

Letters to my brothers

In my heart
Is a freedom
That cannot be limited by anything limited

And when I look at you
From here
I sometimes have a hard time
Keeping quiet about
How lovely you are.

A light shines on everything
And it shows me a picture of you
Healed and so happy.

It hugs you
But it feels like you
Are hugging me
And holding out to me ultimate freedom
Cost-free, simply because I deserve it.

How perfectly you love me!
Even if
You don't know it yet.

I don't need eyes to see you
Or the world,
I only need the light
To reveal to me the truth
That we are free.

The truth is silent
It hangs quietly in forever
Infinitely patient
Waiting for you to stop
And notice your Self.

You are forever,
See your freedom
Then put it in your heart
And see if you can hold yourself back from Dancing.
