1944 Seabees land on Kwajalein

December 7th 1941

It was the beginning of WW II. If you visit the Islands this is a must see. Inspirational and emotional experience. Be prepared to stand in lines as it is one of the most popular sites on the Island. Try it .....you'll like it

July 10 1943: The Seabees introduced their secret weapon on the beaches of Sicily: the famed magic boxes, steel pontoon sections which revolutionized the strategy of amphibious warfare. The German and Italian defenders were dug in along the northern coastline of Sicily where the best beaches were located. There was only one thing wrong with the German strategy. They had not heard of the new development for joining pontoons to form invasion causeways. Capt. John N. Laycock, CEC, developed a method to join pontoons together by angle iron and bolting pads so that a string of these connected pontoons became a solid structure of cantilevered integrity. On July 10, 1943 the Allied armada appeared off the southern coast between Scoglitti and Licata, and sent infantry ashore across long strings of steel pontoons. Other pontoon structures constructed by the Seabees included the rhino ferry and the landing tug. Each was made by simply putting together a couple dozen pontoons and an outboard motor. These pontoons were also used in the south Pacific, used as docks. When CBD 1802 arrived on Okinawa in 1951 they appeared on the beach at Buckner bay. The 1951 Typhoon Ruth put them on the beach.

From the Archives – from the Gulf Port Courier

Invasion forces landed on Guam. July 21, 1944. The main objective was to take possession of Apra Harbor, with the surrounding development area and airfield on Crote Peninsula. Landing forces struck north and south of the harbor. Seabees participated in the assaults: the 25t and 2nd Special NCBS on the beaches north of the harbor, and the 53rd and 13th Special NCBS, and CBMU 515on the southern beaches for three weeks, combat and construction continues until finally, on Aug.10th, Japanese resistance ended. Since considerable development had been planned for Guam, the 5thNCB was established. The Brigade assumed control of the construction and development of base facilities for both the Army and Navy. Guam became a great Army air base, as well as the principal naval base in the Western Pacific. The 103rd NCB arrived on Jan. 12th, 1945 under the Command of CDR Benjamin W. Harig CEC, USNR; under the 40th Naval Regiment, 5th Brigade. The 103rd was completing construction of Northwest Field, the base from which B-29 bombers rose, and NAS West Fields No.3 and the primary building for a 25,000 man camp for the Marines.
