FOR REFLECTION

Jeremiah 1:5
Ephesians 2:10
Esther 4:14

Book of Heaven,
Volume 1

Arise, David. Your time has come.

“For the Lord sees not as man sees: man looks on the outward appearance, but the Lord looks on the heart.”
1 Samuel 16:7

“In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was with God in the beginning. Through Him all things were made; without Him nothing was made that has been made. In Him was life, and that life was the light of all mankind. The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it.” (John 1:1-5)

As we continue to live out the newness of life that Jesus has given us through the Supreme gift of the Divine Will, we continue to be in awe of the healing, grace, deliverance and freedom that He so lovingly continues to pour out over us. Since joining forces on August 5, 2025 for the 9-day, 24/7 online prayer furnace, and in every Fiat since, we continue to see the light of the Kingdom of Heaven grow ever brighter in our souls. A light that burns away our carnal desires, disordered passions, and all of the poisonous, filthy rags of the human will.

In everything, we are being transformed by His Will, transfigured by His love and are exceedingly amazed by His unending providence and goodness. Our lives have turned into nothing short of an adventure, where we find ourselves surprised by every twist and turn in no longer claiming our lives as our own. We strive to be fully surrendered so that we can bear witness to the power of the Divine Will - a power that swells our hearts with new and greater joys, excesses of love and ever increasing levels of gratitude for God and for one another.

Recently we had the honor and privilege of meeting Fr. Theophile in person - a beautiful priest in the Divine Will whom Mary has appointed to shepherd us. While much was discussed - certainly far too much to recount here – we were reminded of the only thing that Jesus asks us to do in order to receive the fullness of the gift of the Divine Will – we need simply to make a firm resolve, a decision, to begin. Once we have done this, we need only to begin again, day after day, to give Jesus permission over our souls, bodies and intellects – over our very lives. To allow Him to do what only He can, in the manner in which He desires. We need only to be docile to the Spirit in all things, recognizing our littleness, but never being doubtful of His grandeur. Once we truly begin, we can be assured of His fidelity in finishing the good work that He Himself began in us long ago.

No matter who you are or where in life you find yourself, remember that everything is completely and utterly in His Divine hands.

Like David, we have all felt unseen, incapable, and “least likely” – and, dare we say, unworthy. Even so, do not be afraid to make the decision to begin – to allow Him permission to enter, to purify your heart, to heal you of your deepest wounds, to detach you from the deceit of the fleeting riches of this world and to form you anew in His Will. And, like David, you will continue to be both humbled and exalted by the might of His right hand, that all would bear witness to the glory of God through the testament of your life.

Finally, it is important to mention what Jesus Himself desires from souls in the Divine Will: “So, from the beginning, the Divine Master began to strip my heart of all creatures, and through an interior voice, He would tell me: “ I am all that is beautiful and that deserves to be loved. See, if you do not remove this little world that surrounds you – that is, thoughts of creatures, imagination – I cannot freely enter into your heart.

– Fr. Theophile*

David was in waiting until the appointed time. So too, we have been awaiting this time. Now the time has come to arise, for Our Lord will have His Kingdom and Our Lady will have her Triumph. And they will not delay.

And so, whatever the nudge,
whatever the decision,
whatever the change...Do not delay any further. Simply put:
Do whatever He tells you.

Do not be afraid.
You were born to do this.

...This murmuring in your mind is a hindrance to letting you hear my voice more clearly, to pouring my graces, to truly enamoring you of Me... please!, imitate Me when I was in the house of Nazareth – my mind was occupied with nothing but the glory of the Father and the salvation of souls; my mouth uttered nothing but holy discourses. With my words I tried to repair for the offenses against the Father, to dart through hearts and draw them to my love...In a word, everything called upon God, everything was done for God, and everything referred to Him. Why could you not do the same?"

We have devoted our lives to setting the world on fire, desiring nothing other than for Jesus to have His long awaited Kingdom; that the Divine Will would reign supreme here on earth as it is in heaven. As of the date of this newsletter, our funds have been depleted and we are counting on your donations to continue to carry out the work that Jesus has entrusted to this mission. Even so, we continue to trust that His greater mission for souls to receive the gift of the Divine Will no longer be delayed. We thank you in advance for your generosity, and are forever grateful for each and every one of you for your little “yes”. We love you all, and are here for you, too. Please feel free to reach out at any time. Fiat!
