Words and Music
by Fred Blumenthal

The first system of musical notation consists of three staves. The top staff is a single treble clef staff with a common time signature (C) and a key signature of three flats (B-flat, E-flat, A-flat). It contains four measures of whole rests. The middle staff is a grand staff (treble and bass clefs) with a common time signature and a key signature of three flats. It contains four measures of music. The first measure has a whole rest in the treble clef and a whole note in the bass clef. The second measure has a whole rest in the treble clef and a half note in the bass clef. The third and fourth measures have a whole note in the treble clef and a half note in the bass clef. The bottom staff is a single bass clef staff with a common time signature and a key signature of three flats, containing four measures of whole rests.

The second system of musical notation consists of three staves. The top staff is a single treble clef staff with a common time signature and a key signature of three flats. It contains four measures of music. The first measure has a whole rest. The second measure has a quarter note. The third and fourth measures have eighth notes. The lyrics "He does what he says 'cause he says what he thinks 'cause he" are written below the staff. The middle staff is a grand staff (treble and bass clefs) with a common time signature and a key signature of three flats. It contains four measures of music. The first measure has a whole note in the treble clef and a whole note in the bass clef. The second measure has a half note in the treble clef and a half note in the bass clef. The third and fourth measures have a half note in the treble clef and a half note in the bass clef. The bottom staff is a single bass clef staff with a common time signature and a key signature of three flats, containing four measures of music. The first measure has a whole rest. The second measure has a whole note. The third and fourth measures have a whole rest.
