THE WOMEN OF GETTYSBURG TOUR FRIDAY, APRIL 26, 2024

These are the inspiring stories of sixteen women who lived through the Battle of Gettysburg – well-known and little-known. Our guide will lead us through the back streets of Gettysburg and tell of the remarkable women who changed the course of history in extraordinary ways.

Learn about the women who, without formal training in nursing, volunteered to do what they could for the Union and Confederate wounded in the makeshift field hospitals occupying every large building in Gettysburg. Listen to the stories of the women who donned uniforms and served in battle beside their men – even to being wounded or killed.

Learn of the women who wrote books and traveled the United States to talk about the Battle of Gettysburg, keeping alive the memories of the soldiers who fought there. Hear about the longest love story of the Civil War.

Listen to how the meek ones found their courage, the young ones their maturity, the tender ones their strength – and how they all gave from their hearts to save the lives of soldiers and protect their families.

These are the stories to be remembered of the quiet sacrifice, the selfless kindness, and the enduring resilience of the women of Gettysburg. If you ever needed to be inspired, these stories will stir your heart, revive your strength, and make you believe in the amazing things that strong women, from every period, can do.
