Community Calen

CAVEAT

Readers should not rely entirely on information appearing in this Calendar. Organizers occasionally cancel or reschedule events without informing India-West*. Typographical and communication errors may also occur. To avoid disappointment, we encourage readers to call the telephone number in the individual listings to confirm the information regarding events they plan to attend.*

-Editors

UPCOMING HOLIDAYS

February 14.....Valentine's Day

February 15.....Vasant Pachami

February 19.....Shivaji Jayanti

Denotes holidays for which offices of the Consulate General of India are closed.*

NORTHERN CALIFORNIA

ANNOUNCEMENTS

BRAHMA KUMARIS - Milpitas. Watch the popular show "Awakening with Brahma Kumaris," daily on Star Plus at 7:30 a.m. and Aastha TV at 5.45 p.m. Info: (408)935-8740.

FREE LEGAL SERVICES - South Bay Area. The South Asian Bar Association of Northern California in collaboration with supporting Community organizations offers Free legal services at 3 locations from 10 a.m. onwards.. 2nd Saturday - Columbia Neighborhood Center, 785 Morse Ave, Sunnyvale. 3rd Saturday - Sunnyvale Senior Center, 550 E Remington Drive, Sunnyvale. Every Sunday - ICC, 525, Los Coches St., Milpitas. Info: www.southasianbar.org.

HINDU SCULPTURE EXHIBITION - San Francisco. SFO Museum at San Francisco International Airport is holding an exhibition "Deities in Stone: Hindu Sculpture" till February , containing sculptures of Hindu deities and other Hindu artifacts.This exhibition at F2 – North Connect Gallery on Terminal 3 contains granite, stone, sandstone, schist and gabbro stone sculptures of Hindu deities. Info: www.flysfo.com.

SATSANGS - Fremont. Satsangs of Vaswani Mission of Bay Area, includes video discourse tapes of Dada Jashan, reading of the Noori Granth, Gita path, bhajans, and sholka recitation. Every third Sunday of the month. Fremont Hindu Temple, 3676 Delaware Dr., 10:30a.m. - 11:45 a.m. Info: (510)796-4472/(408)218-6364.

HINDU SCULPTURE EXHIBITION - Sacramento. Renowned Crocker Art Museum (CAM), 216 O Street, Sacramento is exhibit-

NORTHERN CALIFORNIA

Thakur Chakrapani Singh Live in Veena Concert on February 8 & 9 in Santa Cruz & Berkeley.

Guitar Foundation of America will present An Evening of Indian Classical Music Concert of Thakur Chakrapani Singh on February 8th from 7.30 p.m., at Pacific Cultural Center, 1307 Sea Bright Ave, Santa Cruz. Info: (831)426-8893. Guitar Foundation of America and Sangati center (A Cultural organization) San Francisco will present An Evening of Indian Classical Music Concert of Thakur Chakrapani Singh on February 9th from 7 p.m., at Subterranean Art House, 2179 Bancroft Way, Berkeley. Info: (510) 508-3492.

Thakur Chakrapani Singh, an innovative Kachhapi Veena player with his own style, belongs to the royal family of India . Chakrapani's unique style of Veena vadan highlights the strokes of Sarod and the Da,Dir,Dir. He is the only Veena player to follow this style. Thakur Chakrapani Singh has improved the tonal quality of his instrument by adding 26 more strings in "Tarab" "Chikari "creating a new look in his own modification to cover all the Indian Classical Musical aspect and its range making his vadan more melodious. His unique combination of "Gayaki and Tantrakari" style in Veena and his innovative skills have brought honors to him with the prestigious awards. Being taught by the Sarod and Dhrupad maestros his recitals clearly show his genius of perception into the ethereal mysteries of tonal relationship and nuances in the context of the Raga.

(510) 508-3492