PROPOSED LETTERS OF GUIDANCE

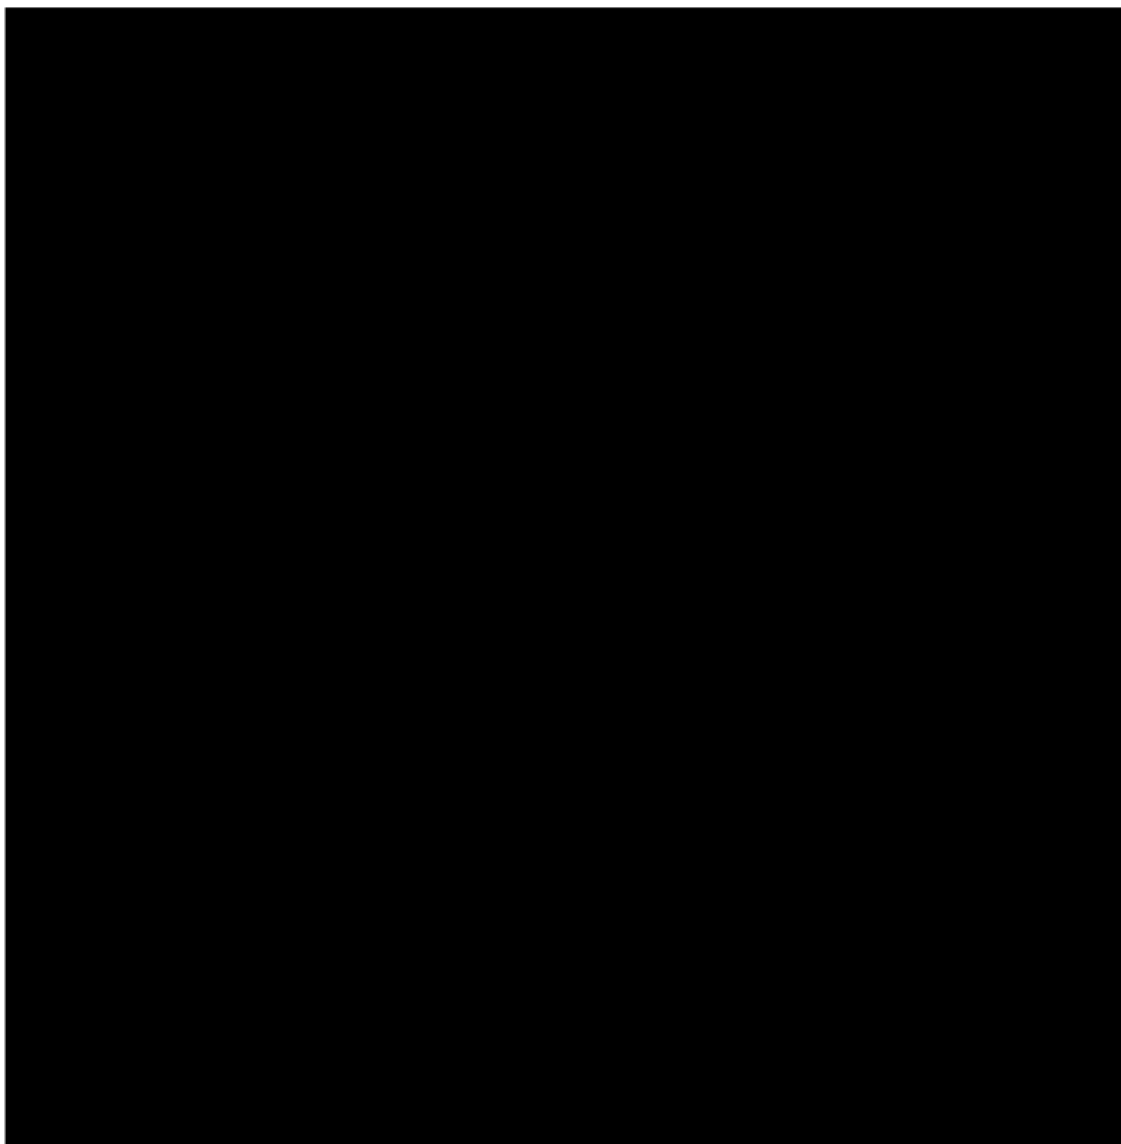

The Panel may discuss any cases where deliberation is desired by a Panel Member. When deliberation is complete, a Panel member will make a motion on whether to dismiss with a Letter of Guidance in lieu of a finding of probable cause. This motion can then be seconded, and the members will vote on the motion. If no Panel Members wish to deliberate on any cases, the Panel may vote to dismiss all cases without discussion via a single motion.

PROPOSED CLOSING ORDERS/NO PROBABLE CAUSE

The Panel may discuss any cases where deliberation is desired by a Panel Member. When deliberation is complete, a Panel member will make a motion on whether to dismiss. This motion can then be seconded, and the members will vote on the motion. If no Panel Members wish to deliberate on any cases, the Panel may vote to dismiss all cases without discussion via a single motion.
