

Blue Angel Connect Co.
Meeting Minutes
December 10th, 2020
Online

In attendance: Kim Burris, Brent Burris, Jeffrey Boxberger, LeaEtta Hyer, Naomi Parfait

Called the meeting to order at 7:04 pm

- Due to the Hancock County red-zone, events are now restricted to 25 people
 - Health department was not able to grant an exception to the rule
- Holiday Hope 2020 is now going to be a drive-thru event
 - Santa can come if he has a face mask or face shield
 - Can pass out food for the lunch if he is wearing gloves
 - Ham dinner is being provided by Smokehouse Catering for the families to make a complete Christmas dinner.
 - One ham
 - Brown sugar glaze
 - Glazed carrots
 - Green beans
 - Mashed potatoes
 - Corn casserole
 - Cranberry salad
 - Rolls and butter
 - Pumpkin pie
 - 2 pounds of assorted Christmas cookies
 - All serving utensils
 - Gifts will be inside on tables with family's name
- Event may look better since we are still making the event happen and 9 families will be helped
- Greenfield Reporter will come out on the day of event and they will run a story
- Sarah Jones from WTHR will be covering the event too with LIVE morning feed coverage.
- Mr. and Mrs. Claus are planning on still being at the event
- LeaEtta is contacting 3 families to explain the change
- Naomi is contacting 5 of the families
- Jeffrey is contacting the last family
- Home Depot in Southport donated 9 different socket gift sets for the fathers
- Brent is working to get some toys from his neighborhood for the younger children
- Families will enter the community center entrance and exit by the doors
 - We will give more direction when families get to the event
- Kim will take pictures of the event and families will have a memory book made for a keepsake

Brent called the meeting adjourned at 7:30 pm