Christmas - Epiphany - January, 2026

January Highlights

Sunday worship is at 1:30 p.m. followed by coffee hour. Please be silent after the bell rings before worship begins.

Sunday, January 4 - The Second Sunday of Christmas,
The Rev. Hazel Hunt, Celebrant

Sunday, January 11 - Epiphany I - The Baptism of Christ,
Renewal of Baptismal Vows, The Rev. Trula Hollywood, Celebrant

Sunday, January 18 - Epiphany II, The Rev. Betsy Sentigar, Celebrant. Vestry meets at Noon.

Sunday, January 25 - Epiphany III, The Rev. Canon Melinda Artman, Celebrant. 184th Annual Meeting and potluck brunch, 11:30.

will take over as diocesan and begin the process of searching for a new bishop, who will be elected about the time Bishop Kevin retires.

As we get used to new names, new churches and new parishes, we, at Trinity will include those names in our weekly prayers. The new diocese reaches from the New York and

New Jersey borders to the Maryland border, covering the central and northeast portions of Pennsylvania. Our former diocese, Bethlehem, will retain its cathedral in Bethlehem and its pro-cathedral in Wilkes-

Barre; Central Pennsylvania's Pro-cathedral is in Williamsport and its cathedral is in Harrisburg.

Don't miss the Annual Meeting! It's our 184th since this parish was formed in 1842. We'll start with a potluck at 11:30, review the year past, and plan for the future. Trinity has been through many changes and remains resilient and engaged in ministry in and to our community. Our recent change to early afternoon worship has been very successful - attendance has remained constant; our supply clergy have offered us variety and richness in our worship lives.

We continue keep the main thing the main thing, as Bishop Mark Dyer used to say. New vestry members will be elected. Are you called to serve? Our meetings are short and productive, so please consider serving a term. Every one of us has gifts and talents to share.

After nearly three years of prayer, study, planning, and discerning, we are, as of January 1, The Episcopal Diocese of the Susquehanna.

Our bishops will share the ministry of the diocese. For this year, Bishop Audrey Scanlon will be the Bishop Diocesan; Bishop Kevin Nichols will be the Assisting Bishop. Bishop Audrey will retire at the end of the year and Bishop Kevin
