

Story

Born in Mexico City, raised in the farmlands of Wisconsin, Dr. Eduardo Peña Dolhun is a family physician in San Francisco who passes the homeless every day on his walk to work. Moved by the social injustice and inhumanity of individuals sleeping on cold concrete every night, he decided to act. This inspirational story told by breathtaking photographs and intimate interviews of his unhoused neighbors is a global call to action.

Team

FOG is directed by DreamWorks' Michael Pedraza and written by James Mihaley. It includes original music by Bob Weir, co-founder of the Grateful Dead, Joe Satriani, 15-time Grammy Award nominee, and Kevin De León. Sound editing was performed by Skywalker Sound's Academy Award nominated Dennis Leonard.

Eduardo Peña Dolhun, M.D., Executive Producer

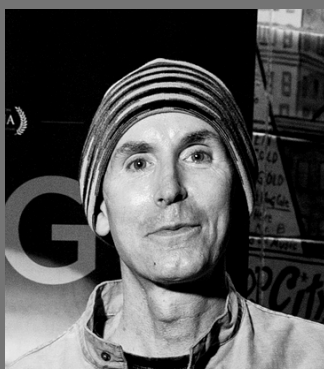

Dr. Dolhun is a Mayo Clinic educated and trained Family Physician. He is the inventor of DripDrop, a medical-grade oral rehydration solution. He founded the Dolhun Clinic, the Dolhun Clinic Pre-Medical Internship Program, and Doctors Outreach, a 501(c)(3) medical not-for-profit. He was co-director of Ethnicity and Medicine at Stanford University from 2000-2018. Dr. Dolhun is Adjunct Professor at the College of Health Sciences at Marquette University. He is the recipient of the 2017 Mayo Clinic Alumni Association Humanitarian Award.

Michael Pedraza, Director

Michael boasts a two-decade-long career in the entertainment industry that includes collaborative works with Academy-Award-Winning Picture editors Michael Kahn and Steven Spielberg. As a diverse filmmaker and editor, he has created a vibrant palette working on commercials, trailers, short and feature length films of all genres: comedy, drama, horror, action, sci-fi, and documentaries with one goal in mind: tell a great story.

James Mihaley, Writer

James Mihaley is a multi-platform artist who tells inspiring stories. He is the author of 'You Can't Have My Planet But Take My Brother, Please', an award winning eco-novel published by Macmillan. Raised in rural America, he was recently commissioned to write 'Diamonds From The Rough', a book about a legendary boatyard in a small Wisconsin town. As someone who believes in the power of film, he is dedicated to making high caliber movies for children and adults. James currently lives in Venice, California.

Facing Homelessness Together

Dr. Dolhun captured the faces and stories of over 125 unsheltered individuals living on the streets of San Francisco.

Thirty-one larger-than-life photographs were on public display in San Francisco from December 2021 to February 2022.

News Coverage

ABC 7 News

NBC Bay Area

SF Chronicle

KTVU