

NEWS FROM QUINN'S WORLD

Spring 2023

WELCOME

To my kings and queens, it's been a minute since I sent out any news. To all of you that I have been able to serve in Saskatoon this last 18 months I say thank you for your continuous trust in me to take care of your hair and for supporting the salon.

To my Regina guests, welcome to the family.

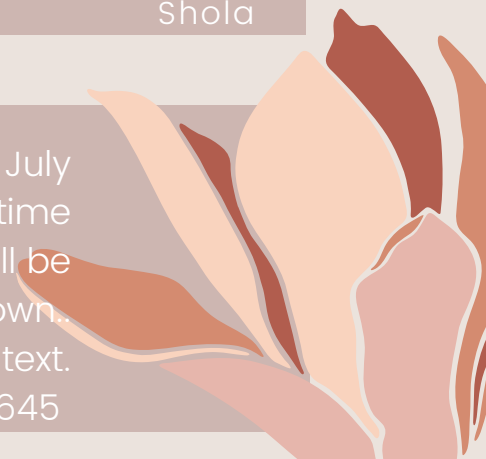

To all of you, I promise to always take care of your haircare needs to the best of my ability, while providing a safe, welcoming and relaxing space for you..

Shola

I will be out of the salon in Saskatoon for the months of July and August to spend time with my family. During this time online booking of appointments will not be available. I will be available for to take care of your hair in Regina if I am in town..

Appointments in Regina can be made via phone or text.

TRENDS IN HAIR CARE AND STYLE

Texture change, micro locs, braids and color are big this season. Whatever style or change to your hair you adopt, having a proper maintenance routine will keep your hair looking its best.

Scrunchies made with silk, satin or velvet are stylish and help reduce breakage from friction while keeping your hair up.

Dry shampoos like Kevin Murphy Fresh Hair, Olaplex dry shampoo are great for keeping hair looking fresh in-between shampoo.

FEATURED PRODUCTS

Raw silk towels woven from the mulberry silk worm cocoons, are absorbent, hypoallergenic, reduces frizz and helps to prevent hair breakage and overly dry skin.

Raw silk towels and satin scrunchies are now available for purchase at the salon and in the online store.
