MONTHLY LUNCHEON MEETING – DEC. 12, 2025

President's Corner-

Seasons' Greetings,

Are you looking forward to the Christmas and Hanukkah festivities?

I am. I really enjoy the holiday lights by the UTC mall and at the private homes in the neighborhoods. There will be craft fairs to buy different types of gifts and traditional treats.

One of my weaknesses is Christmas tree ornaments. When I travel, I look for them in different countries. They add to my joy during the holiday.

I must admit that the holidays have become too commercialized over the years. I don't like seeing displays of Christmas things in October! This takes away the specialness of the holiday.

Many of us will be seeing family and friends that live elsewhere. Sharing recipes and fond memories of the past make this time of year special.

Eat, drink, and be merry, but don't forget the true meaning of these holidays.

Have a healthy and happy New Year,

Emily

CELEBRATE THE HOLIDAY SEASON
WITH THE MUSIC OF THE
“MUSIC MAKERS”

Stu Krams, John LiMarzi and Ron Salotto

A band comprised of base, guitar, and piano musicians who have a lifelong love of music and entertaining groups. All the musicians are members of the “Cascades of Sarasota” in-house band that regularly performs concerts and supports the entertainment in their community.

BTW: We will also have a special guest visiting the Alums, because he heard that all of our members have been very GOOD all year round. He tends to reward people like that.

A note from Bridgit

Thank you to all the ladies who came to Gloria's Gals lunch at Cassariano. We enjoyed food, conversation and friendship and look forward to seeing everyone at future events. If you are no longer able to attend after having RSVP'd, a quick, direct message to the host is appreciated so plans can be adjusted accordingly. Restaurants plan for our confirmed number of attendees and knowing we will be having fewer people at the luncheon will help them avoid extra costs and arrangements and shows them respect for hosting our group.

Thank you!
