ROLE: THE CAPTAIN

THE CAPTAIN: A 60-year old English veteran of the Boer War, as obviously English as Yorkshire pudding. He dreams of returning to England but was driven out upon losing his regiment's money in a drunken night of gambling. His relationship with The General becomes tense when Hickey shows up.

3 takes + pickups = $300.

IMPORTANT: Looking for ACTIVE, natural, well-paced reads rather than SLOW, self-indulgent "actor-y" ones.

Be mindful of UNDERSCORING for emphasis-- and THROW AWAY non-emphasized words (please no reads emphasising every word).

Don't let the above make you rush or act stilted--simply keep it in mind.

For those who want an edge (casting process will be slow), read the entire SCRIPT before auditioning.

PLEASE READ THE CAPTAIN LINES 3049-3093

THE CAPTAIN LINES BEGIN ON NEXT PAGE

555 Enough to wake the dead, Till he heard a damsel [rap,
556 rap, rap], On a window right over his head."

557 BESS HOPE [with fuming irritation]: Bejeez Rocky--can't 558 you keep that crazy bastard quiet?

559 WILLIE: "Oh, come up," she cried, "my sailor lad, And 560 you and I'll agree, And I'll show ya the prettiest [rap, 561 rap, rap], That ever you did see."

562 NARRATOR: Rocky shakes Willie by the shoulder roughly.

563 ROCKY: What d'yuh tink dis dump is, a dump?

564 BESS HOPE: Go on--lock him in his room!

565 ROCKY: Come on, Bum!

566 WILLIE: No, please, Rocky--I'll go crazy up in that room
567 alone! Please, Bess--let me stay--I'll be quiet!

568 BESS HOPE [immediately relents--indignantly]: What the 569 hell you doing to him, Rocky? I didn't tell you to 570 beat up the poor guy--leave him alone, long as he's 571 quiet.

572 WILLIE: Thanks, Bess--you are an esteemed lady.

573 BESS HOPE [to Ed & Mac]: Leave it to that Dago to keep 574 order and it's like bedlam in a cathouse. [brief pause]
575 And you two barflies are a hell of a help to me, ain't 576 ya? Eat and sleep and get drunk--all you're good for,
577 bejeez! Well, you can take that "I'll-have-the-same"
578 look off your mugs--there ain't gonna to be no more 579 drinks on the house til hell freezes over!

580 MAC [winking at each other]: Sure, Bess.

581 ED: That's right.

582 BESS HOPE: Yeah, grin--wink, bejeez! Fine pair of slobs 583 to have glued on me for life!

584 THE CAPTAIN: Have I been drinking at the same table with 585 a bloody Kaffir?

586 JOE [grinning] Hello, Captain--you comin' up for air?
587 Kaffir--who's he?

588 THE GENERAL: Dot's a nigga, Joe--dot's joke on him. He's 589 still plind drunk, the bloody Limey chentlemen! A great 590 mistake I missed him at the pattle of Modder River.
591 Vit mine rifle I shoot damn fool Limey officers py da

592 dozen, but him I miss. [chuckles] Hey, wake up,
593 you ploody fool--don't you know your old friend, Joe?
594 He's no damned Kaffir--he's white, Joe is!

595 THE CAPTAIN [light dawning--contritely]: My profound 596 apologies, Joseph, old chum. Eyesight a trifle blurry, 597 I'm afraid. Proud to call you my friend--no hard 598 feelings, eh?

599 JOE: I know it's a mistake--youse regular, if you is a 600 Limey. [face hardening] But I don't stand "niggah" from 601 nobody. In de old days, people calls me "niggah" wakes
602 up in de hospital. Us gang of colored boys was tough-- 603 and I was de toughest.

604 THE GENERAL [inspired to boastful reminiscence]:
605 Me, I was so tough and strong I grab axle of wagon mit
606 full load and lift like feather.

607 THE CAPTAIN: You, my balmy Boer, we should have taken to 608 the zoo and incarcerated in the baboon's cage.

609 THE GENERAL: To tink, ten better Limey officers, at 610 least, I shoot clean in mittle of forehead and you
611 I miss. I neffer forgive myself!

612 JIMMY [sentimentally]: Come, now, gentleman--Boer and 613 Briton, each fought fairly and played the game until the 614 better man won and then we shook hands. We are all 615 brothers within the Empire upon which the sun never 616 sets. [quoting with great sentiment] "Ship me somewhere 617 east of Suez--"

618 LARRY: By God, you're there already, Jimmy--worst is 619 best, and East is West, and tomorrow is yesterday-- 620 what more do you want?

621 JIMMY: You can't deceive me, Larry, old friend.
622 You pretend to be a cynic but in your heart you are the 623 kindest man amongst us.

624 LARRY: The hell I am!

625 JIMMY: Tomorrow, yes--it's high time I straightened out
626 and got down to business again. [brushes his sleeve
627 fastidiously] I must have this suit cleaned and pressed.
628 I can't look like a tramp when I--

629 JOE: Yeah, in de days I was flush, Joe's de only colored 630 man dey allows in de white gamblin' houses. "You're all 631 right, Joe, you're white," dey says. [chuckling] De big

632 Chief in dem days--he knew I was white. I'd saved my 633 dough so I could start my own gamblin' joint. Folks in 634 de know tells me: you git Bess give you a letter to de 635 Chief. And Bess does--don't you, Bess?

636 BESS HOPE [preoccupied with her own thoughts] Eh? Sure.
637 Big Bill was a good friend of mine. I had plenty of 638 friends high up in those days. Still could have if 639 I wanted to go out and see 'em. Sure, I gave ya a 640 letter--what the hell of it?

641 JOE: I went to de Chief, see, shakin' in my boots, and 642 dere he is sittin' behind a big desk, looking as big as 643 a freight train. He don't look up--keeps me waitin' and 644 waitin'. Den after 'bout an hour, seems to me, he says
645 slow and quiet-like "You want to open a gamblin' joint, 646 does you, Joe?" But he don't give me no time to answer.
647 He pounds his fist like a ham on de desk and he shouts, 648 "You black son of a bitch--Bess says you're white and 649 you better be white or dere's a little room up de river 650 waitin' for ya!" Den he sits down and says quiet again,
651 "All right--you can open. Now git the hell outa here!"
652 [chuckles with pride] Dem old days! Many's de night
653 I come in here. Dis was a first-class hangout in 654 dem days. Good whiskey, fifteen cents--two for two bits.
655 I t'rows down a fifty-dolla bill like it was trash paper
656 and says "Drink it up, boys, I don't want no change."
657 Ain't dat right, Bess?

658 BESS HOPE [caustically]: Yes, and bejeez, if I ever seen
659 you throw fifty cents on the bar now, I'd know I was 660 delirious! You've told that story ten million times and 661 if I have to hear it again, it'll give me the DT's for 662 certain!

663 THE CAPTAIN: Thank you, Bess, my dear, I will have that 664 drink, now you mention it, seeing it's so near your 665 birthday.

666 JOE/THE GENERAL/JIMMY TOMORROW [laugh]:

667 BESS HOPE [puts hand to ear--angrily]: What's that-- 668 I can't hear you.

669 THE CAPTAIN: I fancied you wouldn't.

670 BESS HOPE: I don't have to hear, bejeez! Booze is the 671 only thing you ever talk about.

672 THE CAPTAIN: There was a time when my conversation was 673 more comprehensive.

674 BESS HOPE: How much room rent do you owe me, tell me 675 that?

676 THE CAPTAIN: Sorry--addition has always baffled me.
677 Subtraction is my forte.

678 BESS HOPE: Think you're funny, eh? Showing off your old 679 wounds! This ain't no Turkish bath! Put on your clothes 680 for Christ's sake! Lousy Limey army! Took 'em years to 681 lick a gang of Dutch hayseeds!

682 THE GENERAL: Dot's right, Bess--gif him hell!

683 BESS HOPE: No lip out of you, neither, you Dutch 684 spinach! General, hell! Salvation Army, that's what 685 you'd be General in! Bragging what a shot you were, and, 686 bejeez, you missed him! And he missed you! And now the 687 two of ya bum on me. You've broke the camel's back this 688 time bejeez! You pay up tomorrow or out you both go!

689 THE CAPTAIN: My dear lady, I give you my word of honor
690 as an officer and a gentleman, you shall be paid 691 tomorrow.

692 THE GENERAL: Ve swear it, Bess! Tomorrow vidout fail!

693 MAC [twinkle in his eye]: There you are, Bess. What 694 could be fairer?

695 ED: Ya can't ask any more than that. A promise is a 696 promise.

697 BESS HOPE: I mean the both of you, too! An old grafting 698 flatfoot and a circus bunco steerer! Fine company for 699 me, bejeez! Couple of con men living in my house since 700 Christ knows when! Getting fat as hogs, too! And ya 701 ain't even got the decency to help me upstairs where 702 I got a good bed! Let me sleep in a chair like a bum!
703 Keep me down here waitin' for Hickey to show up,
704 hoping I'll treat ya to more drinks!

705 MAC: Ed and I did our damnedest to get you up, didn't 706 we, Ed?

707 ED: We did--but you said you couldn't bear your flat 708 because it was one of those nights your memory brought 709 poor Harry back to ya.

751 MAC: Why it's the prime of life--

752 ED: And the wonderful thing about you, Bess, you keep 753 young as you ever was.

754 JIMMY: Get my things from my laundry--they must still 755 have them. Clean collar and shirt--socks, too--I want to 756 make a good appearance. I met Dick Trumbull on the 757 street a year or two ago--he said, "Jimmy, the publicity 758 department's never been the same since you got-- 759 resigned. It's dead as hell." I said, "I know--I've 760 heard management is at their wit's end and would only be 761 too glad to have me run it again for them." He said, 762 "Sure, they would, Jimmy--only take my advice and wait a 763 while until business conditions are better--then you can 764 strike 'em for a bigger salary than you got before, 765 don't you see?" I said, "Yes, I do see, Dick, and many 766 thanks for the tip." Well, conditions must be better by 767 this time--all I have to do is get fixed up with a 768 decent front tomorrow, and it's as good as done.

769 BESS HOPE: Poor Jimmy's off in the land of tomorrow
770 again. Bejeez, he takes the cake!

771 LARRY [guffaws sardonically]:

772 THE CAPTAIN: I'm sorry, General, we had to postpone our 773 trip again this year. We'll make it next year, even if 774 we have to work and earn our passage money, eh? England 775 in April! I want you to see that.

776 THE GENERAL: And I vil enjoy it, Captain. But de veldt!
777 Py Gott, dere is space to be free, the air like vine is,
778 you need no booze to be drunk! My relations vill so 779 surprised be. Dey vil not know me, it is so many years.
780 Dey vil be so glad I haf come home at last.

781 JOE: I'll make my stake and get my new gamblin' joint 782 open before you boys leave. You got to come to the 783 openin'. If you're broke, I'll stake you to any game you 784 chooses. If you wins, dat's velvet for ya. If you loses, 785 it don't count.

786 BESS HOPE: Jimmy's got them smoking the same hop.

787 NARRATOR: But soon the three are asleep again.

788 LARRY: By God, this bughouse will drive me stark, raving 789 loony!

790 BESS HOPE: What? What d'you say?

1098 ROCKY: Dat's what we was wonderin'.

1099 CORA: He ought to be here--me and Chuck seen him.

1100 ROCKY [excited]: You seen Hickey? [nudges Bess]
1101 Hey, Boss, come to--Cora's seen Hickey.

1102 NARRATOR: Bess is instantly awake and everyone--except 1103 Hugo and Parritt--begins to rouse hopefully.

1104 BESS HOPE: Where'd you see him, Cora?

1105 CORA: On de next corner--he was standin' dere. I kidded 1106 him, "How's de iceman, Hickey--how's he doing at your 1107 house?" He laughs and says, "Fine." And he says, "Tell 1108 de gang I'll be along in a minute--I'm just figurin' out 1109 de best way to save dem and bring dem pease."

1110 BESS HOPE [chuckles]: Bejeez he's thought up a new gag!
1111 It's a wonder he didn't borrow a Salvation Army uniform
1112 and show up in that! Go out and get him, Rocky--tell him 1113 we're waitin' to be saved!

1114 NARRATOR: Rocky goes out, grinning.

1115 CORA: Yeah, Bess, he was only kiddin'--but he 1116 was...different somehow.

1117 CHUCK: Sure, he was sober, Baby--we ain't never seen him
1118 when he wasn't on a drunk.

1119 CORA [uncertain] Sure. Gee, ain't I dumb?

1120 BESS HOPE: Sober? That's funny--he's always lapped up a 1121 good starter on his way here. Well, bejeez, he won't be 1122 sober long--he'll be good and ripe for my birthday party
1123 tonight at twelve. [chuckles with anticipation; to all]
1124 Listen--he's fixed some new gag to pull on us--we'll 1125 pretend to let him kid us, see--and we'll kid the pants 1126 off him.

1127 ED: Sure, Bess!

1128 MAC: Righto!

1129 JOE: Dat's de stuff!

1130 JIMMY: We'll fix him!

1131 THE CAPTAIN: You bet your life!

1132 THE GENERAL: O' course!

NARRATOR: Rocky appears in the rear doorway, his arm around Hickey.

ROCKY: Here's the old son of a gun!

NARRATOR: They all stand and greet him.

JIMMY: Hello, Hickey!

ED: If it ain't...

JOE: It sho is.

MAC: Hickey!

WILLIE: My boy!

THE CAPTAIN: How goes it old chum?

THE GENERAL: Velcome, Hickey.

NARRATOR: Even Hugo raises his head and blinks through his glasses.

HICKEY [jovially]: Hello, Gang! [He immediately puts on on entrance act.] "It's always fair weather, when good fellas get together!" [changing to bass and another tune] "And another little drink won't do us any harm!" [The gang cheers.]

NARRATOR: Rocky grins and goes to get drinks. Hickey comes forward and doffs his cap affectionately to Bess.

HICKEY [smiling]: Hickey, at your service, fine lady.

BESS HOPE [blushing]: Bejeez Hickey, you old bastard, it's good to see you!

NARRATOR: As Hickey shakes hands with the gang, Rocky sets out whiskey glasses and a bottle on every table.

BESS HOPE: Sit down, Hickey--sit down.

[Hickey sits.]

BESS HOPE: Bejeez Hickey, it seems natural as rain to see your grinnin' mug. This dumb broad here was tryin' to tell us you'd changed, but you ain't changed a bit. How you been doin'? Bejeez you look like a million bucks.

ROCKY: Here's your key, Hickey--same old room.

1166 HICKEY: Thanks, Rocky--I'm going up in a little while to 1167 grab a snooze--haven't been able to sleep lately an' I'm 1168 tired as hell--a couple of hours will fix me.

1169 BESS HOPE: First time I ever heard you worry about 1170 sleep. Bejeez, you never would go to bed (cackles 1171 suggestively) Get a few slugs in ya and you'll forget 1172 sleepin'. Here's mud in your eye, Hickey.

1173 WILLIE: To Hickey!

1174 ED: Hickey!

1175 JOE: To you, suh!

1176 MAC: Bottoms up!

1177 JIMMY: To your health!

1178 THE CAPTAIN: Cheers!

1179 THE GENERAL: Vat's right!

1180 HICKEY: Drink hearty, boys and girls!

1181 NARRATOR: All drink but Hickey.

1182 BESS HOPE: Bejeez is that a new stunt, not drinkin'?

1183 HICKEY: No, I forgot to tell Rocky--you'll have to 1184 excuse me, boys and girls, but I'm off the stuff.
1185 For keeps.

1186 BESS HOPE: What the hell-- [then choosing to play along] 1187 Sure! Joined the Salvation Army, did ya? Take that 1188 bottle away from him, Rocky--we wouldn't want to tempt
1189 him into sin. [chuckles]

1190 [The gang laughs.]

1191 HICKEY: No, honest, Bess, I know it's hard to believe 1192 but--[pauses then simply] Cora was right--I've changed.
1193 I mean, about booze. I don't need it anymore.

1194 NARRATOR: They all stare a bit uneasily.

1195 BESS HOPE [her kidding's a bit forced]: Yeah, go ahead, 1196 kid the pants off us, bejeez! Cora said you was coming 1197 to save us--well, go on--start the service--sing a 1198 God-damned hymn if you like--we'll all join in the 1199 chorus.

1200 HICKEY [grinning]: Oh, hell--you don't think I'd come 1201 around here peddling some brand of temperance bunk, work--it's the deadliest habit known to science, a great physician once told me. He was positively the only doctor in the world who claimed that rattlesnake oil, rubbed on the butt-ocks, would cure heart failure in three days. I remember well his saying to me, "You are naturally delicate, Ed, but if you drink a pint of bad whiskey before breakfast and never work if you can help it, you may live to a ripe old age. It's staying sober and working that cuts men off in their prime."

[The gang roars w/ laughter.]

NARRATOR: Even Hugo looks up.

HUGO [giggling]: Laugh, leedle bourgeois monkey-faces! Laugh like fools, leedle stupid peoples! [tone changes; pounds fist on table] I vil laugh, too--but I vil laugh last--I vil laugh at you! [reciting] "The days grow hot, O Babylon! 'Tis cool beneath thy villow trees!"

[The gang jeers.]

HUGO [giggles good-naturedly]:

THE CAPTAIN [tipsily]: Well, now that our little Robespierre has got his daily bit of guillontining off his chest, tell me more about this doctor friend, Ed. He strikes me as the only bloody sensible medic I ever heard of. I think we should appoint him house physician here without delay.

ED: The old Doc passed on, I'm afraid. He didn't follow his own advice--kept his nose to the grindstone and sold one bottle of snake oil too many. The last time we got paralyzed together he told me: "This game will get me yet, Ed. You see before you a broken man, a martyr to medical science. If I had any nerves, I'd have a nervous breakdown. You won't believe me, but this last year there was actually one night I had so many patients, I didn't even have time to get drunk. The shock to my system brought on a stroke, which, as a doctor, I recognized as the beginning of the end." Poor old Doc--when he said this he started crying. "I hate to go before my task is completed, Ed," he sobbed. "I'd hoped I'd live to see the day when, thanks to my miraculous cure, there wouldn't be a single vacant cemetery lot left in this glorious country."

[The gang roars w/ laughter.]

2182 PARRITT [jeers angrily]: The old foolosopher, eh?
2183 [spits out contemptuously] You lousy old faker!

2184 LARRY [pleads weakly]: For the love of God, leave me in 2185 peace the little time I have left!

2186 PARRITT: Aw don't pull that pitiful old-man junk on me-- 2187 you'll never die as long as there's a free drink of

2189 LARRY [stung--furiously]: You watch how you try to taunt 2190 me back into life, I warn you! I might remember the 2191 thing they call justice, and the punishment for [ratting 2192 out your]--

2193 NARRATOR: With effort, he checks himself.

2194 LARRY [with an indifference that comes from exhaustion]:
2195 Aw, I'm old and tired--to hell with you--you're as mad
2196 as Hickey, and as big a liar--I don't believe a word you 2197 say to me.

2198 PARRITT [threateningly]: The hell you don't! Wait till 2199 Hickey gets through with you!

2200 NARRATOR: Pearl and Margie enter from behind the bar.
2201 At the sight of them, Parritt instantly becomes 2202 self-conscious and defensive.

2203 MARGIE [jeeringly]: Why, hello, Tightwad Kid. Come to 2204 join de party? Gee, don't he act bashful, Poill?

2205 PEARL: Yeah--especially wid his dough.

2206 THE CAPTAIN [Fight vocalizations/shouts/grunts]:
2207 THE GENERAL [Fight vocalizations/shouts/grunts]:
2208 PEARL: Hey, Rocky! Fight in de hall!

2209 NARRATOR: Rocky and Chuck run from behind the bar and 2210 into the hall.

2211 ROCKY: What de hell?
2212 [The scuffle stops.]

2213 NARRATOR: Rocky appears holding The Captain, followed by 2214 Chuck with a similar hold on The General. Although 2215 they've been drinking, they're both--for them--sober.
2216 Clothes dishelved from the tussle, they are sullen and 2217 angry.

2218 ROCKY [astonished, amused and irritated]: Can yuh
2219 beat it--I've heard youse two call each odder every name
2220 yuh could tink of but I never seen ya--[indignantly]
2221 A swell time to stage your first bout, on de Boss's 2222 boithday! What started it?

2223 THE CAPTAIN [forcing a casual tone]: Nothing, old chap.
2224 Our business, you know. That bloody ass, Hickey, made 2225 some insinuation about me, and the boorish Boer had the 2226 impertinence to agree with him.

2227 THE GENERAL: Dot's a lie! Hickey made joke on me, and 2228 Limey said yes, it vas true!

2229 ROCKY: Well, sit down, de bot' of yuh, and cut out de 2230 rough stuff.

2231 NARRATOR: Dumped into adjoining chairs, they turn their 2232 backs on each other as far as possible.

2233 MARGIE [laughs]: Lookit de two bums--like a coupla kids!
2234 Kiss and make up, for Gawd's sakes!

2235 ROCKY: Yeah, de Boss's party begins in a minute and we 2236 don't want no soreheads around.

2237 THE CAPTAIN [stiffly]: Very well. In deference to the 2238 occasion, I apologize, General--provided you do as well.

2239 THE GENERAL [sulkily]: Yes, I sorry, too--because Bess 2240 is goot lady.

2241 ROCKY: Aw ya mean yuh can't do better'n dat?

2242 NARRATOR: Ed and Mac enter together from the hall.
2243 Both have been drinking but are not drunk.

2244 MAC: I'm tellin' ya, Ed, it's serious this time. That 2245 bastard Hickey has got Bess by the hip. And you know it 2246 isn't going to do us no good if he gets her to take that 2247 walk tomorrow.

2248 ED: Yer damn right--Bess'll mosey around the ward,
2249 dropping in on everyone who knew her when. [indignantly]
2250 And they'll all give her a phony glad hand and a ton of 2251 advice about what a sucker she is to put up with us.

2252 MAC: She's sure to call on your relations to do a little 2253 cryin' over dear Harry. And you know what that S.O.B.
2254 thought o' me.

2296 like, I can't spend my life sitting here with you, 2297 ruining my stomach with rotgut. I'm tapering off, and in 2298 the morning I'll be fresh as a daisy. I'll have me a 2299 private chat with the Commissioner. [with forced 2300 enthusiasm] Man alive, from what the boys tell me, 2301 there's sugar galore these days, and I'll soon be 2302 ridin' around in a big red automobile--

2303 ED [derisively--in a Chinese accent]: One Lung Hop put 2304 fresh peanut oil in lamp and cook Lieutenant nice fine
 2305 poppy! It Lieutenant night off!

2306 MAC [stung--pulls back a fist threateningly]:
 2307 One more crack like that and I'll [knock your]--!

2308 ED [putting up his fists]: Yeah? You start it--!

2309 ROCKY: Hey--are you guys nuts--it's de Boss's boithday 2310 party--sit down and behave!

2311 ED [grumpily]: All right--only tell him to lay off me.

2312 MAC [grumpily]: And tell him to lay off me.

2313 NARRATOR: Hickey bursts in from the hall, excited.

2314 HICKEY: Everything all set? Fine--half a minute to go--
 2315 Bess's starting down with Jimmy. I had a hard time 2316 getting them to move--they'd rather stay hiding up
 2317 there, kidding each other along. [He chuckles.]
 2318 Bess don't even wanna remember it's her birthday now!
 2319 [There's a noise from the stairs.] Here they come!
 2320 [urgently] Light the candles! Get ready to play, Cora!
 2321 Stand up, everybody! Get that champagne ready, boys!

2322 NARRATOR: Rocky and Chuck go behind the bar. Margie and 2323 Pearl light the candles on the cake. Cora puts her hands
 2324 over the piano keys. Everybody at the table stands up-- 2325 Hugo the last, suddenly coming to and scrambling to his 2326 feet. Bess and Jimmy appear from the hall, and Hickey 2327 looks up from his watch.

2328 HICKEY: On the dot--it's twelve! [like a cheerleader]
 2329 Come on now, everybody:

2330 HICKEY/WILLIE/PEARL/MAGGIE/CORA/ROCKY/CHUCK/JOE/
 2331 THE CAPTAIN/THE GENERAL [spiritless except Hickey]:
 2332 Happy Birthday, Bess!

2333 [Cora begins playing.]

2616 MAC [spitefully]: Yes!

2617 ED [spitefully]: That's right!

2618 BESS HOPE: Bejeez, you've hit it, Larry! I've noticed he 2619 hasn't shown her picture around this time!

2620 ED: He hasn't got it--the iceman took it away from him!

2621 MARGIE: Jeez, look at him--who could blame her?

2622 PEARL: She must be hard up to fall for an iceman!

2623 CORA: Imagine a sap like him advisin' me and Chuck to 2624 git married!

2625 CHUCK: Yeah he done so good wid it!

2626 JIMMY: Least I can say my Mary chose an officer and a 2627 gentleman.

2628 THE CAPTAIN: Look at him, chaps, he's sprouted horns
2629 like a bloody antelope!

2630 THE GENERAL: Pigger, py Gott--like water buffalo!

2631 WILLIE [sings his Sailor Lad tune]: "Come up," she 2632 cried, "my iceman lad, And you and I'll agree--"

2633 WILLIE/ED/JOE/THE CAPTAIN/THE GENERAL/MAC/
2634 PEARL/MARGIE/CORA/ROCKY/CHUCK "And I'll show ya the 2635 prettiest [rap, rap, rap] That ever you did see!"
2636 [A roar of derisive, dirty laughter]

2637 HICKEY [joining in the laughter--enjoying the joke at 2638 his expense]: Well, boys and girls, I'm glad to see you
2639 in good spirits for Bess's party, even if the joke's 2640 on me. I admit I asked for it by always pulling that 2641 iceman gag in the old days. [w good-natured generosity]
2642 So laugh all you like.

2643 NARRATOR: But this time they don't laugh--they only 2644 stare at him with baffled uneasiness.

2645 HICKEY: Well, this forces my hand--your bringing up the 2646 subject of Evelyn. I didn't want to tell you--not yet-- 2647 I wanted to wait until the party was over. But you're 2648 getting the wrong idea about poor Evelyn--and I've got 2649 to stop that.

2650 NARRATOR: As he pauses, there's a tense stillness in the 2651 room.

is clean. Though full of a put-on self-assurance,
he's sick--and his face shows it.

THE CAPTAIN: Good morning, gentlemen. [clears throat]
A jolly fine morning, too.

NARRATOR: He approaches the bar.

THE CAPTAIN: An eye-opener? No, I think not-- not required, Rocky, old chum. Feel extremely fit, as a matter of fact. Though can't say I slept much, thanks to that interfering ass, Hickey, and that stupid bounder of a Boer. [His face hardens.] I've had about all I can take from that fellow--it's my own fault, of course, for allowing a brute of a Dutch farmer to become familiar.
Well, it's come to a parting of the ways now, and good riddance--which reminds me, here's my key. [Key slapped on bar.] I shan't be coming back. Sorry to be leaving good old Bess and the rest of you, of course, but I can't continue to live under the same roof with that fellow.

NARRATOR: He stiffens with hostility as The General enters from the hall. He, too, has made an effort to spruce up his appearance. But behind a forced swagger, he is sick and feebly holding his booze-sodden body together.

ROCKY [disgustedly]: So Hickey's kidded the pants offa you, too? Yuh tink yuh're leavin' here, huh, Captain?

THE GENERAL [jeeringly] Ja! Dot's vhat he kids hisself.

THE CAPTAIN [ignores him--airily]: Yes, I'm leaving.
But that ass, Hickey, has nothing to do with it.
Been thinking things over. Time I turned over a new leaf, and all that.

THE GENERAL: He's going ta get job--dot's what he says!

ROCKY: What at, for Christ sake?

THE CAPTAIN [keeping his airy manner]: Oh, anything-- I mean, not manual labor, naturally, but anything that calls for a bit of brains and education--however humble.
Beggars can't be choosers. I'll see a pal of mine at the Consulate. He promised any time I felt an energetic fit he'd get me a post with the Cunard--clark in the office or something of the kind.

THE GENERAL: Ja--at Limey Consulate dey say anything to get rid of him vhen he comes dere tronk! Dey're scared to call police because it would scandal in de papers make about Limey officer and chentleman!

THE CAPTAIN: As a matter of fact, Rocky, I only wish a post temporarily. Means to an end, you know--save up enough for a first-class passage home, that's the bright idea.

THE GENERAL: He sail back ta home, sweet home--dot's biggest pipe dream of all. What leetle brain the Limey has left, dot isn't in whiskey pickled, Hickey has made crazy!

CHUCK [feeling sorry for The Captain and turning on The General--sarcastically] Hickey ain't made no sucker outa you--you're too foxy, huh? I'll betcha tink yuh're gonna land a job, too.

THE GENERAL [bristles]: I am, ja. For me, it is easy--because I put on no airs of chentleman. I am not ashamed to vork vith my hands. I vas a farmer before de war ven ploody Limey's steal my country. [boastfully] Anyone I ask for job can see vith one look I have strength of ten mens!

THE CAPTAIN [sneeringly]: Yes, he gave an ample demonstration of this incredible strength last night when he helped move the piano.

CHUCK: Yuh couldn't even hold up your corner--it was your fault de damned box almost fell down de stairs.

THE GENERAL: My hands vas sweaty--could I help dot my hands slip? I could de whole veight of it lift! In old days in Transvaal, I lift loaded oxcart by de axle! So vhy shouldn't I get job? Dot longshoreman boss, Dan, he tell me any time I like, he take me on. And Benny from de Market he promise me same.

THE CAPTAIN: You remember, Rocky, it was one of those rare occasions when the Boer was buying drinks and Dan and Benny were stony--they'd bloody well have promised him the moon.

ROCKY: Yeah, yuh big boob, dem boids was on'y kiddin' yuh.

THE GENERAL [angrily]: Dot's lie! You vill see dis morning I get job! I'll show dot bloody Limey chentleman, and dot liar, Hickey! Und I need vork only leettle while to save money for passage home. I need not much money because I am not ashamed to travel steerage.

I don't put on first-cabin airs! [tauntingly] Und I can go home to my country! Vhen I get dere, dey vill let me come in!

THE CAPTAIN [grows rigid--his voice trembling with repressed anger]: There was a rumor in South Africa, Rocky, that a certain Boer officer--if you call the leaders of a rabble of farmers officers--kept advising Cronje to retreat--not stand and fight--

THE GENERAL: And I vas right--I vas right--he got surrounded at Poardeberg--und had to surrender!

THE CAPTAIN [ignoring him]: Good strategy, no doubt, but a suspicion grew afterwards into a conviction among the Boers that the officer's caution was prompted by a desire to make his personal escape. His countrymen felt extremely savage about it, and his family disowned him-- so I imagine there would be no welcoming committee waiting on the dock, nor delighted relatives making the veldt ring with their happy cries--

THE GENERAL [with guilty rage]: All lies--you Gottamned Limey--[trying to control himself] I also haf heard de rumors of a Limey officer who, after de war, lost all his money gambling vhen he vas tronk. Den they found out it vas regiment money, too, he lost--

NARRATOR: The Captain loses control and starts for him.

THE CAPTAIN: You bloody Dutch scum!

NARRATOR: Rocky leans over the bar and delivers a straight-arm to the chest of The Captain.

ROCKY: Cut it out!

NARRATOR: Having grabbed The General, Chuck yanks him back.

THE GENERAL [struggling]: Let him come! I saw dem come before--at Modder River waving deir silly swords, so afraid they could not show off how brave they vas!-- and I kill them vith my rifle so easy! [vindictively]
Listen to me, Captain! Often vhen I am tronk and kidding you I say sorry I missed you, but now, py Gott, I am sober, and I don't joke, and I say it!

LARRY [gives a sardonic guffaw--with his comically crazy, intense whisper]: By God, you can't say Hickey hasn't the miraculous touch to raise the dead, when he can start the Boer War raging again!

NARRATOR: This interruption acts like cold water on the two adversaries--they uncoil, and Rocky and Chuck let go of them.

THE CAPTAIN [attempting a return of his jaunty manner, as if nothing had happened]: Well, time I was on my merry way to see my chap at the Consulate. The early bird catches the worm, and all that. Good-bye and good luck, everyone.

NARRATOR: He starts for the door to the street.

THE GENERAL: Py Gott, if dot Limey can go, I can go!

NARRATOR: He hurries after The Captain, who is about to push the swinging doors open when he hesitates, as though struck by paralysis, and The General has to jerk back to avoid bumping into him. For a second they stand there, one behind the other, staring over the swinging doors into the street.

ROCKY: Well why don't yuh beat it?

THE CAPTAIN [guiltily casual]: Eh? Oh just happened to think--hardly the decent thing to pop off without saying good-bye to ol' Bess--one of the finest, Bess is. And good old Jimmy, too--they ought to be down any moment.

NARRATOR: He pretends to notice The General for the first time and steps away from the door.

THE CAPTAIN [apologizing as to a stranger]: Sorry, I seem to be blocking your way out.

THE GENERAL [stiffly]: No, I vait to say bye to Bess and Jimmy, too.

NARRATOR: Both retire to barstools at opposite ends of the bar.

CHUCK: Jeez, can yuh beat dem simps!

NARRATOR: He spots Cora's drink on the bar.

CHUCK: Hell, I forgot Cora--she'll be trowin' a fit.

NARRATOR: He disappears with the drink into the hall.

BESS HOPE [humiliated and guilty, by way of escape she glares around at the others.] Bejeez, what are all you bums staring at me for? Think you was watchin' a circus! Why don't you get the hell out o' here and 'tend to your own business, like Hickey's told ya?

NARRATOR: Looking at her reproachfully, they fidget as if they were trying to move.

HICKEY: I thought they'd have the guts to be gone by this time. [He grins.] Okay--maybe I did have my doubts. [Abruptly he becomes sincerely sympathetic and earnest.] Because I know exactly what you're up against, boys. I know how damned yellow a person can be when it comes to facin' the truth. I've had to face a worse bastard in myself than any of you'll have to. I know how it is to become such a coward you'll grab at any lousy excuse to get out of killin' your pipe dreams. And yet, as I've told you over and over, it's exactly those damn tomorrow dreams which keep you from makin' peace with yourself. So you've got to kill 'em like I did.

NARRATOR: They glare at him with fear and hatred.

HICKEY [His manner changing as he becomes kindly bullying]: Come on, boys--get moving--who'll start the ball rolling? You, Captain, and you, General--you're old war heroes--you ought to lead the charge--come on now, show us a little of that Battle of Modder River spirit we've heard so much about! You can't hang around all day as if the street outside would bite ya!

THE CAPTAIN [turns with humiliated rage in an attempt at jaunty casualness] Right you are, Mister Bloody Nosey Parker! Time I pushed off--was only waiting to say good-bye to you, Bess, old gal.

BESS HOPE [dejectedly]: Good-bye, Captain--hope you have luck.

THE CAPTAIN: Oh, I'm bound to, my dear--and the same to you.

NARRATOR: Pushing open the swinging doors, The Captain marches off right.

THE GENERAL: Py Gott, if dot Limey can, I can!

NARRATOR: Lumbering through the doors, The General marches off left.

3914 but didn't have de noive, I figgah'd. Jeez, dere ain't 3915 enough guts left in de whole gang to swat a mosquita!

3916 CHUCK: To hell wid 'em--who cares--gimme a drink.
3917 [Rocky pushes a bottle toward him.]

3918 CHUCK: I see you been hittin' de redeye too.
3919 ROCKY: Yeah--but it don't do no good.
3920 [Chuck drinks.]

3921 JOE [mumbles in his sleep]:

3922 CHUCK [resentfully]: Dis doity dinge was able to get his 3923 snootful and pass out. Jeez, even Hickey can't faze a 3924 dinge! He ain't got no business in here after hours-- 3925 why don't yuh chuck him out?

3926 ROCKY [apathetically]: Aw, to hell wid it--who cares?
3927 CHUCK [lapsing into the same mood]: Yeah, I don't.

3928 JOE [suddenly lunges to his feet dazedly--mumbles in 3929 humbled apology]: Scuse me, White Boys--scuse me for 3930 livin'--I don't want to be where I's not wanted.
3931 [He walks away.]

3932 CHUCK [in a callous, brutal tone]: I'm gonna collect de 3933 dough from Cora I wouldn't take dis mornin', like a 3934 suckah--before she blows it.

3935 ROCKY: I'm comin', too--I'm trough woikin' as a lousy 3936 bahtender.

3937 NARRATOR: As they approach Cora, Joe flops down next to 3938 The Captain.

3939 JOE [servilely apologetic]: If ya objects to my sittin'
3940 here, Captain, just tell me and I pulls my freight.

3941 THE CAPTAIN: No apology required, old chap--I should 3942 feel honored a bloody Kaffir would lower himself to 3943 sit beside me.

3944 CHUCK [his voice hard]: I'm waitin', Baby--dig!

3945 CORA [with apathetic obedience]: Sure. I been expectin'
3946 yuh--I got it right here.

3947 NARRATOR: Without looking at him, she passes him a 3948 roll of bills.

everybody? Sorry I had to leave you for a while.
But there was something I had to get settled--it's all fixed now.

BESS HOPE [mechanically voicing a hopeless complaint]:
When are you going to do something about this booze, Hickey--bejeez, we all know you did something to take the life out of it--it's like drinking dishwater-- we can't pass out--and you promised us peace.

WILLIE/ED/JOE/THE CAPTAIN/THE

GENERAL/JIMMY/MAC/CHUCK/CORA: Yeah!

HICKEY [bursts into resentful exasperation]: For God's sake, are you still harpin' on that damned nonsense!
You've kept it up all afternoon and night--and you've got everybody else singing the same crazy tune--I've had about all I can stand--that's why I phoned-- [He gets control of himself.] Excuse me, boys and girls--I don't mean that--I'm just worried about you, when you play dead on me like this. I was hoping by the time I got back you'd be like you ought to be! Figured you were deliberately holding back, while I was around, because you didn't want to give me the satisfaction of showin' me I had the right dope--and I did! I know from my own experience. [exasperatedly] But I've explained that a million times--by rights you should be happy now, without a single damned hope or dream left to torment
ya! But here you are, actin' like a lot of stiffs cheatin' the undertaker! [He looks around accusingly.]
I can't figure it--unless it's just pigheaded stubbornness. [He breaks--miserably] Hell, you shouldn't act this way with me--you're my old pals, the only friends I've got. You know the one thing I want is to see you all happy before I go--[rousing himself to his old brisk, master-of-ceremonies self] And there's damned little time left--I've made a date for two o'clock-- we've got to get busy right away and find out what's wrong. [There's a long silence. He goes on exasperatedly.] Can't you appreciate what you've got, for God's sake--don't you know you're now free to be yourselves, without having to feel remorse or guilt, or lie to yourselves about reforming tomorrow? Can't you see there is no tomorrow, now--you're rid of it forever-- you've killed it--you don't have to care a damn about anything any more--you've finally got the game of life licked, don't you see that? [angrily exhorting] Then why

what's she to us? All we want is to pass out in peace, bejeez!

THE CAPTAIN: That's right!

THE GENERAL: Vhat's it to us?

NARRATOR: Bess drinks and the rest follow her mechanically.

BESS HOPE [complaining with a stupid, nagging insistence]: No life in the booze! No kick--dishwater-- I'll never pass out, bejeez!

HICKEY [goes on as if there had been no interruption]:
So I beat it to the city. I got a job easy, and it was a cinch for me to make good--I had the knack--it was like a game, sizing people up quick, spotting what their pet pipe dreams were, and then kidding 'em along that line, pretendin' you believed what they wanted to believe about themselves--then they liked you, they trusted you, they wanted to buy somethin' to show their gratitude-- it was fun. But still, all the while I felt guilty, as if I had no right to be having such a good time away from Evelyn. In each letter I'd tell her how I missed her, but I'd keep warning her, too--I'd tell her all my faults, how I liked my booze, and so on. But there was no shaking Evelyn's belief in me. After each of her letters, I'd be as full of faith as she was. So as soon as I got enough saved, I sent for her and we got married. Christ, for a while I was happy--and was she happy! I don't care what anyone says, there was never two people who loved each other more than Evelyn and me, not only then but always, in spite of everything I did--

NARRATOR: As he pauses, a look of sadness comes over his face.

HICKEY: Ya see I never could learn to handle temptation.
I'd want to reform and I'd promise her, and I'd promise myself, and I'd believe it. I'd say to her "It's the last time"--and she'd say, "I know it's the last time, Teddy--you'll never do it again." That's what made it so hard--that's what made me feel such a rotten skunk--her always forgiving me. My playin' around with women, for instance--it was only a harmless good time to me--didn't mean nothin'--but I'd know what it meant to Evelyn.
So I'd say to myself, never again--but you know how it is, traveling around--the damned hotel rooms--I'd get

ED: Yes, Bess!

CORA: That's it, Bess.

THE CAPTAIN: That's why!

THE GENERAL: Ve knew he vas crazy!

MAC: Just to humor him!

DETECTIVE #1: A fine bunch of rats--coverin' up for a cold-blooded murderer.

BESS HOPE [stung into recovering all her old fuming truculence]: Is that so? Well, when Saint Patrick drove the snakes out of Ireland they swam to New York and joined the Force! Ha! [She cackles insultingly.] Bejeez, we can believe it when we look at you, can't we, gang?

[The gang growls in ascent.]

BESS HOPE [goes on pugnaciously.] You stand up for your rights, Hickey--don't let this smart-aleck copper get funny with ya. If he pulls any rubber-hose tricks, you let me know! I've still got friends at the Hall! Bejeez, I'll have him back in uniform poundin' a beat where the only graft he'll get will be kipin' pencils from the blind!

DETECTIVE #1 [furiously]: Listen, you cockeyed old dame! For a plugged nickel I'd [give you a slap in the]--

NARRATOR: As he controls himself, his partner turns to Hickey and yanks his arm.

DETECTIVE #2: Come on, you!

HICKEY [with a strange mad earnestness]: Oh, I want to go, officer--I can hardly wait now--I should have phoned you from the house right afterwards--it was a waste of time coming here--I've got to explain to Evelyn--but I know she's forgiven me--she knows I was insane. [turning to the officer] No, you've got me all wrong, officer--I want to go to the Chair.

DETECTIVE #1: Bull-crap!

HICKEY [exasperatedly]: God, you're a dumb copper! Ya think I give a damn about life now? Why, you bone-head, I haven't got a single lyin' hope or pipe dream left!

DETECTIVE #2: Get a move on!

4615 HICKEY [as he is walked towards the rear--insistently]:
 4616 All I want ya to see is I was out of my mind when I
 4617 laughed at her! I was a rotten raving lunatic or I 4618 couldn't have called her a [bitch]--Why, Evelyn was the 4619 only thing on God's earth I ever loved. I'd have killed 4620 myself before I'd ever hurt her!

4621 BESS HOPE [calls after him]: Don't worry, Hickey--they 4622 won't give you the Chair--we'll testify you was crazy-- 4623 crazy as a bedbug--won't we, gang?

4624 CORA/ROCKY/CHUCK [yell]: Dat's right!

4625 THE GENERAL [yell]: Dat's right!

4626 WILLIE/ED/MAC [yell]: We won't testify.

4627 THE CAPTAIN/JIMMY [yell]: Don't worry, Hickey.

4628 [From the hall comes the slam of the street door.]

4629 BESS HOPE [with genuine sorrow]: He's gone--the poor 4630 crazy bastard! Bejeez, I need a drink.

4631 NARRATOR: The gang all grab their glasses.

4632 BESS HOPE [hopefully]: Bejeez, maybe it'll have the 4633 old kick, now he's gone.

4634 NARRATOR: She drinks--and they all follow suit.

4635 ROCKY: Yeah, Boss--maybe we can get drunk now.

4636 NARRATOR: They all sit still--with hopeful expectancy-- 4637 waiting for the effect of the booze.

4638 LARRY--[his voice full of pain and pity--in a whisper, 4639 aloud to himself] May the Chair bring him peace at last,
 4640 the poor tortured bastard!

4641 PARRITT [leans toward him--in a strange low insistent 4642 voice]: Yes, but he isn't the only one who needs peace, 4643 Larry--I can't feel sorry for him--he's lucky--he's 4644 through, now--it's all decided for him. I wish it was 4645 decided for me--I've never been any good at deciding 4646 things--even about selling out. It was the tart the cops 4647 got after me who put it in my mind. You remember what 4648 Mother's like, Larry--she makes all the decisions--she's 4649 always decided what I had to do--she doesn't like anyone 4650 to be free but herself.

4651 NARRATOR: He pauses, as if waiting for Larry to comment
 4652 --but he ignores him.

4735 was a goner. [Assuming the old kidding tone of the gang,
4736 but hesitantly, as if still a little afraid.] On de woid 4737 of a honest bahtender!

4738 BESS HOPE [her old self]: Huh! Bar-robber is more 4739 like it. You and Chuck ought to have cards in the 4740 Burglars' Union!

4741 [The gang laughs eagerly]

4742 BESS HOPE: Bejeez, it's good to hear someone 4743 laugh again! All the time that bastard--I mean--poor old 4744 Hickey was here, I didn't have the heart--Bejeez, I'm 4745 getting drunk and glad of it! [She cackles. Bottle being 4746 picked up.] Come on, gang--it's on the house.

4747 [Many drinks are poured.]

4748 BESS HOPE [sentimental]: Poor old Hickey--we mustn't 4749 hold him responsible for anything he's done--we'll 4750 forget that--and only remember him the way he was before
4751 --the kindest, biggest-hearted drummer who ever wore 4752 shoe leather.

4753 CORA/ROCKY/CHUCK: Dat's right, Bess!

4754 THE GENERAL: Vhat's all!

4755 JIMMY/THE CAPTAIN/WILLIE: Finest drummer!

4756 ED/MAC/JOE: Best scout!

4757 BESS HOPE: Good luck to you in Matteawan, Hickey!
4758 Come on, bottoms up!

4759 [They all drink.]

4760 NARRATOR: At his table--his hands tensely gripping the 4761 edge--sits Larry, listening intently.

4762 LARRY [cannot hold back an anguished exclamation]:
4763 Christ! Why don't he [jump for god's sake]--!

4764 HUGO [beginning to be drunk again--peers at him]:
4765 Vhy don't he what? Don't be a fool--Hickey's gone-- 4766 he vas crazy. Have a trink. [then as he receives no
4767 reply--with vague uneasiness] What's matter with you?
4768 You look funny. What you listen for, Larry?

4769 CORA [tipsily]: Well, I thank Gawd me and Chuck did all 4770 we could to humor de poor nut. Jeez, imagine us goin'
4771 off like we really meant to git married, when we ain't 4772 even picked out a farm yet!

4773 CHUCK [eagerly]: Sure ting, Baby--we kidded him we was 4774 serious.

4775 JIMMY [confidently--with a gentle, drunken zeal]:
4776 I may as well say I detected his condition almost at 4777 once. All that talk of his about tomorrow, for example.
4778 He had the fixed idea of the insane. It only makes them 4779 worse to cross them.

4780 WILLIE [eagerly]: Same with me, Jimmy--only I spent the 4781 day in the park--I wasn't such a damned fool as to [try 4782 to]--

4783 THE CAPTAIN [getting jauntily drunk]: Picture my 4784 predicament had gone to the Consulate. The pal of mine
4785 there is a humorous blighter. He would have got me a job 4786 out of pure spite. Instead I strolled about and finally 4787 came to roost in the park. [He grins with affectionate 4788 kidding at The General] And lo and behold, who was on 4789 the neighboring bench but my old battlefield companion, 4790 the Boer that walks like a man--who, if the British 4791 Government had taken my advice, would have been removed 4792 from his fetid pen on the veldt straight to the baboon's 4793 cage at the London Zoo, and little children would now be 4794 asking their nurses: "Tell me, Nana, is that the Boer 4795 General, the one with the blue behind?"

4796 [The gang laughs uproariously.]

4797 THE CAPTAIN: No offense meant, old chap.

4798 THE GENERAL [beaming]: No offense taken, you tanned
4799 Limey! [going on--grinningly] About a job--I felt de 4800 same as de Limey here.

4801 HUGO [with uneasy insistence]: What's matter, Larry-- 4802 you look scared--vhat you listen for out zere?

4803 JOE [with drunken self-assurance]: No, suh, I wasn't 4804 fool enough to git in no crap game--not while Hickey's 4805 around--crazy people puts a jinx on you.

4806 MAC [with drunken earnestness]: You saw how it was-- 4807 no good trying to explain to a crazy guy that it ain't 4808 the right time--you know how getting reinstated is.

4809 ED: Sure, the same with the circus. The boys tell me the 4810 rubes are spendin' all their money buying food and times 4811 was never so hard. And I never was one to cheat for 4812 chicken feed.

4813 BESS HOPE [looks around her in an ecstasy of bleery
4814 sentimental content]: Bejeez, I'm cockeyed! Bejeez, 4815 you're all cockeyed! Bejeez, we're all all right!
4816 Let's have another!

4817 [They pour out drinks.]

4818 HUGO [reiterates stupidly]: Vhat's matter, Larry--vhy 4819 you keep eyes shut--you look dead--vhat you listen for?

4820 NARRATOR: Larry doesn't answer. Or open his eyes.
4821 Suddenly, Hugo bolts up and backs away from the table.

4822 HUGO [mumbling with frightened anger]: Crazy fool--you 4823 is crazy like Hickey--you give me bad dreams, too.

4824 ROCKY [greet's him with boisterous affection]:
4825 Helloo, dere, Hugo--welcome to de party!

4826 BESS HOPE: Yes, bejeez, Hugo--sit down--have a drink!
4827 Have ten drinks, bejeez!

4828 HUGO [giving his familiar giggle]: Helloo, leedle Bess!
4829 Helloo, nice, leedle, funny monkey-faces! [warming up,
4830 changes abruptly to his usual declamatory denunciation]
4831 Gottamned stupid bourgeois! Soon comes the Day of 4832 Judgment!

4833 THE CAPTAIN [good-naturedly derisive]: Sit down!

4834 CHUCK [good-naturedly derisive]: Can it!

4835 HUGO [giggling good-naturedly]: Give me ten trinks, 4836 Bess--don't be a fool.

4837 [The gang laughs.]

4838 NARRATOR: Everyone turns towards the rear as Margie and 4839 Pearl appear, drunk and diseveled.

4840 MARGIE [defensively truculent]: Make way for two good 4841 whores!

4842 PEARL: Yeah! And we want a drink quick!

4843 MARGIE: Shake de lead outa your pants, Pimp! A little 4844 soivice!

4845 ROCKY [face grinning welcome]: Well, look who's here!
4846 [He goes to them with open arms.] Helloo, dere,
4847 Sweethearts! Jeez, I was beginnin' to worry about yuh, 4848 honest!

4922 BESS HOPE [calls effusively] Hey there, Larry! Come over 4923 and get paralyzed! What the hell you douin', just sittin' 4924 there?

4925 NARRATOR: But Larry doesn't reply. Almost immediately, 4926 she forgets him and turns back to the gang.

4927 BESS HOPE: Bejeez, let's sing! Let's celebrate. It's my 4928 birrthday party! Bejeez, I'm oreyeyed!

4929 HUGO [singing]: Dansons la Carmagnole! Vive le son! Vive 4930 le son! Dansons la Carmagnole! Vive le son des canons!

4931 [The gang howls derisively.]

4932 HUGO: Capitalist svine! Stupid bourgeois monkeys!
4933 [declaiming] "The days grow hot, O Babylon!"

4934 WILLIE/ED/JOE/THE CAPTAIN/THE
4935 GENERAL/JIMMY/MAC/CORA/ROCKY/CHUCK [taking it up]:
4936 'Tis cool beneath thy willow trees!

4937 [They pound their glasses on the table.]

4938 NARRATOR: In his chair--staring straight ahead-- 4939 oblivious to all the racket, sits Larry.

4940 [The gang roars with boisterous laughter.]

4941 HUGO [giggles]:

4942 THE END
