

The Prodigious Birth of the Blessed Virgin Mary

Most Holy Trinity, I enter into the act of the miraculous birth of the Heavenly Queen.

As Mary is born, the Divine Will is born together with her, in order to form its operating and growing life within her.

She encloses within herself the heavens, the Sun of the Divine Will, as well as the little earth of her humanity.

As she is born, the Heavens and Earth are shaken, and place themselves at attention, feeling a mysterious strength, the strength of the Divine Will that moves them, and all of creation places itself at the disposition of the newborn baby girl.

I enter into and make my own the first act of the Celestial Virgin that she performed as she emerged from the womb of her mother.

As she is born, she is enraptured by the lullabies of the angels who surround her, and together with the angels her beautiful soul goes out of her little body.

I place my soul together with Mary, as she flies throughout Heaven and Earth, gathering all the love God had spread throughout all creation.

Together with her, I penetrate Heaven and place myself at the foot of Your Divine Throne my God, offering You the return of love of all creation.

Together with the newborn Queen, I pronounce my "thank you" in the name of all, and plunge myself into Your Paternal arms, that you may embellish me with new beauty, with new light and new love.

Together with Mary, I plead graces and blessings for sinful mankind.

Most Holy Trinity, as Mary tearfully pleads before you that the Eternal Word would descend and save humanity, Your Divine Will makes it known to her that It wants her to descend to Earth and continue her prayers.

To leave the Divine Presence is a sacrifice that costs Mary dearly, but she makes it without hesitation, so that the Divine Will alone may have absolute dominion.

As she detaches herself from Your contentments and joys to return to the land of exile my God, You no longer feel the earth as alien to You, for innocent little Mary smiles at You and blocks Your arms of Divine Justice, turning chastisements into blessings, and hastening the coming of the Eternal Word upon the earth.

I glorify and love you my God, in the act in which the newborn Queen opens her eyes to this lowly world and goes in search of her children to safely enclose them within her maternal heart, to give them her love, to regenerate them to the new life of love and grace and to impart to them the step that would enable them to enter into the Kingdom of the Divine Fiat.

Holy Mother, I place my soul within your Maternal Heart, that you may enrich me with your love, and give me the grace to live in the Divine Will.

I also receive into my soul, as balm and remedy, the bitter tears you shed from the cradle, on account of seeing your children dominated by the human will.

Although the newborn Queen is enriched with infinite expanses of joys and happiness, she feels within her heart a current of intense bitterness, on account of her children, who, each one holding a special place in her heart, embitter her happiness with the poison of the human will.

So innocent little Mary lives her life in a continuous alteration of joy and sorrow, and does not cease to pray and beseech the Divinity to have mercy on mankind, to send the Redeemer and to restore to all humanity the gift of living in the Divine Will.

I place my soul together with Mary as, throughout her infancy and childhood, the angels, in response to her overwhelming desire of love, take her up in their arms and place her in the arms of the Divinity.

These brief pauses of perceived separation cause new fiery surgings of love to emerge from within Mary's heart; they are gifts that the Divinity gives to her.

Each time she enters the Divine Presence, she pours out her love with her God, and the Most Holy Trinity enriches her with new graces and blessings. Then she repeats her prayers for mankind, pours out her sorrow, and makes the great sacrifice of returning to the land of exile.

I place my soul together with little Mary, in the arms of the Divine Father, that I may receive together with her, the gift of ardent fiery desire of love, and the enrichment of all the Divine Qualities.

I follow you Holy Mother, in the act in which you descended from Heaven to do the Divine Will on Earth.

As your parents hold you in their arms, they experience unusual joys never before felt, for they feel the Divine Life pulsating within you.

As you grow, the Divine Life grows within you. All of your prayers, works, steps, eating, sleeping and the little tasks with which you help your mother, are all animated by the Divine Will.

And since you always carry me your heart, you call my acts together with yours, so that in my acts too, even the most menial ones, the Kingdom of the Divine Will might be established.

I place my acts together with yours Holy Mother, that your acts may be the refuge and the foundation of mine, and that the Kingdom of the Divine Will may be firmly established within me.

Holy Mother,

I place my prayers within your prayers.

I place my words within your words.

I place my steps within your steps.

I place all of the acts of my daily routine within yours, that they may receive strength from your acts and flourish as beautiful acts done completely in the Divine Will.

Supplemental Readings

The Virgin Mary in the Kingdom of the Divine Will* (Days 10-12)

The Book of Heaven* Volume 11 August 14, 1912