Crikey, mate! You've found a rare guidebook that's composed of a continental traveler's firsthand experiences, acquired knowledge, and photography. Discover the marvelous sights and activities that await you Down Under, from Sydney's Opera House and Uluru (Ayers Rock) in Australia, to bungy jumping and The Lord of the Rings' Hobbiton in New Zealand. This guidebook gives recommendations and tips about excursions, outdoor recreation, cities, museums, day trips, and more to help you plan your trip. Whether you're travelling as an individual, with a group of friends, or as a family, and whether you seek adventure, culture, or relaxation, Fun Down Under provides a variety of locations and activities that will suit your needs. Be comfortable and confident during your travels, and learn about all the great spots to visit and fun things to see and do during your stay in Australia and New Zealand.

Caitlyn M. Schmidt began travelling with her parents as an infant and has already visited six continents. She participated in three Study Abroad trips to Australia/New Zealand, Japan, and Costa Rica during her college years. She graduated with honors from Western Washington University, where she earned her bachelor's degree in English with an Emphasis on Creative Writing. She enjoys photography, music, pottery, and cooking, and her love of traveling and learning about new cultures inspired her to write Fun Down Under. Caitlyn currently lives in the Seattle, Washington area with her husband.
