DAY 1 — SATURDAY, JUNE 20, 2026 - HOME TO TERRACE

This morning, fly to Terrace, BC, where you'll immerse yourself in the rich local culture. Explore the Kitselas First Nations heritage as you visit the unique First Nations village on the Skeena River, home to historical remnants of 19th-century houses and totem poles. Discover ancient petroglyphs, culturally modified trees, and archaeological remains, all set within a stunning natural landscape. This evening, savor dinner with your travel companions and Tour Director.

Today's dinner is included

DAY 2 — SUNDAY, JUNE 21, 2026 - TERRACE

Today we travel north through Tsimshian Territory along the Kitsumkalum River towards the Nass Valley. You will see the results of a 250-year-old volcanic eruption and lava flow dominating the landscape that is central to the unique lives and culture of the Nisga'a people. Hear about the dramatic event that consumed thousands of Nisga'a citizens and forced them to relocate their villages to present day locations. Your knowledgeable guide will enlighten you on the cultural importance of the Nisga'a Memorial Lava Bed Park and the Nisga'a treaty, the first modern-day treaty in BC. There's always a chance to encounter wildlife and even the elusive Kermode Bear!

Today's breakfast and lunch are included

DAY 3 — MONDAY, JUNE 22, 2026 - TERRACE TO PRINCE RUPERT

After breakfast, embark on a scenic drive that winds alongside the picturesque Skeena River, making your way from Terrace to the port city of Prince Rupert. Stop at the North Pacific Cannery, the longest-running cannery in British Columbia's history. Established in 1891, this historic site once accounted for over a quarter of the province's total salmon pack and was the leading producer of sockeye salmon globally. After a tour of the Cannery and a satisfying lunch, continue to Prince Rupert where you can enjoy a relaxing evening at your own pace.

Today's breakfast and lunch are included

DAY 4 — TUESDAY, JUNE 23, 2026 - PRINCE RUPERT

Today in a spirit of adventure we take a boat for a close encounter with Grizzlies in the wild. The Khutzeymateen Grizzly Bear Sanctuary is home to North America's highest concentrations of these magnificent animals. The stunning scenery as you sail up the coast to Khutzeymateen is just a bonus. Look out for humpback whales, seals, the Northern Resident Orcas and what ever nature chooses to surprise you with all from the comfort of a fully covered heated boat.

Today's breakfast and lunch are included

DAY 5 — WEDNESDAY, JUNE 24, 2026 - PRINCE RUPERT — "THE SKEENA" — PRINCE GEORGE

Embark on a breathtaking two-day journey aboard the historic Skeena train. Departing from Prince Rupert at the mouth of the Skeena River, the train meanders through the untamed wilderness to Jasper National Park. As you traverse the route, marvel at rivers brimming with salmon, serene lakes, sprawling farmlands, and abandoned villages, all set against a backdrop reminiscent of classic western films. Relax in the comfort of your seat and take in the stunning scenery. Upon arrival in Prince George, enjoy a short transfer to your hotel where you can refresh and rest overnight before resuming your rail adventure the following day.

Today's breakfast and lunch are included

DAY 6 — THURSDAY, JUNE 25, 2026 —
PRINCE GEORGE TO JASPER “THE SKEENA”

As you board your waiting carriage to continue your rail journey, keep your binoculars and camera handy to capture the visually stunning ever-changing landscape. The train cuts through the Rockies and you will have great views of Mount Robson and Kathlyn Glacier. On arrival Jasper, stay in the heart of this charming mountain town in the wilderness of Jasper National Park, a UNESCO World Heritage site.

Today's breakfast and lunch are included

DAY 7 — FRIDAY, JUNE 26, 2026 -
JASPER

After breakfast we travel by coach along the spectacular Icefields Parkway. Stop at the Columbia Ice Fields, the largest in the Rocky Mountains, for an unforgettable experience. Travel in the comfort of a snow coach to the ancient Athabasca Glacier and walk on ice that is as thick as the Eiffel tower is high. From ice fields we return to Jasper for a sky-high experience. The Jasper SkyTram whisks you up Whistlers Mountain to an elevation of 2,263 metres. With clouds beneath your feet, enjoy the magnificent views from the top. Tonight, join your newfound friends for a delicious farewell dinner.

Today's breakfast and dinner are included

DAY 8 — SATURDAY, JUNE 27,
2026 - JASPER- (EDMONTON) TO HOME

This morning after breakfast we drive to Edmonton airport for your flight home with wonderful memories of your Skeena Adventure. Upon your return a transfer will be waiting to bring you back home with a lifetime of memories!
