

Your Ceremony, Your Way

Your ceremony shouldn't feel like a script someone else wrote. It should feel like you.

The way you look at each other.

The way your friends describe you.

The quiet in-between moments that only you share.

This isn't about ticking boxes. It's about creating a moment that feels natural, joyful and completely yours.

The following ceremonies are simply starting points.

Everything can be shaped around your vision.

Big or small, Elegant or a little bit wild, Traditional, modern, or beautifully unconventional.

If you've got the love, I'll take care of the moment.

What Makes My Approach Different

I don't work from a template. Every ceremony is written specifically for you, not adjusted from a standard script.

I invest time in getting to know your story, your personalities, your family relationships, and the overall tone you envision because those details are what turn a ceremony from standard to deeply personal. The result is a ceremony that feels natural, meaningful and unmistakably yours.

Warmly,

Andi

The “Simple & Elegant” moment

Simple. Meaningful. Official

Investment: $550

For couples who want to be married simply and sincerely, without the big production.

Imagine standing somewhere meaningful...

No pressure. No performance.

Just the two of you (and maybe a handful of your favourite humans) making it official.

This option is perfect if you’re drawn to something short, relaxed and beautifully intentional. A ceremony that feels calm and heartfelt without unnecessary fuss.

From the moment we connect, I guide you through everything you need to know. I prepare all of your legal documentation, ensure every requirement is met correctly, and lodge everything on your behalf so your marriage is officially registered with Births, Deaths & Marriages. I manage every legal requirement from start to finish so everything is handled correctly and efficiently.

We’ll have an initial meeting so you feel confident and clear about the process, and I remain available to answer questions along the way. On the day itself, I deliver a warm, fuss-free legal ceremony, with the option to include a simple ring exchange if that feels right for you.

You focus on each other.

I’ll handle the rest.

This moment is available
for weekday ceremonies (excluding public holidays).

Travel within 40km of the Surf Coast is included (outside this radius, a travel fee applies)

It is best suited to intimate gatherings of around 10–12 guests or fewer.

The “Just Right” moment

Relaxed. Personal. Beautifully Balanced.

Investment: $780

This is where your story begins to shine. A ceremony that feels warm, engaging and personal, without ever feeling over the top.

Imagine your guests smiling, laughing softly, maybe even tearing up... because they recognise you in every word. It doesn't feel scripted. It doesn't feel formal for the sake of it. It feels natural. It feels like you.

This option is perfect for couples who want something meaningful and story-driven, but still relaxed and beautifully balanced.

From our first planning meeting, we shape your ceremony together. I take the time to understand how you met, what matters most to you, and the little details that make your relationship yours. Your love story is then thoughtfully woven throughout the ceremony so it feels authentic, heartfelt and engaging.

I guide you through your legal vows and support you if you'd like to include personal promises or special elements. If you'd like help refining your vows, I'm there for that too.

Behind the scenes, I manage every legal requirement, preparing and lodging all documentation and ensuring your marriage is officially registered with Births, Deaths & Marriages. You won't need to worry about paperwork or timelines.

To ensure everything flows smoothly, I provide rehearsal guidance so everyone knows their role and feels comfortable on the day. I also supply a professional PA system so every word, including your vows are heard clearly by your guests.

The result? A ceremony that feels authentic, engaging and deeply personal. One your guests will remember.

This moment is available
within 60km of the Surf Coast
(outside this radius, a travel fee applies)
and ideal for weddings of around approx. 50 -80 guests.

A “Grand Affair” moment

Heartfelt. Seamless. Unforgettable

Investment: $980

For couples who want their ceremony to be the emotional highlight of the day.

This is more than a formality.
It's the moment everything slows down.
The moment your story is honoured properly.

Deeply personal. Story-driven. Beautifully crafted from beginning to end.

Your guests won't feel like they're watching a ceremony. They'll feel like they're part of something meaningful being drawn in, connected and present.

This experience is perfect for couples who want their full love story told with depth and care. Couples who value emotional connection. Couples who want to feel completely supported, guided and calm in the lead-up and on the day itself.

From our first meeting, we dive deeper. I take the time to truly understand your journey, all the layers, the laughter, the resilience, the moments that shaped you. Your story is then carefully written and woven throughout the ceremony in a way that feels natural, engaging and unmistakably yours.

If you choose to write personal vows, I guide you through the process with structure and support (and provide vow booklets for the day). If you'd like to include a meaningful ritual — handfasting, wine ceremony, unity candle, sand blending or something entirely your own. We can shape it so it feels authentic, not staged.

We meet multiple times as needed, and I remain available throughout your planning. Before the big day, we hold a full rehearsal so everyone feels confident and clear. On the day itself, I coordinate with your bridal party and vendors to ensure everything flows seamlessly and feels calm.

Behind the scenes, every legal detail is handled with care. I prepare and lodge all documentation correctly and ensure your marriage is officially registered with Births, Deaths & Marriages. You won't need to think about the paperwork. I have it covered.

A professional PA system ensures your guests hear every word clearly, whether you're surrounded by 60 guests or more.

This experience is ideal for medium to large weddings where you want the ceremony to feel substantial, intentional and unforgettable.

This is for couples who want their ceremony to feel completely, unmistakably them.

*This moment is available
within 80km of the Surf Coast
outside this radius, a travel fee applies and ideal for weddings of 60 -150 or more guests.*

WHO I'M PERFECT FOR

I'm the right celebrant for you if:

- You want relaxed over rigid
- You value connection over tradition (unless you love tradition!)
- You want your guests engaged — not checking their watches
- You care about how it feels, not just how it looks
- You want someone calm, warm and organised guiding you

If that sounds like you... Let's connect.
