In Jesus' name Amen.

THE DEVOTIONAL ♡

Hello, darling! You've made it to the last day of this devotional! I am so proud of you. We have talked about what Christianity truly means, diving deeper into who God really is, and today we are going to discuss all about what we can expect for the rest of our days here on Earth. Currently, we are experiencing an era called The End Times. We are living in a period of grace that the Lord has allowed in order for everyone to have a chance to accept Christ as their savior, resulting in eternal life. We are seeing many things happen in our world that are pointing toward the second coming of Jesus Christ. For example, hatred, fear and reverse psychology. What is actually bad is being called good; what is actually good is being called bad (see Isaiah 5:20). People are acting in selfish ways and worried about the wrong things (see 2 Timothy 3:2). So, what do we as believers do during these times? The answer is simply to return to the feet of Jesus and spend time in the throne room. We cannot fight our spiritual battles nor live peacefully in the world as it is today without Him. When we seek the Lord through prayer, fasting, and the Word, He gives us revelation and authority over darkness. Our spirits become stronger as we rely on the Holy Spirit to do the talking, walking and everything in between for us. The last thing we should do as we wait for the return of Christ is take a break from seeking Him. Now more than ever, we must draw nearer to Him so that we could be with Him in eternity. Now- a key component of love is compassion. Let us not keep Jesus to ourselves! We must have compassion for those around us and tell them this good news as well. That whoever believes in Him has eternal life as long as they turn from their selfish and worldly ways to truly follow Him (see John 5:24).

THE VERSES ♡

- “Preach the word; be ready in season and out of season; reprove, rebuke, and exhort, with complete patience and teaching.” – 2 Timothy 4:2
- “And he said to them, “Go into all the world and proclaim the gospel to the whole creation.” – Mark 16:15
- “Jesus said to him, “I am the way, and the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me.” – John 14:6

THE TASK OF THE DAY ♡

It was truly and honor to spend these last 3 days talking about the Gospel with you. I believe there is power in fasting as we spoke today. So, what better way to close off this 3-day devotional?! I encourage you to take the day of tomorrow to fast and seek Gods presence. If you cannot do so, at least for a couple hours today or tomorrow, turn off your electronic devices and spend time in the secret place with God. Worship, cry, pray and thank Him for His grace and goodness. I know that in doing so, the Lord will deposit beautiful wisdom and understanding of His Kingdom. Seek Him and you shall find Him. I love you! And stay connected. Hugs, kisses and blessings.
