Admire the views from Cape Bonavista Lighthouse, much as John Cabot may have done himself before a stop in the charming and historic village of Trinity. Trinity is one of the oldest and best restored communities on the continent. This afternoon, leave Bonavista and cross Terra Nova National Park with its stunning mix of the rugged northern forest and rocky ocean inlets. Continue to Gander, the one-time home of the world's biggest airport and our home for the next two nights.
