HOTEL TRAVEL AWARDS

INSPECT THE UNEXPECTED

The Hotel Travel Awards is a global leader in the hospitality sector, we recognise and reward hotels that deliver exceptional levels of service and world class facilities to its guests.

Achieving the highest possible levels of service and facilities is now imperative in the hotel guest experience, we highlight and reward hotels that offer this award winning level of service to its guests. Winning a Hotel Travel Award will inspire the confidence of guests and retain your loyal clientele, while stimulating the growth and development of your hotel.

The registration fee per individual Hotel amounts to £550 GBP (exc VAT) per hotel which is a one-off annual fee covering entry to the awards. This fee also covers all marketing & promotion before and during the Awards.

We provide all of our participating hotel partners the option to obtain a detailed professional consultation report carried out by our world class inspectors throughout their stay/inspection. This will cover all aspects of the inspectors stay including comments, experience report and scores for each aspect of the stay and suggestions on how to improve service, facilities and the overall guest experience for future guests.

In order for our inspectors to inspect, score, rank and experience the facilities in your hotel for the purpose of entry into all our relevant awards categories we require that your hotel offers a complimentary stay on a Half-Board basis (Breakfast & Dinner/Drinks) for a period of 3 nights for two people (or 2 adults and 2 children when entering a family award categories).
