Intermediate/Adv. Invite only (Green/Yellow)	Mon/Wed	4:30 - 6:00 PM	$ 215	$ 280

Ages 5-6 Red Ball: Proportionate sized racquets, low compression (red) balls and mini-courts are used in order to introduce kids to the fundamentals of tennis, learning to play real points and having fun in the process. Courts are divided between beginner (I) and those who are able to maintain a rally (II)

Ages 7-8 Orange Ball: Lessons will be taught following the United States Tennis Association 10 and under teaching format, utilizing shorter court dimensions, low compression balls (orange) and proper-sized racquets. Courts are divided between beginners (I) and those able to maintain a rally and serve (II)

Ages 9+ Green Ball: Clinics utilize full sized court, but with developmental balls (Green dot) with emphasis on building fundamental strokes and mechanics. The goal is to advance players to competitive play. Courts are divided between beginners (I) and those able to maintain a rally and consistently serve (II)

Intermediate/Advanced (Requires coach invite or prequalification): This clinic is for year-round players who consistently maintain a rally utilizing full sized tennis court, with standard adult (yellow balls). Emphasis will be on developing and building fundamental tennis skills, strokes, and tactics. This session is geared towards players committed to competitive match play. This session is ability based – not aged based.

What to Bring: Proper athletic shoes, tennis racquet and a water bottle

Covid-19 Update: Please be advised we will follow the United States Tennis Association guidelines for Playing Tennis Safely, as well as guidelines from the CDC and state and local officials.
