Lisa Ownby for Supervisor

Committed Community Leader

Protecting the future of our area means making good decisions now about how we will grow and provide services to our residents. I'm committed to maintaining the quality of life we deserve.

- ★ PRESERVE the small-town feel of James City County's only remaining rural areas.
- ★ BUILD a new fire station to improve response times and protect our families.
- ★ ADVOCATE for the resources our schools need to provide a world-class education.
- ★ DEVELOP more solar energy to bring down energy costs and preserve our environment.

About Lisa

Lisa Ownby is a longtime James City County resident who will bring a wealth of knowledge to the Board of Supervisors. A passionate advocate for education in our community, she served on the WJCC School Board from 2016 to 2021, including terms as Vice Chair and Chair.

She earned her bachelor's degree from George Mason University and a master's in social work from the University of Maryland, and worked with children with developmental disabilities and their families for over two decades. She currently helps run her small family-owned business, Landtech Resources, a civil engineering and land surveying firm.

Lisa is married and has four children who all attended WJCC public schools.
