1 to 10 Day Rule Definition

During a 1 to 10-day probationary period, the Client will receive an orientation of the House of Mercy Enterprises Programs. An appropriate Director will meet with and evaluate the Client concerning the programs available. If the Client does not choose to participate in the offered programs, they will be allowed to complete their designated 1 to 10-day probation stay to attain other living arrangements as they continue to abide by house rules. A client may not return until after a period of 30 days to the House of Mercy and reapply for an offered program.

If a 10-day client so chooses he/she may request an extension interview during the 10 days with the appropriate director to apply for an extension. The application will be reviewed and granted or refused based on its merits. This review will consider such criteria as:

- Permanent housing application status
- Disability application status
- Other evidence for forward progress
- Short term medical needs
- Adherence to house rules
