

Proclamation of Covenant

Father, I believe in my heart and confess with my mouth that Jesus Christ is Lord. I believe He is the Son of God and that He died on the cross for all of my sins and iniquities. I was chosen by Your foreknowledge before the foundation of the earth. I was predestined to be conformed to the image of Your Son. I was called for Your divine purpose in the earth. I am justified by the blood of Jesus Christ. I am glorified by the grace and the power of the Holy Spirit. I am sanctified by the work of the Holy Spirit, that I might be separated from the world unto Jesus Christ.

I decree no charge can be brought against me by the Father or the Son because of the Cross. You have freely given me all things so that I can overwhelmingly conquer in this life through Him who loves me (Romans 8:29-30, 33, 37).

Bless the Lord, O my soul; and all that is within me bless His holy name. Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget none of His benefits; who pardons all of my iniquities; who heals all my diseases; who redeems my life from the pit; who crowns me with loving kindness and compassion. For as high as the heavens are above the earth, so great is His lovingkindness toward those who fear Him. As far as the east is from the west, so far has He removed my transgressions from me! The lovingkindness of the Lord is from everlasting to everlasting to those who fear Him, and His righteousness to children's children, to those who keep covenant and who remember His commandments to do them (Psalm 103:1-4, 11-12, 17-18).

Father, I stand in awe as I consider Your lovingkindness toward those that fear You, keep Your covenant, and walk in Your commandments. I come to You this day to proclaim that Jesus is the High Priest of my confession. I thank You for making a way for me to come boldly to Your Throne through the righteousness of Jesus because He made a way for me to come to You.

Therefore, I come boldly before your throne with confidence as Your Son knowing that You hear my prayers and that Your heart is full of tender mercy towards me. I know that You are faithful to complete that good and perfect work You have begun in my life. I desire complete freedom from every sin that keeps me from my destiny. I desire complete deliverance from generational accusations, bitterness, bondages, curses, and strongholds.

Father, I desire to take back the ground in my life that has been controlled by the enemy of my soul. Like Jesus in John 14:30, I want to be able to proclaim that the prince of this world has no power over me and that I am able to walk as an overcomer in this life through the righteousness I have in Christ Jesus.
