

Left: Clover cover crop in wheat. Clover will help to replenish soil nitrogen content and helps discourage the germination of weeds.

Above: Grass cover crop between planting rows. This type of cover can help decrease weeds and provide habitat for beneficial insects (free pest control!)