Love so sweet! ♡

Happy October! This time of year.. I don't know what it is but I am full of joy and peace. It MUST be the Lord! I hope you all are doing well. How can I pray for you this week?

Updates/Behind The Scenes ♡

~ TODAY ~

Honey is now streaming!

Honey \(Lyric Video\)

Special thank you to my beautiful sister Nina Sengson for her very special and lovely guitar playing. She knows how much of an HONOR it was to work with her and have her beautiful talents on this song. God bless you, Nina!

i've been dying to share the cover art for months now with you all! it was kindly drawn and co-designed by sweet Inês Cerqueira thank you, Inês! The hair is actually what my natural hair looks like! It's in the process of growing out and recovering from lots of damage! Hopefully one day it can return to the state it was in at the time I took that one photo on the white couch. hahaha! anyway! make sure to check out the lyric video as well on youtube. ♡

"How sweet are your words to my taste, sweeter than honey to my mouth!" -
Psalm 119:103

~ COMING SOON ~

EP in November! The tea? hmm.. I don't want to set anything in stone yet because a lot is still currently being put together and decided. I have a few for sure songs! One is called No Talk and it's produced by my good friend Andre Fisher (some of you might recognize this name!) He produces for our sister Asha Elia! Another song will be featuring the beautiful Noël MIO .. that's all I will tell for now!

~ PREVIOUSLY ~

ROMMEL's EP "Rendered" is out now! you can find me in track 2! It is a beautiful worship song that talks about surrendering it all to the Lord! ROMMEL was amazing to work with and he is a super talented producer! It would mean the world if you listened! Here is the link~

What's been on my heart?

It's been on my heart that the Lord is looking for those who worship Him in spirit and in truth. I am not sure how many of you are also worship leaders at your home church, but throughout time, it has occurred to me that it is much better to come to Jesus plainly as ourselves, rather than trying to put on a façade of being holy and faking things. It is not good to boast so I wanted to remind you and myself, brethren, that we can also fall into boasting and prideful behaviors in our worship. Maybe we feel like expectations are upon us, or perhaps we are worried about how other people perceive us. We want to seem like the holiest person; a person who is always in the secret place; someone who is "sensitive" to the Spirit. But let us not forget that we are not worshipping men. At the end of the day, our worship is toward the one and only true King, Jesus. If we were to worship at His feet, in front of His throne- do you think He would say things like, "Hmmm... you could've cried a bit more. You could've opened your eyes a bit more." I don't believe our Savior is concerned with such things. When Abraham took Isaac to be sacrificed, it was a heart that was laid on the altar. It was the heart that God sought for. When we come to worship our God, let us check our hearts and offer them to Him. Our hearts and lives are much more valuable than any tear or fancy word speaking could ever be. Please- do not only take my word for it. I encourage you to spend time in prayer, letting the Holy Spirit guide you to a more honest and sincere form of worship. A worship that is done in spirit and in truth.

"But the hour is coming, and is now here, when the true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and truth, for the Father is seeking such people to worship him. God is spirit, and those who worship him must worship in spirit and truth." - John 4:23-24

"I appeal to you therefore, brothers, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is your spiritual worship." - Romans 12:1

“Let us go to his dwelling place; let us worship at his footstool!” - Psalm 132:7
