Learn about Kitselas First Nations culture and history and see the only First Nations village on the Skeena River with remains of houses and totem poles from the 1800s. View petroglyphs, poles, culturally modified trees and archeological remains in an all-natural setting. This evening enjoy the camaraderie of your travel companions and Tour Director at dinner.

Today's dinner is included

DAY 2 — SUNDAY, JUNE 25, 2023 - TERRACE

Today we travel north through Tsimshian Territory along the Kitsumkalum River towards the Nass Valley. You will see the results of a 250-year-old volcanic eruption and lava flow dominating the landscape that is central to the unique lives and culture of the Nisga'a people. Hear about the dramatic event that consumed thousands of Nisga'a citizens and forced them to relocate their villages to present day locations. Your knowledgeable guide will enlighten you on the cultural importance of the Nisga'a Memorial Lava Bed Park and the Nisga'a treaty, the first modern-day treaty in BC. There's always a chance to encounter wildlife and even the elusive Kermode Bear! Today's breakfast and lunch are included

DAY 3 — MONDAY, JUNE 26, 2023 - TERRACE TO PRINCE RUPERT

After breakfast we take a scenic drive that curves along the Skeena River from Terrace to the port city of Prince Rupert. Visit the longest running cannery in the history of BC, the North Pacific Cannery. In 1891, the company accounted for more than one quarter of British Columbia's total salmon pack and was the foremost packer of sockeye salmon in the world. After lunch and a tour of the Cannery, we will continue to Prince Rupert where you can spend the evening at leisure. Today's breakfast and lunch are included

DAY 4 — TUESDAY, JUNE 27, 2023 - PRINCE RUPERT

Today in a spirit of adventure we take a boat for a close encounter with Grizzlies in the wild. The Khutzeymateen Grizzly Bear Sanctuary is home to North America's highest concentrations of these magnificent animals in a natural environment. The stunning scenery as you sail up the coast to Khutzeymateen is just a bonus. Look out for humpback whales, seals, the Northern Resident Orcas and what ever nature chooses to surprise you with all from the comfort of a fully covered heated boat.

Today's breakfast and lunch are included

DAY 5 — WEDNESDAY, JUNE 28, 2023 - PRINCE RUPERT — "THE SKEENA" — PRINCE GEORGE

Embark on a sublime journey on board a historic train, The Skeena. From Prince Rupert at the mouth of the Skeena River into the wilderness of Jasper National Park, the rails wind through rivers teeming with salmon, lakes, farmlands, abandoned villages and train stations reminiscent of old western movies. Sit back and relax in the comfort of your seat and take it all in. On arrival in Prince George, a short transfer will take you to your hotel to refresh and rest overnight before continuing the rails tomorrow.

Today's breakfast and lunch are included

DAY 6 — THURSDAY, JUNE 29, 2023 — PRINCE GEORGE TO JASPER “THE SKEENA”
