Shruti Ram

September 14, 2025
Sunday at 5pm

Bharathanatyam is a transformational art uplifting the mind, body, and spirit. It is the language of intricate movements and expressions conveying infinite meanings. A soulful medium of self expression, an ode to grace, love and beauty, a limitless treasure trove of human emotions, and an ultimate act of surrender to the Divine. It, both to the performer and the audience, highlights and encapsulates the wondrous facets of life and the discovery of its truest meanings.

Shree & Ram

Natya Srishti School of Dance

Shree Lakshmanan, a dedicated artist and disciple of Dr. Kalarani Ramachandran, founded Natya Srishti School of Dance in Plano, TX to train students in the traditional Pandanallur style of Bharathanatyam. She and her students have performed across the globe at events such as the Cleveland Thyagaraja Festival, FETNA, and World Tamil Diaspora Day.

Shree has choreographed acclaimed productions and integrates Bharatanatyam into education, film, TV, and music, and actively promotes arts through nonprofits, earning the Presidential Volunteer Service Award.

A lifelong learner, Shree is also trained in Carnatic music and pursues Mohiniattam under Guru Dr. Nirmala Paniker. She holds a Master's in Applied Economics and Finance from UT Dallas and lives in Dallas with her husband and two daughters, where her love for art, culture, and community continues to thrive.
