About Megan

Megan is a native English speaker from the U.S. She has been learning French since 1998 and teaching languages for over 15 years.

A world traveler and lover of cultures, Megan enjoys sharing languages with young learners and helping them build confidence in speaking, writing, listening and reading.

She lives in Maryland with her husband & two young children.

- B.A French, Spanish & Education
- M.A. French Language, Literature & Culture
- Advanced Certificate in TESOL
- 15 years teaching experience in public & private schools

Teaching Style

Megan offers individual tutoring and small group classes for French and English learners around the world. She prides herself on offering diverse courses that appeal to various learning styles and creating lessons based on individual student needs and interests. She truly values knowing each child by creating meaningful connections with her students.

She is able to expertly explain difficult French grammar to higher level students through the use of her extensive library of online games and activities. She incorporates authentic resources (videos/articles/music) that are comprehensible for each child's language proficiency level.

Her goal is to provide students with a safe and welcoming atmosphere to take risks with the language and use it in a meaningful way. Some of her favorite tools to use are Boom Cards, Quizlet, Quizizz, Kahoot, Google Slides and music! You will often find her singing and dancing- making language learning fun!
