FOSTERING SCHOOL, FAMILY, AND COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

Hello, my name is Marlene Felix. I am the director of Morne Pele Christian School (MPCS). MPCS was founded immediately after the devastating earthquake that took place in Haiti on January 2010 with the intent to contribute in the lives of displaced children. Nearly half of Haiti’s 10 million people are younger than 18 years old. Only half of Haitian children ever attend school, and only 2% finish high school, UNICEF says. Haiti’s infant mortality rate and that of death for children younger than five are the highest in the Western Hemisphere.

We are planning a Full-Service Community School in northern Haiti, in a region called “Morne Pele” which is near Cap-Haitian. Our goal is to provide support, health and education to underprivileged children. Our mission is to find ways and means of meeting their physical, social and spiritual, needs and reaching out to all the children with the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

PROJECTS

“Morne Pele Christian School” proposes a multi-faceted project in education , preventive health, spirituality and social growth.”

The goal is to raise responsible, resourceful, and productive citizens by providing and facilitating the education, instruction, training and equipping with skills to the children in a Christian atmosphere. The first floor of our mission house is ready. We are putting further work on the missionary house on hold to began construction on our school building.

The school will be able to serve about 200 students from pre-kindergarten through High School.

“Our goal is to provide support, health and education to underprivileged children.”

We are asking for your financial support in helping us to provide these children with quality education, medical care and hope for the future. Consider helping build one room in the building, maybe a classroom, or the library.

Whatever part you choose to play in this project, your assistance is greatly appreciated. We need your financial support, any amount is greatly appreciated. We hope the Lord will put it in your heart to join us and become involve with this worthy project. Thank you. May God richly bless you!
