†Opening Prayer

Almighty God, we beseech you graciously to behold this your family, for whom our Lord Jesus Christ was contented to be betrayed, and given up into the hands of wicked men, and to suffer death upon the cross, who now lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, ever one God, world without end.

†Closing Prayer Gallican Liturgy, 5th Century

O Christ, God, great Adonai, crucify us as it were with yourself to this world, that your life may be in us. Put our sins upon yourself to crucify them. Draw us also to yourself, since for us you were lifted up from the earth, to deliver us from the tyrant. Although by the flesh and by sins we are under the devil’s power, yet we long to serve you, not him. We desire to live under your authority, and beg to be governed by you, who was pleased by the death of the Cross to deliver us, mortals.

For this transcendent benefit we bring the service of our devotion. We humbly adore, implore, and invoke you, that you, O God, eternal Might, would hasten your coming unto us. You who by your power makes things future to be as things past, and also by your presence, things past to be as things present: grant that your Passion may be as saving to us as if it were present this day. You who reigns forever with the Father and the Holy Spirit, now continue to reign over us, for ever and ever. Amen.
