What's been on my heart?

Rest. Rest. Rest. I have been learning to truly rest on God's promises. That sounds really cliché- but if you know, you know. Sometimes we are unable to see the light at the end of the cave and it seems like a long way til we are rescued- but the Word of God let's us know that God is our light and salvation. (Psalm 27) If there is one thing I know for sure, it is that He will keep me safe. (spoiler alert)

It has truly been on my heart to pray for our brothers and sisters who are being persecuted as well. Nathaniel and I watched a very moving documentary together that I will be linking in the What I've Been Loving section below. But my heart has truly been heavy with them I will also link a website where you can sign up to be part of their prayer circle and even donate monthly to missionaries who physically go and preach the Good News to those who are unreachable via internet and technology.

If you are willing to fast with me on Thursday of next week 8am - 4pm (8/19) , please reply to this email! I will be fasting for more of God's Spirit and direction. Also for those being persecuted and tortured for the sake of Christ, Jesus our Lord.

Psalm 27

1 The Lord is my light and my salvation—

whom shall I fear?
The Lord is the stronghold of my life—

of whom shall I be afraid?
2 When the wicked advance against me

to devour[a] me,
it is my enemies and my foes

who will stumble and fall.
3 Though an army besiege me,

my heart will not fear;
though war break out against me,

even then I will be confident.
4 One thing I ask from the Lord,

this only do I seek:
that I may dwell in the house of the Lord

all the days of my life,
to gaze on the beauty of the Lord

and to seek him in his temple.
5 For in the day of trouble
he will keep me safe in his dwelling;
he will hide me in the shelter of his sacred tent

and set me high upon a rock.
6 Then my head will be exalted

above the enemies who surround me;
at his sacred tent I will sacrifice with shouts of joy;

I will sing and make music to the Lord.
7 Hear my voice when I call, Lord;

be merciful to me and answer me.
8 My heart says of you, "Seek his face!"

Your face, Lord, I will seek.
9 Do not hide your face from me,
do not turn your servant away in anger;

you have been my helper.
Do not reject me or forsake me,

God my Savior.
10 Though my father and mother forsake me,

the Lord will receive me.
11 Teach me your way, Lord;

lead me in a straight path

because of my oppressors.
12 Do not turn me over to the desire of my foes,

for false witnesses rise up against me,

spouting malicious accusations.
13 I remain confident of this:

I will see the goodness of the Lord

in the land of the living.
14 Wait for the Lord;

be strong and take heart and wait for the Lord.
