“March on. Do not tarry. To go forward is to move toward perfection. March on, and fear not the thorns, or the sharp stones on life's path.” Kahlil Gibran

This spiritual journey has caused me to grow in my faith and in my trust in God. This project is a miracle. I will continue to keep my trust in God as He is teaching me that He is truly my only source. When I made this promise to God years ago, I didn't realise how difficult it would be. Until I was ready to sacrifice my own resources in this work, all my previous efforts to get outside help failed. I am reminded of King David when he was in a low place, he knew the sacrifice that he must offer to God must cost him something.

“No, but I will certainly buy it from you for a price. . I will not offer burnt offerings to the LORD my God which cost me nothing.” So David purchased the threshing floor and the oxen for fifty shekels of silver. (2 SAMUEL 24:24)

Today when I look at the progress we've made in a very short time with the construction building, I praise my God for His faithfulness.

Although we have not received much donations, we don't have any professional fund raiser for the project, the work does not stop. We continue to build with what we have and God has multiplied and blessed it.

I know that in 2023 God is bringing in brothers, sisters and friends who share this vision to support this ministry. I have no doubt that we are on the verge of seeing God move in a mighty way. I am still hopeful that we can open school in 2023. I am hoping to find schools or organizations that will be willing to furnish us with elementary school desk for our students, blackboards, kindergarden carpets and easles.

I have posted some pictures of types of furniture we need for our school. We can utilize used furniture. I would like to send these furniture by container to Haiti as soon as we begin to collect them.

Once the building is up, we will focus on drilling the well. I want to encourage brothers, sisters and friends to help us in this effort. You may contact me by phone or email me. My contact information is below.

In order to make a difference, we rely on the support of generous individuals and businesses in our community and beyond. We would be most grateful if you would consider supporting our project.

Your support is critical for the opening of our school this year. Please contact me if you are able to support our efforts to make a difference for children in need. Thank you so much for your kind consideration of our request, and we hope to hear from you soon. God bless you!
