What's been on my heart? ♡

Sometimes you really do just have to surrender it all in prayer & fasting. I want to encourage anyone today that needs to see a breakthrough or wants to contribute in some way to the spiritual warfare that is currently happening. Here are some verses that have been pushing me closer to the Lord lately- despite any circumstance.

"When I wept and humbled my soul with fasting, it became my reproach." - Psalm 69:10

"Yet even now," declares the Lord, "return to me with all your heart, with fasting, with weeping, and with mourning;" - Joel 2:12

"And he said to them, "This kind cannot be driven out by anything but prayer." - Mark 9:29

"Draw near to God, and he will draw near to you. Cleanse your hands, you sinners, and purify your hearts, you double-minded." - James 4:8

"And ye shall seek me, and find me, when ye shall search for me with all your heart." - Jeremiah 29:13

I am currently in deep prayer with my brothers and sisters from the church I attend and my dear friend and sister, Valerie sent us the very last verse included in this section (James 5:13-19) which was so powerful and full of beauty. God bless her.

"Is anyone among you in trouble? Let them pray. Is anyone happy? Let them sing songs of praise. Is anyone among you sick? Let them call the elders of the church to pray over them and anoint them with oil in the name of the Lord. And the prayer offered in faith will make the sick person well; the Lord will raise them up. If they have sinned, they will be forgiven. Therefore confess your sins to each other and pray for each other so that you may be healed. The prayer of a righteous person is powerful and effective. Elijah was a human being, even as we are. He prayed earnestly that it would not rain, and it did not rain on the land for three and a half years. Again he prayed, and the heavens gave rain, and the earth produced its crops." - James 5:13-18
