

ExxonMobil Community Summer Jobs Program

SOCIAL ENTERPRISE SPECIALIST
SALARY: $2750

Since 1971, The Women's Home has owned and operated a hip resale boutique, called The Cottage Shop, in Lower Montrose. It is a vital work-force training site for the women participating in our treatment and transitional housing program. The store functions as a social enterprise earning income ($690,000+ annually) that reduces The Home's reliance on traditional funding sources.

As a key player on the Cottage Shop team, the Social Enterprise Specialist will get a firsthand introduction into the strategies and partnerships that make a social enterprise and a non-profit highly successful. During the eight week internship, the intern will gain experience in the areas of non-profit fundraising, marketing and fashion retail management by rotating through a series of learning experiences.
