"It always seems impossible until it's done." – Nelson Mandela

We are commanded by our Lord Jesus to go forth and make disciples. He didn't tell us it would be easy in fact, He said if any men would follow me, he must pick up his cross and follow. Wow!!! A cross is not really a very pleasant symbol – rather it evokes pain and suffering. We may be exposed to danger and even death. According to history, everyone of Jesus' disciples suffered martyrdom except for John and that's because God had a different mission for him. As Christians, picking up your cross means you are committed to the Lord Jesus Christ even if it means putting aside your possessions, your hopes, and your dreams.

Missionaries who are working overseas today are facing big challenges. We must keep our brothers and sisters abroad in fervent prayer because they are exposing their lives every day in places and situations that are perilous.

Haiti is facing enemies both from within and from without. Since the 2010 earthquake conditions have exacerbated and with the assassination of the late President Jovenel the country has no operating government. Gangs with guns are everywhere. The people cannot call on the police for help because the gangs have more guns, and there are more gangs than there are police. It seems that the government who are supposedly in charge are working with the gangs. The people are exhausted, there is no security. In the face of all this peril, there is a faithful remnant keeping the torch lit and making way for others. We must encourage and pray for them. Morne Pele Christian School project will serve as a beacon of hope for the children and the people of Morne Pele. It will play a pivotal role in empowering these young minds to break the cycle of poverty through education. We don't know the exact time of Jesus' return but based on what He told us, we can be sure He is at the door. We have little time to fulfill the Great Commission. Worldwide chaos such as earthquakes, floods, wars not to mention civil unrest and gang violence.

My prayer is that God would raise up an army of men, women, children who are not attached to the things of this world and are fearless.

The early church brothers and sisters knew about what it meant to suffer for Christ's sake. I believe we have entered the time when Christians are experiencing hardships as well. Amid hardships, we pray to remain faithful to the end.

Luke 9:24-25 says: "For what does it profit a man if he gains the whole world and loses or forfeits his soul?"

The Great Commission is what our Lord commanded us, it is our assignment from God and to this we remain faithful until He returns. (Matthew 24:45)

"Who then is the faithful and wise servant, whom his master has set over his household, to give them their food at the proper time? Blessed is that servant whom his master will find so doing when he comes. Truly, I say to you, he will set him over all his possessions. (Matthew 24:45-51)
