The Amen Corner

Bring a little love in the room. Wherever you go, whatever you do, bring a little love in the room. The world is full of anger, brimming with violence, placing blame, and spreading fear all over. Bring a little love in the room.

What might take place if we all made it our mission to bring a little love in the room? We might become the shoulder to cry on. We might be the person to apply the bandage to a wound. We might be the still calm voice of reassurance that encourages peace. You might be the one who shares a meal or satisfies a hungry belly. You might be the person who pushes the shopping cart back to the stall. You might be the one who spreads a little joy and that joy might become infectious.

I recently found a song by Malvina Reynolds. She writes, "love is something if you give it away, you end up having more."

Maybe if we make it our mission to bring a little more love in every room, we might find that we have more love than we can carry. When we have more love than we can carry, that overload can only bless others.

Take care and be a blessing,

Rev. John Wheeler
