TIME TO Dream

This is YOUR day. You get to create the story you will tell, what will it be?! It's time to get inspired and plan the wedding of your dreams. Let your ideas and creativity run wild. Nothing is off-limits. What would you LOVE to do together, what memories or experiences would you love to create? Where is your happy place?

Get some inspiration online and then ask yourself, are many of the inspiration pictures you like taken in a specific location? What does the weather look like? What is the couple doing? W

WHERE TO GET INSPIRATION

Places like Instagram, Pinterest, TikTok, movies, wedding blogs, travel blogs, and even google maps are great places to get inspiration for your elopement.

Simply type in the word "elopement" or "adventure elopement" to get a ton of inspiration for your own celebration.

A LIST OF QUESTIONS TO HELP SPARK IDEAS:

Picture the wedding, you can close your eyes to help the creativity.

- What is your intention for the day? What do you value most?
- Why an elopement over a big wedding?
- What scenery comes to mind when you picture exchanging vows with your lover? What does the environment feel like?
- What story do you want to tell when people ask "What did you do on your wedding day?"
- What do you both love and what would make your heart happy?

COMMON

Questions

SHOULD I INVITE FRIENDS AND FAMILY?

It's your choice! This is YOUR day! An elopement gives you the freedom to invite whoever you want, as long as the focus of the day is about the two of you and your relationship. Beach permits allow for a maximum of 30 guests (including the 2 of you and all your vendors), so typically 25 guests or less is perfect. For a wedding with more guests you would need to look into reserving a private venue.

WHEN SHOULD I START PLANNING?

3-7 months is the standard amount of time needed to plan an elopement, though we have planned elopements as far as 1 year out and as soon as 1 week out!

HOW MUCH DOES IT COST?

The average elopement costs around $10,000, less than half of what a traditional wedding costs ($33,000+), though this number can be higher or lower depending on how you plan, the activities you choose, and what vendors you go with. We like to spread our aloha here so we offer all inclusive Elopement Experiences for all budgets starting from $3495 so you can experience more for less.

FIND THE Perfect location

SCENERY & WEATHER

Do you want mountains, forest, beach, tropical, cliff sides? Do you want to hike, do you want it easily accessible? Do you want the sand between your toes with a cool ocean breeze, waves crashing on the shore as you share your love for another? Do you prefer hiking boots and the cool mountain air overlooking a beautiful canyon or valley view? You want to get married on a boat, sailing beside the Napali Coast?

EXPERIENCE & ACTIVITIES

Think about what kind of activities (or not) that you want to include. Will you play with your lover in the ocean waves? Dream by the fire. while roasting marshmallows? Adventure under the stars with lanterns? Go kayaking, paddle boarding or on a boat ride? This will help narrow down a location, or at least the side of the island you would like to stay on that will allow easy and quick access to your activity.

MEANING

Consider the places that feel like home to both of you. How did you meet? Locations can bring in some beautiful meaning to your special day.

ACCESSIBILITY & VENDORS

Another important detail to consider is how easy it is to get to the location and what options of vendors are available during that time of day. For example, it may be a bit more challenging to find Hair & Makeup artists available for sunrise sessions.

If you want to include family, friends and other guests, think about how easy or difficult it will be for them to get there.

Who are you inviting?

WHO IS PRESENT ON YOUR PERFECT DAY?

One of the biggest questions during the planning stage is deciding who to invite. All beach permits cover a maximum of 30 people. This includes guests, couple, and vendors. Most weddings have 1-3 vendors so 25 guests is a safe number to plan for.

You should invite only those you truly want to be there. The ones who will add love to your experience. We know destination weddings can be a lot and sometimes hard to get to. So here are some special ways you can plan to include your friends and family to still feel their love and spirit with you on your special day!

WAYS TO INCLUDE FRIENDS & FAMILY:

- Have a friend or family member officiate the ceremony
- Invite them for the ceremony & you can adventure later
- Zoom or FaceTime the ceremony (your welcome also to video your ceremony)
- Have them help you get ready
- Have a two-day elopement
- Plan a small reception after your elopement
- Include mementos or a family heirloom on your day
- Shop for wedding attire together
- Make a video toast to send to them
- Have them write letters you can read the day of
- Zoom or livestream the ceremony
- Invite them to be part of the planning process
- Bring home souvenirs
- Celebrate with a dinner
- Allow them to plan a celebration reception where you can show a photo slideshow when you come back

THE POSSIBILITIES ARE ENDLESS!

In addition to all these locations there are also State park trails, other hiking trails, many other beaches, privately owned cliff side and waterfall venues.

If there is a special place you have in your heart, or a dream backdrop you want to make a reality, we would be happy to guide you in the right direction, and communicate any permit or legal requirements to make it come to life. This is YOUR day and we love to help make it as YOU as possible. :)

A romantic couple is captured in a tender moment on a beach at sunset. The man, wearing a white short-sleeved shirt and khaki pants, is leaning towards the woman, who is wearing a white strapless wedding dress. They are kissing and embracing. The background features a dramatic coastline with a large, dark rock formation on the left and the ocean with white-capped waves on the right. The sky is a soft, warm orange and yellow. In the foreground, on the sandy beach, there is a small bouquet of red and white roses. The title 'The Details' is written in a large, elegant, white cursive font across the upper middle of the image.

The Details

Once your location is set, it's time to figure out the details & create an elopement that is perfectly unique to you.

MAKING IT LEGAL

You will need to apply for a marriage license online, and upon arriving on island you will need to make an appointment with a licensing agent to pick your physical license up to take with you to your ceremony.

In general, you can always visit to your local courthouse either before or after the elopement to officially do the paperwork. This makes the rest of the planning process easier. However, working with us, it is just as simple as we are both licensed officiants in the state of Hawaii, so anywhere you want to legally get married, we can make it happen!

Location Permits and Fees: Any PUBLIC beach require a permit. You will need a legal business to attain this permit, photography, officiant, etc. We will take care of the permits and this fee is included in all packages, as long as they are legally listed. If you choose a State or National park, additional license fees will apply and a minimum of 3 weeks is needed in advance to submit application.

ACCOMMODATIONS

We recommend choosing this based on your location of your event to minimize driving time. If you are choosing a Sunrise celebration, we recommend finding a spot nearby your location. For Sunset celebrations we recommend you choose a dinner spot nearby and keep in mind the driving time that will be involved AFTER your ceremony. A great thing to do as well is to pick somewhere that can be multi-purpose! As a wet weather alternative, a place to take photos in the morning or somewhere you can celebrate with family after the event are all great factors to keep in mind.

If you are wanting to do getting ready photos look for somewhere spacious, aesthetically unique, and most importantly, that has a ton of natural light for pictures. The more beautiful it is, the more we have to work with for photos!

HIRING

Vendors

While it's definitely not required to hire vendors for your elopement, professionals can make it a LOT easier & bring your vision to life.

The beautiful thing about choosing to work with us is we include ALL of these, so you don't have to worry or stress about communicating, ordering, picking things up, finding the right people, etc. We work with these vendors to ensure a smooth and easy process for you.

FLORIST

Included in our packages are all the florals you need. From fresh colorful, tropical flower bouquets, to locally sourced flower leis, to ceremony set up petals and florals, to haiku leis (Flower crowns). We help you choose/ create your perfect flower combinations, order, pickup, and deliver them stright to you. :)

HAIR & MAKEUP ARTISTS

We provide you with a list of Kauai's experienced, recommended professionals for you to choose from. These services are included in some of our packages already, so be sure to select the packages that include the things YOU desire to make it as easy as possible

OFFICIANT

Included in ALL of our packages is a licensed officiant. You have the choice of a religious, non-religious, spiritual, or hawaiian ceremony format with the opportunity to add and change anything you want. Your ceremony is completely customizable, just as it should be! ;)

PICNIC OR DESERT!

If you're headed somewhere REALLY remote, and want to make things more seamless, consider hiring someone to make you a delicious lunch, charcuterie or delicious dessert to celebrate after everything is finished! Again, some of our packages already include this for ease and flow! :)

What to Wear

When looking for wedding attire, try keeping an open mind. You can keep it traditional or totally break the mold - Keep in mind your location, time of year, weather, and planned activities. Make sure you are comfortable, can move easily & feel confident.

Here are our top tips for choosing great attire!

CHOOSING THE PERFECT DRESS

Depending on your location, you might want a lightweight style that fits in a backpack for a hike or a two piece wedding style swimsuit with a veil. There are no rules! Something flowy looks amazing for beach side or hiking celebrations. Stretchy is helpful as well. Make sure you can move comfortably and you don't have to worry about sleeves dropping, or bras showing. Test it out with some dance moves, make sure you can sit comfortably and walk with no problem.

Opt for something lighter, with a bit of a smaller train if you'll be walking around a lot. Most importantly, choose something you feel confident & absolutely beautiful in.

CHOOSING THE PERFECT SUIT

If it's cooler at your elopement location, purchase a suit with a heavier fabric like wool or tweed. If it's warmer, something lighter or even a long sleeve collared shirt works well.

Try to match color to the location. In general, lighter colors stand out and work better for most outdoor locations.

Don't be afraid to think outside the box. Think about adding fun accessories like cufflinks, suspenders, bowties, etc. to add more dimension to your outfit. The details make a big difference and allow it to feel and be that much more special.

Elopement Timelines

SAMPLE TIMELINES TO PLAN YOUR DAY

Budgeting enough time for your day is so key to a stress free and memorable day.

You want to create enough space for travel, photos, activities, etc. so you can spend more time enjoying each other and savoring each and every moment.

When in doubt, always plan for more time. ;)

Below are some timeline examples to help you plan your own timeline.

SUNRISE OR SUNSET?

Sunrise and sunset are the two best times of the day for pictures. This is because at this time of day, the light is soft and even, also known as the coveted GOLDEN HOUR. We try to avoid midday ceremonies or portrait sessions, as it causes harsh lighting and shadows that are typically unflattering.

WHY SUNRISE?

If you're an early riser, this might be the way to go! It's more secluded, private and quiet, especially for beach sessions. It's cooler, plus you have the rest of the day to celebrate together as a married couple. Sunrise elopements allow you to take your time throughout the day and also gives you time to rest if you need it. Hair and makeup is still available but may be limited or early morning fees may apply.

WHY SUNSET

If you're not an earlier riser and don't mind having people around on the beach, sunset elopements are the way to go. You can take your time waking up and enjoying the morning/ day. Hair and makeup artists are more available. The colors are typically bolder and it is typically sunnier and warmer.

The
Big day

How to prepare

MAKE A LIST OF WHAT TO PACK

My advice is to always start packing sooner than you think, as it will make your overall experience that much smoother.

Below are some items you should make sure you don't forget:

CHECKLIST

- Marriage license
- Travel docs (ID, Passport etc)
- Rings
- Vow books
- Bug spray
- Sunscreen
- Snacks
- Water bottle
- Shoes w/ good tread if your hiking
- Extra clothes to change into
- Towels and shower stuff if you are getting in the water
- Plastic bag for wet clothes

GETTING READY

One of the most underrated parts of an elopement is the getting ready portion. During this time, the excitement is high and everything starts feeling real!

This portion of the day really sets the scene for the rest of your elopement. Not only does it help me document your entire story, but it also helps you get comfortable in front of the camera.

During this time, I usually capture all the details, as well as you both getting into your wedding attire, hair and makeup, and more.

Below are some of the things I tend to photograph during this time and some other suggestions of what you can bring to have ready when I arrive.

ITEMS TO HAVE READY:

- Wedding attire
- Rings
- Vow books
- Any family heirlooms
- Shoes
- Invitations
- Gifts
- Jewelry

FIRST LOOK

A first look is the moment where you two see each other for the first time, and can happen anywhere you choose; at the getting ready location, the trailhead, during the ceremony, etc.

Some couples choose to have one, and others don't. It's truly up to you and your partner. What will make the day feel like you?

PLANNING YOUR CEREMONY

Before having your ceremony, you can choose to be legally married, have a symbolic ceremony, or not get legally married at all. It's completely up to you. It's especially important to decide this ahead of time, as getting all the legal documents in different countries can be a much longer & tedious process.

When it comes to what to do for the ceremony, there are many different traditions. Here are a few to spark some ideas:

- Read personal vows
- Exchange rings
- Have a unity ceremony (light a candle, make a PB&J, plant a tree together or something unique!)
- Read letters from family & friends
- First kiss and dance
- Cut a cake together
- Pop & spray champagne

TIME TO Celebrate!

POST-CEREMONY CELEBRATION

Having a meal or party after your ceremony can be a fun way to celebrate the day.

Some couples choose to do something a bit more luxurious and hire a private chef, and some couples are super casual and will order a pizza on the beach. You can think about having a private celebration, or including your guests as well.

Pro tip: This is a great moment for me to document if you love candid images!

YOU'RE READY TO ELOPE!

When the big day finally comes, remember to take it all in & soak in every moment. Embrace what comes with open arms. Slow down, and have the best freaking day of your life!

DAY AFTER SESSIONS

Day after sessions are a fun option to celebrate & hit hard to get to locations or activities you couldn't do on the elopement day. Many couples choose to go with a casual shoot style, boudoir style, or do a more creative "trash the dress" session, which is exactly what it sounds like. This could include going on a muddy hike, jumping into the ocean, or turning it into an art project.

You can also opt for a shorter elopement day and use the additional time the next day or for sunset for any of the above shoots as well. :)

EDITING + SNEAK PEAKS

You eloped! Now, it's time for us to go through your images and create the perfect elopement gallery, just for the two of you.

After shooting your elopement, I'll deliver a "sneak peek" gallery (around 3-5 images) within 48 hours because I know it's hard to wait to see how they turned out, and you can have something to send to family and friends straight away.

The remaining images will be delivered within 4-6 weeks through an online gallery link where you can download all the high-resolution files and print directly from the lab

Photo albums and prints are a great way to display your images. Plus, it's a great way to share the experience with anyone who wasn't able to attend!

- Big canvas prints you can display on the walls
- Cute "We Eloped" announcements

A romantic couple is shown in a close embrace, smiling and looking at each other. They are outdoors, and it is raining, with water droplets visible in the air and on their hair and clothing. The man has a beard and is wearing a white shirt and a dark tie. The woman has long dark hair and is wearing a light-colored top. The background is a soft-focus outdoor setting with greenery and trees.

We look forward to
