Day 2 – Monday, March 30, 2020 – Las Vegas, NV
After breakfast, take a leisurely walk along the strip and visit some cities within a city. Ascend the Eiffel Tower, a half-scale replica of the famed France landmark. From 46 stories above, you will be treated to spectacular views of the city below. This afternoon, you will discover that Las Vegas is more than glamorous casinos as you go on a scenic drive through Red Rock Park known for its towering red sandstone peaks and panoramic views. Return to your hotel to spend the evening your way with the city’s diverse mix of attractions. Perhaps you will go to New York to listen to music on the Brooklyn Bridge or gather around duelling pianos.
Breakfast is included.

Day 3 – Tuesday, March 31, 2020 – Las Vegas – Peach Springs, AZ
This morning we leave behind the glitter and glamour and venture into natural and historical wonders as we visit Hoover dam, located in the Black Canyon of the Colorado River on the border between Nevada and Arizona. Take a relaxing cruise on the clear blue waters of Lake Mead, America’s largest reservoir and beautiful man-made lake onboard the famed paddle wheeler the Desert Princess. This afternoon we traverse on a preserved portion of the Main Street of America – Route 66. From Chicago to the West Coast, the Mother Road crossed eight US states and was one of the original routes of the US highway system. Stopping at the Mohave Museum of History and Art in Kingman we learn about the heritage of Northwestern Arizona. This evening you will have a memorable experience as you dine 210 feet below the surface of the earth is the largest dry caverns in the United States with its unique geological formations.
Breakfast, lunch and dinner are included.

Upgrade to Luxury Cavern Suite - One of a Kind for Two of a Kind!
Dream big 210 feet below the surface in the third largest, oldest, deepest, quietest luxury suite in the world.
Available for only 2 people on the night of Day 3.
$495 per person double occupancy

Day 4 – Wednesday, April 1, 2020 – Peach Springs – Williams – Sedona
After breakfast, we will go to the last city on Route 66 – Williams is also known as the “Gateway to the Grand Canyon," where you will have a voyage by train from the Grand Canyon Railway station to the edge of the canyon. Enjoy spectacular views from the luxury dome and arrive at the South Rim of the Grand Canyon in time for lunch. After a tour of the Grand Canyon National park, we travel to the resort city of Sedona 4,500 feet above sea level with its red rock formations formed by erosion and evergreen vegetation.
Today’s breakfast and lunch are included.
Day 5 – Thursday, April 2, 2020 – Sedona
This morning is at leisure to enjoy Sedona, or perhaps you will take the opportunity to do something daring – a hot air balloon ride over Red Rock country ($315 CAD per person, limitations apply – please inquire at time of booking.) In the afternoon, we will discover the natural beauty of the Southwestern United States with a visit to Bell Rock and Airport Mesa, with a stop at the Chapel of the Holy Cross built into a tall rock spire and learn about Sedona’s history and fascinating geology. Today’s breakfast and dinner are included.

Day 6 – Friday, April 3, 2020 – Sedona – Phoenix – Tucson
After breakfast, we travel to Phoenix, the capital of Arizona where we visit the Desert Botanical Garden displaying varieties of cactus, agaves and numerous native plants that are in the Sonoran Desert. Next, we enjoy a taste of southwest lunch with a cooking demonstration utilizing some edible plants native to the Sonoran Desert. This afternoon we continue travelling south to the Sonoran Desert city of Tucson, your home for the next two nights. Today’s breakfast and lunch are included.

Day 7 – Saturday, April 4, 2020 – Tucson
Today we visit Kartchner Caverns home to one of the world’s longest soda straw stalactites and the world’s most extensive formation of brushite moonmilk. Return to Tucson and visit the Pima Air & Space Museum featuring over 350 historical aircraft from a Wright Flyer to the modern. It is one of the largest non-government funded aviation and space museums in the world and known for its World War II collection. This evening we have a farewell dinner at a local restaurant to celebrate new friends and share experiences. Today’s breakfast and dinner are included.

Day 8 – Sunday, April 5, 2020 – Tucson to Victoria
This morning we head to Phoenix to catch our afternoon return flights. Arrive home this evening with incredible photos, memories, and stories of the iconic wonders of the Southwest! Today’s breakfast is included.
